The Convention of the reported blockade of the Mississippi river, published yesterday morning, was the subject of general conversation in mercantile circles. The advertisement was a meeting in the morning, and there was a large attendance. The meeting was held at the residence of Mr. J. W. Wood, and was presided over by Mr. J. W. Wood. The object of the meeting was to discuss the proposed blockade of the Mississippi river, and to decide upon the course to be pursued by the merchants of this city in relation to the same. The meeting was very interesting and profitable, and resulted in the adoption of certain resolutions, which will be published in our columns.
