The Reason Why Fort Sumter was Not Attacked.

Major Chase, the commander of the State troops at Pensacola, passed through Columbus, Ga., on the 4th inst., en route to Tallahassee, to have a conference with Gov. Perry, of Florida. The Columbus Times says:

In a brief conversation with him we learned that it is the policy of our men to avoid a conflict with the federal troops until after the 4th of March. The reason for which course were that so strongly a fortified place as Pickens ought not to be stormed, but captured by bombardment or siege; and time was necessary to complete preparations for a successful attack. That victory would doubtless follow a desperate charge upon the fort with the loss of seventy-five out of one hundred men, but it was a question of doubtful expediency, not to say a display of bad generalship, to win a battle at so costly a sacrifice. That one hundred and ten men were in the fort, sufficient to manage the guns. The howitzers on the angles were capable of being fired at the rate of ten shots in the minute, which would do terrible slaughter. That the fort could be taken in the right way and the right time. That a demand would be made by the commissioners sent to Washington by the Southern Congress, and on failure of its acceptance preparations for an attack would begin. The arrival of the Brooklyn with its few men was not a matter of much consequence. Major Chase's opinion was that Lieut. Slemmer, in command of the federal troops, would defend the fort. During Maj. Chase's absence, Col. Tennent Lomax has command at Pensacola.

A Scene Among the Peace Commissioners.

A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes:

"Meanwhile the Peace Commissioners are holding secret and harmonious counsel in Willard's Hall, on F street. I had the pleasure last evening, by high request, of a gathering composed of a number of these gentlemen, including the majority of those from Pennsylvania, and it gives me unwonted satisfaction to state that I do not find a discouraging voice in regard to the necessity of a healing and magnanimous adjustment of our national troubles. A very imposing scene took place one day last week, during the deliberations of the Commissioners. Mr. Seddon, of Virginia, a very serious man, and, I fear, little disposed to lend the way to reconciliation, having made some objectionable remarks, the Chief Justice of North Carolina, Mr. Ruffin, who is now over eighty years of age, and the idol of the people among whom he lives, alike because of his spotless character as his gigantic intellect, rose to his feet, and pronounced one of the most inspiring and affecting appeals for the Union. I am told that he melted the hearts of even the most ultra of his colleagues, and that ex-Governor Morehead, of North Carolina, himself a remarkable man, and only second to the aged Chief Justice in the love of the people of the old North State, burst into a flood of tears, which he could not restrain. Such are the influences at work in Washington."

A Jar at Montgomery.

South Carolina is not likely to be pleased at the Montgomery Convention, or Congress, or delegate mob, whatever may be the true name. Its representatives at that convention already pitted against what they call the Mississippi scheme of extemporizing the new confederacy, which scheme they say is to elect Jeff. Davis President by the convention itself, to accept the Constitution and laws of the United States as they are for the present, and then to wait awhile for northern concessions. No permanent constitution or permanent government is intended by them, it is said, and this "usurpation of power," as the Charleston authority calls it, is likely to rule in Montgomery, to the great detriment of South Carolina. The worst of the loss is to be the restoration of the old Union, so that, "after all, we will have run round a circle, ending where we started. The Union will be restored, with a few guarantees about negroes, such as the frontier States want; but which are of no consequence whatever to the cotton States, and we will again enter on the downward road of consolidation and ruin. If the Mississippi policy is carried out, the convention need not sit a week."

An "Outrage" at Savannah, Georgia.

The City Council of Savannah, Ga., have offered $500, and the British Consul $1,000 reward, for the apprehension of parties concerned in a late outrage upon Captain Vaughn, of the British ship Kalos. The Savannah papers do not tell us in what the outrage consisted. The Republican, however, says:

"We are pleased to see that the Mayor and Council have resolved to put a stop to a course of conduct, that is setting all law at defiance and bringing deep disgrace upon the city. More than this, it has reached a point where it may embroil the whole country in war and bloodshed. Whatever may be the motive that prompts to such conduct, the parties who engage in it must see its evil effects upon society, and that the great body of our most respectable citizens, who have the deepest interest in the institutions of the South, have nothing but unqualified condemnation for their course. Let them, then, for their own sakes, and for the welfare of the country in which they live, abandon it, and at once."

Latest from Fort Sumter.

The Charleston Courier of Wednesday says:

"We have had conversation with a citizen who left Fort Sumter on Sunday, and had been engaged there (said at Fort Moultrie) since November as a workman. He reports forty-four laborers and ninety-six soldiers (officers included) remaining in the fort, with a large supply of provisions. Quarters is spacious, according to his knowledge, fifty-eight barrels of pork and beef, five hogsheads of molasses, two casks of vinegar, with large supplies of flour and potatoes. The supply of rice, which was good, had been taken away by a drifting raft which was secured. As to the arms, our informant reports five Columbiads, 10 inches, in the yard, mounted on granite, two ranging towards the city, one towards Sullivan's Island, and one towards Fort Johnson. There are also four Columbiads, 8 inches, bearing on Fort Morris, three of the same calibre on Cumming's Point, and four that can be brought to bear upon Fort Pleasant or Sullivan's Island at choice. No reinforcements in man have been received."

Arkansas Secession.

We learn that at Marion, Arkansas, on Saturday week last, a horse race took place, respecting which great excitement was raised, and considerable betting was indulged in. In settling the bets, Wood rose and a fiery quarrel was the consequence, in the course of which no less than five persons were wounded—Mr. Graham, a farmer, was shot by Mr. Higge, who is a brother, we are informed, of the lawyer of that name. Graham's son, a boy of nine years old, then waderstook to avenge his father, and he shot Higge, wounding him in the arm. Higge next fired at the boy, and requested him—so seriously that his recovery is doubtful. A son of Mr. Wm. Tricr, a boy of twelve or fourteen, was badly wounded by a shot. Wm. Gatling is in jail for being concerned in the shooting; the remainder of the parties actually engaged (five persons), are confined to their beds; three of them are seriously wounded, but fair expectations of the recovery of all of them, except the child Graham, exist.—Memphis Appeal.

Mrs. Winslow,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reds. ing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and DAR-RAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT CURE when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter WHAT WE DO KNOW, after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in from fifteen to twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve and overcome convulsions, which, if not relieved, will produce death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic,

☞ ANOTHER CURE BY DR. SCHENCK.—I called on Dr. Schenck some time ago in one of his visits to Pittsburgh, at the cor. of Dr. Keyser, No. 140 Wood st. He was examining patients with lung diseases. One of my lungs and the whole of the lower portion of my chest was diseased. Oftentimes when I coughed I expectorated blood and matter in large quantities. I had night sweats and a great cough, and was greatly debilitated. Dr. Schenck prescribed for me his "PULMONIC SYRUP," "SEAWEED TONIC" and "MANDRAKE PILLS," and directed me to take them. I have so far recovered that I do not spit any more blood or matter, and the cough has nearly left me. I live in Cabell county, Cherry bottom, Ohio, where I am well known. You may publish this if you wish.

Pittsburgh, August 27, 1860. MARTIN KOOS.

N. B. Since the above was written, Mr. Koos has entirely recovered, and continues well, having regained his usual health.

☞ I, WILLIAM W. ALEXANDER, residing on Ann street, Allegheny city, do hereby certify that I have been a sufferer from severe cough and pain in the breast for about eight years. During the whole of this time I have had general debility and depression of spirits. I tried every nostrum I could hear of, but nothing took hold of my disease. I heard of Doctor Schenck's "PULMONIC SYRUP," but knowing no one personally that it had cured, I had no confidence in it. In April, 1860, I, in a severe cold, accompanied with a violent cough, still only a reciprocal increase, at which time I was induced to purchase Dr. Schenck's medicines a fair trial, and now, scarcely two bottles of the Syrup are gone, I feel as well as I ever did in my life. I have no hesitancy in saying that it has made a perfect cure. I unhesitatingly say that it has made a perfect cure of me. I can, and do, recommend it to any one in search of a medicine, assured by my own health and vigor of constitution, enjoyed by Dr. Schenck's medicine. I enjoy better health to day, Feb 4th 1861, than I have done for many years past. I gave the usual appreciation of Dr. Schenck's inestimable remedies, they would not hesitate to call on him in his visits to this place. I feel given this testimony of my own free will, and I have no other motive than a desire that others may be benefited by it. WILLIAM W. ALEXANDER.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 4th day of February, 1861. ALEX. ROSS, Alderman.
