AREATED FOR LARCENY.—Beverly Peterson, charged with the larceny of a coat from Andrew Jackson, was streated by the Mayor's police yesterday, and committed for trial. A companion of the delegadat was convicted at the last term of Court, and is sew in the penitentiary, having been caught in the sci of pawing the coat at a loan office on smithfuld street. It appears that the coat was stoles by Peterson, and as a true bill was found against him by the last Grand Jary, his prospects for the penitentiary are very fixthering. The parties are all colored.

SERT OVER.—Wm. Hall and Edward Harris were taken to the penitentiary Saterday by Jailor Small. The foremer was contenced to an imprisonment of two years and six months, and the latter for one year and six months, for larreny. Hall previously served a term in the penitentiary, so that the confinement will not be novel to him.

BREAK DOWN. Fridey morning, as a train of coal cars was backing into the coal yard of John Little, Jr., agent for the Youghloghany Coal Co., on Littery atreet, the treatle work of a portion of the road gave way, precipitating four leaded cars to the yard below. Fortunately no wagons were in the yard, preparatory to leading, and no one was burt. WASHIRSTON CITY, Feb. 2 — Senator Summer had an interview with the President to day, in relation to an offer of military aid by the Legislature of Massachneatts for the defense of the Federal property, and the enforcement of the laws. Mr. Summer asked what more can Massachneatts do for the Usion? The President replied: Adopt the resolutions offered by Mr. Crittendee. Mr. Summer Trionned: The public sentiment of Massachneatts makes that impossible, and be agreed with that sentiment.
