Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK SAYS:
"The majority of hair dyes, Hair Dyes, Hair Colors, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as are employed to show cause why all humbugs of the day, in any their real merits, which they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOPP'S LARD OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the coolest character of humbug, and when caught at by verdant young and old fools, are sure to be just the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any high sounding catchpenny terms to simply advertises a Hair Restorative—that is, expresses precisely what it is, and so a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and if you value your scalp, spoil your very brains, apply nothing else, for it may be that you will get some other nostrum than professed lard on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove at once all itching,
Will cure Humors in the scalp,
Will cure all eruptions—even Salt Rheum,
Will make the hair soft and glossy,
Will make the old look young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always keep the hair from falling off, and stop its Falling,
And is one of the best Tonic Articles for the Hair now in use.

LATEST NEWS BY MAIL.

Many Northwestern Republicans are disposed to accept the greater portion of Senator Douglas' last new Compromise. They will even swallow his refined and somewhat modified Popular Sovereignty. The proposition to extend the Presidential term to six years, making the President ineligible to re-election, and electing him by a direct popular vote, meets much favor. Mr. Douglas will press his resolutions to a consideration by the Senate at the earliest moment, but it is exceedingly doubtful if they can be passed before the 4th of March.—N. Y. Times.

Most of the important committees of the Senate were entirely reconstructed to-day, and are, therefore, in readiness for the work.

They have done nothing for several days, owing to the withdrawal of Senators.

Senator Pearce becomes chairman of the Finance committee, and Thomson, of N. Y., chairman of that of Naval Affairs, while Rigler leaves the Committee on Commerce.—N. Y. World.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, 1861.

A letter from Capt. Doubleday, dated at Fort Sumter, January 19 and 20, denies the report of mutiny among the garrison, and states that the command is in cheerful spirits, and prepared to defend the fort to the last if attacked, and contradicts the report in the Charleston papers about the condition of the troops, &c. He writes that mortars have been planted on Cummings' Point, the nearest land to Fort Sumter, by South Carolina troops, and that two steamers watched the fort all the night of the 19th. Provisions have not been furnished by the Charlestonians.

The fued between Messrs. Rust and Dunn, although wearing a decidedly belligerent aspect at first, will probably end neither in bloodshed nor gunpowder. The Republicans do not want a squabble of this kind now, and from prudential considerations, having in view the peaceful advent of the new administration, will exercise every honorable effort to avoid a collision between Southerners and any of their own champions. It is stated, however, that a western representative has offered to take the quarrel off Dunn's hands for a certain consideration.

The War Department received a dispatch to-day from Augusta, Ga., stating that a demand has been made upon Captain Elsey, who is in command of a company of United States soldiers stationed at the Augusta arsenal, for the surrender of the arsenal to the military of that place. They give him until nine o'clock to-morrow to surrender. If not by that time, he will be attacked. This company was sent there at the request of citizens of Augusta some three months ago, for the purpose of protecting it against the mob. What instructions the government may give to Captain Elsey respecting this matter has not transpired.—There are several thousand stand of arms of different kinds belonging to the government.

There is great rejoicing here to-night, in consequence of the receipt of a dispatch from Mr. Garrard, Treasurer of Kentucky, announcing that the legislature of that state has decided against calling a convention, which has been urged only by the secession leaders. This is considered equivalent to a declaration against disunion. The Union men here from Kentucky and other border states, especially from Maryland, are congratulating each other upon the step taken by Kentucky, while the disunionists appear very much chagrined.

A letter received from Frankfort, Ky., to-night, says the legislature passed a resolution authorizing the display of the national flag upon the state house, and the firing of thirty-three guns in honor of the Union. The flag was run up, and a committee was appointed to call upon Governor Magoffin to obtain his authority for using a cannon. He refused. The Union men then notified him that if he refused the use of the cannon they would take it. The Governor then assented, and the salute was fired amid the greatest enthusiasm of the people.

Despatches were sent to-day by the Senators and representatives in all the Governors of the border States to meet the propositions of Virginia to appoint Commissioners to assemble in Washington, on the 4th of February, in order to settle our national difficulties. This is now believed to be the only hope of saving the country.

Cassius M. Clay is urging the Republicans to go for Mr. Adams' proposition to admit Kansas into the Union with the Wyandotte constitution, and then to admit New Mexico, with or without slavery, as the people may determine. While there is not much objection to this plan on the part of the Republicans, it does not appear that the South generally will accept it, although there is reason to believe that Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware would accept it. Indeed, there appears to be evidence that these States are not to be dragged out of the Union by the approach to power of the constitutionally elected President. They seem to be assuming a more dignified attitude than that presented by other States, in the desire manifested by them to be bribed to stay in the Union by compromise.—N. Y. Herald.

Much feeling is excited here that the President should have sent a messenger to Pensacola with instructions substantially advising non-resistance on the part of the small force stationed there. His first duty was to have re-enforced Fort Pickens, and then have retaken the other forts and Navy Yards. If Fort Pickens is taken by the rebels, Pensacola will be the depot of piratical and privateering expedition to prey upon the commerce of the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean Sea, and our trade with the Pacific States.

The Committee of Way and Means have reported the following Appropriations, for the support of the Government:

Naval	$11,423,222 30
Army	14 395,352 67
Sundry Civil Expenditures	1,851 868 39
Legislative	7,076,949 46
Consular	1,292 316 38
Military Academy	1,004 270 00
Pensions	159 337 00
Indian Affairs	1,082,000 00
	1,847,755 34

No bill has been reported for fortifications, which are estimated at $854,000. The Post Office deficiency for next year is not included above, which is $6,301,356 62. The total expenditures for the postal service of 1862 are estimated at $15,-760, 285 23.—N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The Republican Senators have determined in caucus to accept the withdrawal of the ten seceding Senators as an actual resignation. They will, therefore, propose that the names of Messrs. Clay, Fitzpatrick, Yulee, Mallory, Davis, Iverson, Toombs, Davis, Brown, Chesnut and Hammond be stricken from the roll of the Senate. By this action the danger of the Southern Senators reclaiming their seats, under pretense that they had not resigned, will be avoided.

Georgia.

We have received from a gentleman of this city a long and interesting letter from a town in Central Georgia, which was received here in an unsealed envelope. The privacy of Uncle Sam's letter bag had evidently been violated, in this case; fortunately for the writer, he had written a blind letter—without date and without signature—merely addressed to "George," and signed "Sam," and those who opened the letter were, therefore, but poorly rewarded for their pains. We would publish the letter entire, but that it is only a corroboration of the news which we have published from all parts of the South already. The writer speaks of the latest Union sentiment of the people, and the means by which the politicians and secessionists hate crushed out this sentiment, by the grossest misrepresentations of the intentions and principles of Northern men, and the most Quixotic ideas of the glorious state of things to ensue from Secession, in the South. This writer, in common with others, thinks the crisis is passing; and that the heavy taxations and forced loans, the anarchy and misrule, with the utter prostration of planting and commercial interests throughout the Cotton States—these and other causes are fast opening the eyes of the people to their folly, in having given themselves into the hands of demagogues and traitors.

Mississippi Exchequer.

The Committee on Ways and Means in the Mississippi Convention, has submitted majority and minority reports on the question of revenue for the support of the Independent State. The majority propose the issue of treasury notes and bonds, in such sums as from time to time are needed, not to exceed in the aggregate $5,000,000, nor to run for a longer time than five years. The minority report proposes the establishment of a great State Bank, with a capital of $10,000,000, to be located at Jackson, the capital of the State. The State is to be a stockholder in the Bank to the extent of $5,000,000, and for the subscription a special tax is to be levied and collected of the people at the rate of $500,000 per annum for ten years. The Bank is not to issue more than three dollars to one of the capital stock; the issues to be regarded as legal tender; and after the 1st of March, 1862, the Legislature may compel the redemption of the notes in gold and silver.

VICTOR EMANUEL AND THE STAGE CROWN.—A strange affair, says a letter from Turin, has occurred in this city. The municipal council resolved to present King Victor Emanuel, on his return, a gold circlet, representing oak and laurel leaves. But there were only six days to prepare one, and Italian workmen were not active enough to make one in so short a time. A Jew presented himself, and offered for six thousand francs, a magnificent crown which he had by him. His offer was accepted and the money paid; but lo! the discovery was afterwards made that the circlet in question had been bought at a sale of the effects of Fanny Elsler, the celebrated dancer, and, as proved by an inscription inside, that it was given to her after a performance at London, by an Englishman who was a fanatical admirer of her dancing. Judge of the effect thus created. Nothing else is talked of in the city.

A HAT TIMES IN ST. LOUIS.—The St. Louis Democrat, of yesterday, says:

Mark Hamilton, esq., one of our oldest and most esteemed merchants, closed his store yesterday, and will notify his friends upon resuming business. We understand that many others are about doing the same thing. Secession is doing its work.

South Carolina.

The Charleston correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

Every movement, thought and action of those in and out of authority relates to the taking, or the getting possession of Fort Sumter. It is a passion. The Governor and Council are pursuing a moderate policy, and as secret as moderate. There are those who shake their heads wisely and say that a grand stroke is about to take place, by which everything will be gained. I will venture the remark, that the holding of Fort Sumter rests on the re-enforcement of that garrison. While as at present constituted it would not be able to successfully defend the Fort if attacked, the Carolinians think they know how they are to have it without bloodshed. "I only know that the intelligence that no reinforcements are to be sent to Fort Sumter, is the best piece of news the Revolutionists have received for many a day.

I have never seen the fact anywhere stated that the Ordinance of Secession never received the signatures or assent of all the members of the Convention of South Carolina. The fact is, quite a number refused to sign this document. I have no doubt that to-day the number would be much greater. There is a Union party in South Carolina, and it is gaining every day.

THE NEW Orleans Picayune says:

The capture of the arsenals and fortified places of the United States, within the limits of the Southern States, by the people and Government of those States has given rise to an amount of Northern indignation wholly disproportioned to the gravity of the offence, viewed even in the light of a filibustering exploit. If it had been the foray of a lawless mob, for purposes of robbery and rapine, it could not have been visited with a greater amount of vindictive denunciation.

Well, what was it? The State of Louisiana took possession of the Arsenal at Baton Rouge, and the next thing we hear, the Governor is giving away the arms of the Federal Government to the State of Mississippi.—Cin. Com.

Ohio.

The Senate has passed the bill introduced by Mr. Schleich (a democrat) to arm the State efficiently. It authorizes the organization of fifteen regiments of troops in the State, not to exceed six thousand men; and after prescribing that they shall be sober, and uniform according to regulations, they shall be entitled to five dollars each per annum for armory expenses. An appropriation of thirty thousand dollars annually at the outside would be required to carry out the law. It will probably pass the House.

New York.

Gov. Morgan, in transmitting to the Legislature the resolutions of Virginia, relative to a Conference of all the States by Commissioners at Washington, on the 4th of February, recommend that four Commissioners should be appointed by the Legislature to meet and confer with the Commissioners of Virginia and all other States, whether slave holding or non-slaveholding, who have been invited by the General Assembly of the Old Dominion to join in a final effort to avert so dire a calamity as the permanent dissolution of the American Union.

A SECESSION FIX.—The Constitution of the State of Mississippi prescribes that no person shall be a Senator unless he be a citizen of the United States; no person can be Governor unless he be a citizen of the United States; and no person can be elected Senator unless he be a citizen of the United States. Now, if the act of secession has really taken Mississippi out of the Union, her Governor, her members of the Legislature, her inhabitants, are all divested of their citizenship; they are consequently incompetent to act, and what they do must be "null and void, and no law."

THE SECESSIONISTS HARD UP.—The Nashville Banner says:

We learn that it is so difficult for the medical students of the University of Nashville, from the extreme South to get means from home, that there has been sent to the faculty a unanimous request to terminate the session a month sooner than usual, it being impossible for the students to stay. The faculty will probably be forced to comply with their request.

DANGEROUS MISSION ABOLISHED.—The Rhenish Missionary Society has resolved not to revive the mission to South Borneo. Last May seven missionaries were murdered, every station, with its schools and churches, was plundered and burnt, the native Christians persecuted and dispersed, and the Society lost £2,000. The mission, established in 1839, consisted, in 1850, of ten stations, under eleven missionaries, 435 members of the church, 1,265 pupils and 700 manumitted slaves. The agents who escaped the massacre are to begin operations in Sumatra.

THE New Orleans Delta, in its account of the ceremonies attendant upon taking possession of the U. S. Arsenal at Baton Rouge, states with great pertinacity that the American flag was hoisted with "fifteen stars obliterated." What was that for? There are fifteen slave States and eighteen free ones. Why were the fifteen stars cut? The Southern idea of the American flag seems to be somewhat confused.—Cincinnati Commercial.

THE Charleston Mercury promises the leading revolutionists that they will have the gratification hereafter of reading a history of their deeds. Ah yes, it may perhaps be said of them in the words of Alexander Smith:

"A thousand years from now
They'll sit pale ghosts upon the Stygian shore
And read their acts by the red light of hell."
