LIFE WARD.

NUMBER XIV.

And now, as God, from Heaven's high throne He saith
All that we fellow-men on earth He said!
For, as the Spirit boasteth mid the throne,
It is His very mission here to tell—
Tell of heaven's reign of love on earth be known!
—Love-sent. He cometh w'th Almighty aid,
That the believer may be strong in faith,
And, when the wicked threaten, not afraid!
He comforts, holy Paraclete! to dwell
In loving hearts—whose praise of loving well,
The welcome presence of the heaven-sent Guest,
And heart-refreshing joy and duty-felt peace attest!
Through all the past, whatever Grace hath said—
Now unto each, according to his faith,
Now unto each according to his need,
The gracious Jesus by His Spirit saith—
Sounding them with distinct and even pleas:
"Come unto me, ye humble ones, and fair!
My eyes upon ye; and be not afraid.
Though wise appear! My Father, for my sake,
Will even you His, and love you as His own!"
(O, hear the Saviour! He is Christ, the Lord!
The fullness of all life is in His word!)
Think'st thou canst learn by merely outward sense
What life is, and to live? It comes not thence!
To learn to live, by, only comes through faith—
Itself a revelation of the unknown
And undiscoverable. Where and When
And Whence and Whither—ev'n as far as thought,
In all's amplitude of power, can range
Transcendent, met by methods finely wrought,
By numbering categories up to ten,
And other formal vanities of strange
Unwholeness, ev'n as written by the pen
Of the forgotten dead, can living men
Find wisdom? To be found, it must be sought
In the all-revealing light of heaven born faith—
Which bids the prodigal arise and come
To his Father's home, and there rejoice again;
Yea, guides the weary, way-worn wanderer home
From exile, slavery, and a land of death!

O, what a testimony here is brought
From heaven!—and what immeasurable love
The Spirit of Jesus, coming from above
Those heavenly places, worketh here to prove!
Through each Holy One to work for nought!
Faithful, and kept in He that is to speak—
And who from heaven and down the ages saith
To the generations of the sons of men—
This Holy—That not by bread alone men liveth;
This Yea—But by the word of life's God speak
Jesus, himself thy Father! He is Christ, the Lord!
The fullness of all life is in His word!—
In Him is Yea, and in Him is Amen!"

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The recent Presbyterian Convention, held in this city to promote a Revival in the churches, adopted an address, which appears in the last issue of the "Banner," addressed to the Presbyterian Churches in Ohio, Central and Western Pennsylvania, and other churches represented in that body. The Convention, afterwards, adopted a serious of resolutions, which we condense, as follows: 1. To read Address or Letter before the congregation. 2. That a special meeting of each Session to take into prayerful consideration the subject of a Revival of Religion. 3. General Pastoral Visitation in which the elders shall co-operate with the pastor. 4. The pastors to preach upon the great subject of the Revival of God's work. 5. To observe the first Thursday in February, throughout the bounds of these Synods, as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer, for the Reviving of God's work among us, especially. 6. That the concurrence and co-operation of any Ministers, Churches, or Synods, will encourage the hearts of the members of this Convention.

——The "Northern Christian Advocate," in an article on Class Meetings, thus concludes:

"It will be seen that the class meeting, as an item of Church economy, holds a very close relation to an itinerant ministry. Under any system of Gospel administration, the class and leader would be a powerful adjunct; but under a system of itinerancy it is almost indispensible. The leader, in the capacity of sub-pastor, can do for the members what the pastor is forbidden to do by other and more extensive labors."

——The Prince of Wales has presented a donation of eight hundred dollars to the Victoria Wesleyan College, Coburg, Canada, to furnish prizes for annual distribution.

——The Sunday School "Times," established and published by the American Sunday School Union, is published now as an individual enterprise, and has no official connection whatever with the Union.

——According to the Congregational Quarterly for 1861, there is 260,389 members of that denomination, 2,706 ministers, and 2,-734 churches.

——Cardinal Wiseman issued a Christmas Pastoral, in which he compares the "British Legislature as Herod and Protestants in general are his soldiers who are working here and there, and using every artifice to get hold of the orthodox child, and assassinate both its body and soul." The pastoral concludes with an appeal for some popish Schoo's, Homes and Refuges. The London "Times" deals him a heavy blow. It says:

"After the first two or three notes of the pastoral pipe, we begin to know how we are taken in. We open our door to a Christmas carol, and in rushes a masked burglar, to ask our money or our lives. What a beautiful basket of figs! but out creeps an asp. The price our gone round. Charitable guests are invited to pledge one another. Beware there is poison in it, and the bell already tolls for your obsequies. 'Tis the sweet reaper time; you wait out and listen to the music in the corn, and overhear it. In a moment all is confusion, shouts, fire-arms, shrieks and groans. The only feature of Christmas is the latter s the string of the holly leaf, and the only blood of the berry. It is not the true mistletoe of the oak, but that of the crab-tree. The Cardinal would kill Christmas itself, to get something for his cause."

——It is reported says the English correspondent of the Banner, that the late Duke of Norfolk has bequeathed £30,000 to Romish uses in England, and £10,000 to the Pope himself.

——A correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post writes from Lyons, (France) of a curious custom which he noticed at the service of the French Protestant Church. After the minister had been preaching about fifteen minutes he stopped abruptly and pronounced a word and sat down. Immediately the congregation was seized with fits of coughing and expectoration. In five minutes afterwards the minister resumed his discourse and was not disturbed thereafter.

——Bishop Whittingham (Episcopal), of Baltimore, uses the word "Reconciliation," to denote the reception of a minister from another denomination into the Church.

——The New York Advocate says:

"Rabbi Raphael has been repeating his sermon on slavery. It is a significant fact that certain shrewd men, when they would defend slavery from the Bible, prefer the old dispensation to the new, and choose a champion from among those who reject Christ and the New Testament."

——The New York Churchman announces that the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States is the only true conservator of faith and morals in the land. This view will surprise some of our readers—but to the quotation. It says:

"The Roman Church cannot be expected to meet the difficulties of the position in which our country is placed. Nor can any of the Protestant sects. They have all committed themselves so fully upon the great question at issue, that all hope of a satisfactory solution being arrived at through their instrumentality must prove altogether futile. The Church, and the Church alone, is soundly conservative on this, as on all other points, and to her must the country look for relief from its embarrassments. If our political horizon is ever again to become clear, we believe that it must be by the action of the Church. And in saying this we would not be understood to mean that we see any present prospect of a recognition of the principle that an ecclesiastical oligarchy, if the term may be allowed, is the only true form of government. The period will come, in God's good time, when this truth will be seen and felt; but to all appearance that time is not yet. The Church herself must previously reform and reorganize."

An exchange commenting on the above says, the idea of an ecclesiastical oligarchy settling the political difficulties of the country is as old as popery, but the recent events in Italy look strongly to its entire explosion. It will hardly be revived here.

——The pews in the Plymouth Church, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Rev. H. W. Beecher, pastor, were rented for the year 1861. The yearly revenue, it is supposed, will reach thirty thousand dollars.

——The great Jonathan Edwards says:

"As it is commanded of God that all should sing, so all should make conscience of learning to sing, as it is a thing that cannot be done decently without learning. Those, therefore, who neglect to learn to sing live in sin, as they neglect what is necessary to their attending one of the ordinances of God."

——According to the Catalogue for 1860—1, of the Andover Theological Seminary, there are one hundred and thirty-three students enrolled.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By this timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, by cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for the most worthless stuff, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. If nee, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is put into disrepute, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it carries with it an irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has won for itself such a reason for the cure of every form of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been received. As it has now been in constant use throughout the section, we need only say that we assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

D R. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by deflagration in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocent in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Affections/Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Rheumatic Affections, Whites, Chlorosis, Ovarian Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Mercurial Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued disinfection of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids of so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returns from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous stagnation, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and nervousness familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxydes and acid preparations of iron, which permit the oxydizing and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Innumerable are its cases, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often suffered for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and nervous hectic, which generally indicate incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculous, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparation of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly all-ailing them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been favorably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

PROF. WOOD'S

Restorative Cordial AND BLOOD RENOVATOR

IS PRECISELY WHAT ITS NAME INDIJATES—for while pleasant to the taste, it is very PURIFYING, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers; it is also a most certain, reliable and speedy relief in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invincible to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skilfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to each and every case as the weakest stomach, and from the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetable gums and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease; and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous of which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for instance, as the following: consumption, bronchitis, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy hypocondria, night sweats, liver, complaint, and all that class of cases so mentally fatal if sanctioned to in time called fem's weaknesses or irregularities. Also, liver derangements or fertility, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or too embrace of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, side and between the shoulders, predisposition to inflammation, hacking and continued cough, suffocation, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following chills and fevers, but prevent all attacks arising from it, and will invigorate and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, producing, in fact all the secretions and excretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence, all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spo
