The Central Board of Education.

The Central Board of Education met Tuesday, March 12th, 1861.

Present, Messrs. Duncan, Hunter, Marshall, McAuley, Sergeant, Saively, Varnum, and Negley, President.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The monthly reports of the Principals of the High and Colored Schools were read and ordered to be filed.

The monthly report of the Secretary was read and ordered to be filed.

A warrant was authorized in favor of Hugh Boice for $5, for washing towels five months for High School.

Mr. Varnum, from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries, reported in favor of allowing an additional teacher in the primary department, in the Seventh ward, and an additional teacher in the intermediate department, in the Ninth ward, from and after the 1st of April.

On motion of Mr. Hunter, the report of the Committee was accepted, and the teachers recommended granted.

On motion of Mr. Varnum it was

Resolved, That the Schools be vacated from the first until the second Monday of April.

Mr. McAuley presented the following resolution from the Fourth Ward School Board:

Resolved, That the attention of the Central Board be respectfully directed to the new system of instruction called Newell's Primary Instructor; fully believing it to be an admirable instructor and well worthy the investigation of the Board.

On motion of Mr. McAuley it was accepted, and Mr. Newell, who was present, was invited to explain his system.

After Mr. Newell had explained his system, Mr. McAuley moved that "Newell's Primary Instructor" be recommended to the favorable consideration of the Ward Boards for introduction into the Primary Schools, and that said Boards be requested to report on said subject on or before the 2d Tuesday of June next, which was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. McAuley offered the following:

WHEREAS, The present system of collecting the School and School Building taxes is attended with very considerable cost and much annoyance and trouble to our citizens, in causing them to have to pay their taxes to different persons and at different places, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Central Board of Education of the City of Pittsburgh, That the President and Secretary of said Board be instructed to write to our Senators and Representatives at Harrisburg, to have an act passed to cause the School Taxes to be paid to the Treasurer of the city, and that the said City Treasurer pay the same over, whenever demanded, to the Treasurer of the Central Board and of the several Ward Boards.

Mr. Marshall moved that the Finance Committee be requested to get from the City Controller the amount of last City Taxes, and compare the same with the last School Taxes, under the present system, which was decided in the affirmative.

On motion adjourned.

The One Horse Cars on the Lawrenceville Railway.

The citizens of Lawrenceville held an adjourned meeting Wednesday evening, to hear the report of a committee appointed at the first "indignation meeting," relative to the introduction of one horse cars on the Lawrenceville Railway.

The committee submitted a memorial and prepared and presented to the Directors of the Company, together with the written reply of the solicitor, O. H. Bippey, Esq.

The citizens, through their committee, desired to know whether it was the intention of the company to continue the one horse cars, and whether a commutation of tolls could not be allowed, either by the issuing of quarterly tickets, or the sale of tickets in packages.

The Company reply that they do not intend to use one-horse cars permanently, instead of two-horse ones, as they have been found insufficient at times to carry all the passengers in busy seasons, and it being necessary at times to make repairs, it was determined to procure one-horse cars to meet these emergencies. For some months in spring opens, all the large cars will be put on the road. Another object in procuring the small cars was to leave either terminus of the road every five minutes. As to the commutation of tolls, we did not give an answer was made, as the enterprise was yet in its infancy; and another year must elapse before the running expenses of the road can be arrived at, the amount of wear and tear not yet being determined. If it be found, after full experience and investigation, that a commutation can be made, the Board will give the subject that consideration which it demands.

The answer of the company was declared evasive, and resolutions were passed disapproving of the course of the company, and expressing a determination not to patronize the cars.

A committee, consisting of N. K. Wade, N. B. Hatch, S. F. Barr, A. Scott and John Christiet, was appointed, with full power to secure another mode of conveyance between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville.

Several gentlemen proposed to contribute liberally towards establishing a line of omnibuses, and Mr. Hatch stated that $12,000 could be raised for that purpose in one month.

FROM NEW YORK TO SOUTHAMPTON AND HAVRE.—We would call attention to the advertisement, in another column, of the Vanderbilt line of steamships, whose days of sailing are given. The vessels are first class, having water and fire proof compartments. The Illinois, it will be observed, leaves New York on Saturday, April 6th, for the first trip of the season, and her consort, the Vanderbilt, on the 4th of May, 4th. Mr. R. Honegger, 250, Liberty street, is the agent of this line.

LOCAL PREACHERS' MEETING.—The quarterly meeting of the Local Preachers' Association of Pittsburgh and Allegheny districts will be held at Sharpsburg, Pa., commencing Saturday morning, April 16th, at 10 A. M., and continue over the Sabbath. The quarterly sermon will be preached by Rev. John F. Dravo, of McKeesport.

The Wheeling Tragedy.

From the Wheeling Intelligencer of yesterday, we extract the following particulars in regard to the terrible tragedy which occurred at that place on Tuesday morning:

"We regret to announce that a shooting affray of a serious character occurred at the Spring House about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Two young men named Richard Hadden and James P. McLane, with others, were talking together, when a dispute arose between the two we have named. Notwithstanding several sharp words passed it was generally regarded as a joke, and McLane's staring out, was followed by Hadden. The former drew a pistol, and Hadden supposing the pistol not to be loaded, still advanced, when McLane fired, the ball entering Hadden's left breast, directly over the heart. Hadden still supposed, for the space of a couple of minutes, that a cap had merely exploded, and was only convinced to the contrary, when he reeled and fell upon the floor.

From a remark which McLane made after shooting, it is evident that he supposed Hadden to be armed with a knife. Dr. Frissell was sent for, and after probing and examining the wound, gave it as his opinion that Hadden could not live long, though the ball had taken a singular direction and could not be certainly traced. Hadden was removed to the residence of a relative, and during yesterday seemed to be improving, and strong hopes were entertained of his recovery.

Young McLane, yesterday morning came down to the store at which he was engaged, on Main street, as usual, though evidently agitated on account of the rash act of the few hours previous; and the probable consequences. About nine o'clock, however, learning that he was about to be arrested, he disappeared. Yesterday evening his numerous friends and relatives were startled by a dispatch from Bellaire, stating that he had shot himself near that village, and was dead. The first unfortunate occurrence distressed his relatives greatly, but this announcement completely overwhelmed the whole family with grief. It is a most dreadful tragedy. Young McLane was about twenty years of age, and was greatly admired by his employers and loved by his associates.

It appears that upon leaving the store in the morning, McLane went down slowly to the West Wheeling Ferry Landing, and after crossing stood for some time on the Ohio shore looking in the water, and then proceeded down toward Bellaire. He is supposed to have jumped off the ferry boat on the Ferry Landing side of the place where the body was found, a short distance this side of Bellaire, until about half past two o'clock, and being in a distracted state of mind, became compelled to take his own life, drew his pistol and shot himself through the heart.

A number of the friends of the deceased went down to Bellaire, and returned last evening bearing the body. He seemed to have been thinking of the matter over before committing the rash act, as he had whittled quite a large niche in the fence against which he had been standing. Before firing the pistol he wrote his name upon his shirt bosom with a pencil. He was discovered by a boy he was still struggling, but died in a short time, and was removed to a house near by.

The Concert Falcone.

The proprietors of the "Continental" and "Red White and Blue" were to have had a hearing yesterday afternoon, but the parties having signified their willingness to abandon their stage performances, no hearing took place.

We are highly gratified at the result of these prosecutions, believing that the morals of the community will be greatly promoted by the decided stand which Mayor Wilson has taken in this matter.

It may be proper for us here to remark that we have no desire to interfere with the rational amusement or gratification of any class of citizens, however humble they may be; but, as a public journalist, we could not overlook the flagrant abuse which has resulted from the partial slackening of the ministerial reins of the law. We do not question the right of every man, of whatever station, to drink a glass of beer or wine whenever he chooses to do so, but the establishment of houses of ill repute, for the purpose of attracting hordes of evil disposed persons, and dealing out intoxicating drinks indiscriminately to men and boys, is not only an infringement of the rights of others in the same business, but contrary to the statutes of the land and the moral sentiment of the community. It is for these reasons that we opposed them.

The Forgery Case

The Court of Quarter Sessions, Judges Mellon and Parke on the Bench, was occupied yesterday afternoon until adjournment, in the arguments of counsel on a motion for a new trial in the case of J. W. Williams, convicted of forging the name of Adam Appel, of the Borough of West Pittsburgh, to a bond given by the defendant as tax collector. Messrs. F. H. Collier and T. B. Hamilton appeared for the Commonwealth, and Messrs. E. C. Shannon and M. L. Stewart for the defense.

New testimony, discovered since the trial, was presented on both sides. The principal point in that for the defense was the statement of a witness named Hamilton to the effect that both old and young Appel had acknowledged to him, previous to the execution of the bond, that the father was on two bonds for Williams, to the amount of about $400. New testimony adduced by the prosecution shows that the signature of Adam Appel to the application for the bond by one of the witnesses on the trial to be half German and half English), is all German, and similar to all the other signatures.

Very able arguments were made against the motion, by Messrs. Collier and Hamilton, and a strong appeal for clemency by Mr. Shannon.

The case was then submitted, and the Court adjourned till Saturday morning.

Attempted Suicides.

On Tuesday night, the watchman on the St. Clair street bridge discovered a woman in the act of climbing over the iron railway, evidently for the purpose of throwing herself into the river. The railing is very difficult to climb, being too close to admit of a footing, and the watchman at once obliged the woman to desist. She was taken to the Allegheny lock-up, and the police recognized her as Elizabeth Orr, a vagrant of the lowest grade. She was evidently laboring under a fit of delirium, caused by intemperance. She was retained in custody and sent to jail by Mayor Drum.

On Monday morning, a man named Harris, residing on Sawmill alley, near Chestnut street, Allegheny, attempted to kill himself by swallowing arsenic, while in a state of delirium. He had been drinking to excess, and had previously made an attempt at self-destruction. A physician was called, and after great labor the unfortunate man was restored to consciousness, and is recovering.

District Court.

Wednesday, March 13th.—Before Judge Hampton.

In the case of Anderson vs. Patterson, a verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $2,450.

In the case of Munn & Barnes vs. the City of Pittsburgh, the trial of which was previously postponed on account of the sickness of one of the jurors, was again taken up to-day before a new jury.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—An accident of an uncommon character occurred in South Buffalo township, Armstrong county, on Thursday evening last. An old lady named Cochran was standing near the porch of her residence. A large Newfoundland dog, on the porch with her, saw some object in the yard, at which he leaped, in doing which he struck Mrs. C. with such tremendous force, as to throw her some considerable distance, breaking her leg below the knee, the bone protruding and striking into the ground, also, breaking an arm, dislocating a shoulder, and breaking a finger. It is scarcely possible that she can survive her injuries.

Row.

A row occurred last evening, about five o'clock, at the corner of Fifth and Wood streets, which for a time created considerable excitement. One of the parties named Robinson, residing on the Fourth Street Road, after quite an amusing chase, was captured in the "Melodeon Beer Saloon" by officer Biddle, who, with the assistance of the bar keeper, succeeded in taking him to the Mayor's office. He was locked up until this morning, when he will have a hearing.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named James Leyden was before Alderman James Miller on a charge of assault and battery, on oath of John McClintock. The parties, it appears, had a difficulty about something or other, when Leyden, becoming excited, struck McClintock a violent blow with a shovel. A better feeling, however, seemed to prevail when the case came up for a hearing before the magistrate, and a compromise was effected by the prosecutor withdrawing the charge and defendant paying costs.

LECTURE ON CHINA.—Rev. W. A. P. Martin, returned missionary from China, will deliver another of his interesting and instructive lectures this evening, at Lafayette Hall. His subject on this occasion will be "The Wonderful Semi-Christian Revolution now, and for the last twelve years, in progress in the interior of China." The lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of Allegheny.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—A cabin boy named Charley, from Pittsburgh, was accidentally shot on the Conestoga, at Lonsville, in the canal on Saturday night. He was arranging the bed clothes, and a pistol fell off the berth, which was discharged, the ball passing up his arm. Dr. Goldsmith extracted the ball, and the boy is at the hospital doing well.

ANOTHER OIL COMPANY.—Messrs Hobley, Ball & Co.—of Allegheny City organized a company, sometime since, and commenced operations yesterday, on their claim at New Waterford, Ohio. They have good hopes of tapping the "jugular vein" which runs through that region, on its way from Mecca to Smith's Ferry.

AN AID TO ENLISTMENT.—Lieut. W. R. Boggs, recently stationed here, and who was the other day appointed a Captain in the Georgia forces, has been still further promoted by receiving the appointment of Aid to Brigdier Beauregard, of the Confederate troops.

BONES FOUND.—A lot of human bones were, examined by Mr. Mathew Faith on the premises of Mr. Ed. Thompson, near Kittanning, while digging the foundation for a house. They are presumed to be the remains of an Indian, and are in a fine state of preservation.

SILVER PLATED WARE AT AUCTION.—Our readers in general, and the ladies in particular, are invited to the sale of elegant silver plated ware, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Auction House of McClelland, Weaver & Co., Fifth street.

MR. JAMES PEARP, an aged and highly respectable citizen of Sharpsburg, died at his residence on Tuesday night last. He was one of the oldest residents of our county, and the village of Sharpsburg was named after him.

The Literary Contest.

A very large and fashionable audience assembled at Concert Hall last evening, to hear the Literary Contest by the pupils of the Pittsburgh Female College, for the prize of a beautiful silver cup.

The exercises opened with music upon the piano, by one of the pupils, which was followed by an essay entitled "Great Cities." The effort was by Miss Maggie E. Sellers, of East Liberty. The delivery was not sufficiently vigorous, and it was only occasionally that we could catch a complete sentence. The essay lost much of its interest and beauty from this cause.

The next essay was by Miss Martha Masterson, of Allegheny, and was entitled "Mutability, the Motto of Humanity." This composition was highly creditable. The enunciation was clear and distinct, and some of the passages were very fine.

"Spirit Voices" was the subject chosen by Miss Maggie Dick, of Birmingham. The essay was very well written, and the delivery was pleasing, but lacked that measure of vigor requisite to a just appreciation by a large audience.

"The Empire of the Imagination," by Miss Ada O'Brien, of Cherry Hill, was written in a lively vein, and delivered with energy and spirit. It was distinctly heard throughout the hall.

"American Aristocracy" was the subject of an essay by Miss Sadie Kincaid, of this city. It was a very creditable performance, containing many passages of a high order.

"Modern Remedies," by Miss Annie B. Beatty, of East Liberty, was very well written, and delivered in a pleasing, but rather rapid manner.

"Growth in the Tempest," a very novel and unlikely subject, was admirably treated by Miss Annie C. Price, of Morristown, O. The composition was fine, and the enunciation distinct and pleasing. An allusion to the "hero of Fort Sumter" aroused the patriotism of the audience, and was received with loud applause, as were also some hopeful and poetic remarks in reference to our national troubles.

The closing essay was by Miss Irenia Rutledge, of this city. The subject was "Omnipresence," and did credit to the head and heart of the writer. The delivery was distinct and the intonation very pleasing.

H.

The exercises were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music of a very high order. Young's Brass Band enlivened the audience with a number of their choicest airs.

The pupils of the College, under the direction of Prof. Rosbuck, sang several popular pieces, which were loudly applauded. "The Red, White and Blue" was sung with telling effect, and the fair performers were compelled to repeat it; the reception being imperatively demanded, and proving that the "Union" sentiment is ever active in the hearts of our people.

The Judges, immediately after the last essay had been rendered, retired for the purpose of passing upon the merits of the performances.

Mr. Pershing announced the absence of Mr. Passavant, and stated that Prof. Wood would present the cup to the successful contestant. After a brief absence the Judges appeared, and Mr. Wood delivered the presentation speech, paying a high compliment to all the performers. On behalf of the Judges, he awarded the prize to Miss Annie C. Price, eliciting hearty encores and cheering.

The cup was received by Prof. Wilson, in a few pertinent remarks, after which it was handed to Miss Price, and accepted gracefully by her, amid the loud plaudits of the audience, showing the award of the Judges met the hearty approval of all.

The contest was eminently successful, and creditable alike to the participants and the institution in which they have been educated.

CHILD SUFFOCATED.—On Wednesday evening last, a little child of a Mr. Garvin, residing near Greensburg, Westmoreland co., climbed upon the table when its mother was cutting pumpkins, and unobserved, took up a seed and in attempting to eat, choked. When noticed by its mother it was too late to save its life.

DIVORCE.—The Court granted a final decree of divorce, yesterday, in the case of Isaac Gregg vs. Mary E. Gregg. Cause, desertion.

Messrs. Editors: I have read several cards from Auditors, Cornelius, and Larimer, touching their own personal grievances; they have failed to meet the question at issue, and in any manner to show that their work will save to the county one cent of illegal taxation. The advocates of the Controller Bill, say that under their act thousands of dollars will be saved to the county by the adoption of the system of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. This is the question which interests the tax-payers, and every attempt to divert attention from this fact is a dark-ening of counsel, which deserves the severest reprobation.

Suppose the Commissioners instead of issuing warrants to themselves for $100 each, when they went to Philadelphia, had made the warrants for $10,000, or take the case of the two months who recently figured at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, suppose the Commissioners had drawn warrants in favor of each of them for $1,000 each, instead of $350.

Or the Auditor who attends to little old jobs, suppose instead of $11,000 for three years, they draw warrants for $15,000 for three years.

Have you Auditors any powerto check such reckless expenditures? And if you haven't, of what advantage is your office to the people.

TAX PAYER.

Messrs. Editors: I read with pain your article on the proposed promotion of Major Anderson. Your statement of his popularity in Charleston does not militate against him as a soldier. Your inference from some letter writer that he sympathized with the South in Disunion, and that through his connivance Fort Sumter was not reinforced; are both baseless charges, unworthy to be made against a soldier whose gallant conduct saved the Union, and received the plaudits of the civilized world.

I know very well, two brothers of Major Anderson, Lieut. Anderson, of Cincinnati, and Charles Anderson, now of Texas—both Union men. When the secession movement was first started in Texas, Charles Anderson raised his voice in favor of his whole country, at the Alamo, surrounded by a mob of disunionists.

His speech which was published in the Cincinnati Commercial, was distinguished alike for its courage, ability, and eloquence.

(Special Dispatch from our Evening Edition.)

WASHINGTON CITY, March 13, 1861.

Although the official order for the withdrawal of the troops from Fort Sumter was not issued yesterday, Major Anderson is, positively, to be withdrawn. The necessity is imperative.

Much feeling existed among Republicans in consequence of this step.

It is the intention of the Government to station a ship of war outside Charleston harbor, but the revenue cannot be collected without additional legislation.

Hon. Thomas Corwin is undecided about accepting the tendered mission to Mexico. He is strongly urged, on public considerations.

C. M. Clay will go immediately to Spain.

Geo. Harrington has been appointed assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

All the Foreign Ministers here outline the assurance that the Southern Confederacy will not be recognized abroad, consequently they cannot obtain either credit or confidence.

The French Government proposes its friendly intervention in our difficulty with Peru.

Thus far, the President has made nearly all the leading appointments without consulting the Cabinet.

Interesting from California.

FT. KEARNEY, March 13.—The Pony Express passed at 6:30 A. M., with San Francisco dates to March 2d.

The commercial transactions from first hands have been moderate during the last three days, with a few trifling decreasions in prices.

The heavy rains prevailing in the interior of the State, and extending over the Southern portion, have been very severe at some points on the mountains, and in the Washoe mining regions the fall of snow is immense; the weather is again pleasant this week.

C. H. S. Park, a prominent merchant of Placerville, co, died on the 26th.

The legislature adjourned over from the 22d to the 26th. The sessions continue to be occupied with discussions of Union resolutions, the Broderick-Gwin campaign resolutions and in intrigues over the proposed Senatorial election. There has been no legislation of any importance yet.

The reconstructed democratic party caucus, composed of Breckinridge and a portion of Douglas democrats, met at Sacramento last evening, only 44 strong. The Legislature being composed of 115 members, this was an unexpectedly weak showing, and an unfavorable indication for Denver.

It is reported that a majority of the Douglas Democrats and all the Republicans are endeavoring to induce McDougal to withdraw from the contest, when an effort is to be made to compromise candidates. It will be a long time, however, before they are making great efforts to get the Republicans to support him.

The overland mail which left St. Louis on the 7th, reached Los Angeles on the 26th, and will reach San Francisco about the 30th. The Butterfield route is now believed to be free from Indians, and no further interruption to the mails are apprehended.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Gentlemen in prominent positions still confidently express belief that Fort Sumter will be abandoned, in obedience to the peremptory order of Gen. Scott, and some even go so far as to say that this will be done next Monday. The information is not, however, derived from an official source.

All that the commissioners of the Confederated States have done so far has been in an informal manner and in the direction of peace.

Senator Latham has succeeded in getting a trifling small sum of money in four installments, from San Francisco to Los Angeles, with a weekly service to San Diego. The contract is also closed for the removal of the Butterfield company to the central routes service from St. Louis to Placerville in six months. Concluded. Also the Pony Express three times a week, in eight days, the service to commence on the 15th of January. Senator Latham had the contracts signed to-day, and the overland mail company pledged by one of the witnesses on the trial to be half German and half English), is all German, and similar to all the other signatures.

Very able arguments were made against the motion, by Messrs. Collier and Hamilton, and a strong appeal for clemency by Mr. Shannon.

The case was then submitted, and the Court adjourned till Saturday morning.

Attempted Suicides.

On Tuesday night, the watchman on the St. Clair street bridge discovered a woman in the act of climbing over the iron railway, evidently for the purpose of throwing herself into the river. The railing is very difficult to climb, being too close to admit of a footing, and the watchman at once obliged the woman to desist. She was taken to the Allegheny lock-up, and the police recognized her as Elizabeth Orr, a vagrant of the lowest grade. She was evidently laboring under a fit of delirium, caused by intemperance. She was retained in custody and sent to jail by Mayor Drum.

On Monday morning, a man named Harris, residing on Sawmill alley, near Chestnut street, Allegheny, attempted to kill himself by swallowing arsenic, while in a state of delirium. He had been drinking to excess, and had previously made an attempt at self-destruction. A physician was called, and after great labor the unfortunate man was restored to consciousness, and is recovering.

District Court.

Wednesday, March 13th.—Before Judge Hampton.

In the case of Anderson vs. Patterson, a verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $2,450.

In the case of Munn & Barnes vs. the City of Pittsburgh, the trial of which was previously postponed on account of the sickness of one of the jurors, was again taken up to-day before a new jury.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—An accident of an uncommon character occurred in South Buffalo township, Armstrong county, on Thursday evening last. An old lady named Cochran was standing near the porch of her residence. A large Newfoundland dog, on the porch with her, saw some object in the yard, at which he leaped, in doing which he struck Mrs. C. with such tremendous force, as to throw her some considerable distance, breaking her leg below the knee, the bone protruding and striking into the ground, also, breaking an arm, dislocating a shoulder, and breaking a finger. It is scarcely possible that she can survive her injuries.

Row.

A row occurred last evening, about five o'clock, at the corner of Fifth and Wood streets, which for a time created considerable excitement. One of the parties named Robinson, residing on the Fourth Street Road, after quite an amusing chase, was captured in the "Melodeon Beer Saloon" by officer Biddle, who, with the assistance of the bar keeper, succeeded in taking him to the Mayor's office. He was locked up until this morning, when he will have a hearing.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named James Leyden was before Alderman James Miller on a charge of assault and battery, on oath of John McClintock. The parties, it appears, had a difficulty about something or other, when Leyden, becoming excited, struck McClintock a violent blow with a shovel. A better feeling, however, seemed to prevail when the case came up for a hearing before the magistrate, and a compromise was effected by the prosecutor withdrawing the charge and defendant paying costs.

LECTURE ON CHINA.—Rev. W. A. P. Martin, returned missionary from China, will deliver another of his interesting and instructive lectures this evening, at Lafayette Hall. His subject on this occasion will be "The Wonderful Semi-Christian Revolution now, and for the last twelve years, in progress in the interior of China." The lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of Allegheny.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—A cabin boy named Charley, from Pittsburgh, was accidentally shot on the Conestoga, at Lonsville, in the canal on Saturday night. He was arranging the bed clothes, and a pistol fell off the berth, which was discharged, the ball passing up his arm. Dr. Goldsmith extracted the ball, and the boy is at the hospital doing well.

ANOTHER OIL COMPANY.—Messrs Hobley, Ball & Co.—of Allegheny City organized a company, sometime since, and commenced operations yesterday, on their claim at New Waterford, Ohio. They have good hopes of tapping the "jugular vein" which runs through that region, on its way from Mecca to Smith's Ferry.

AN AID TO ENLISTMENT.—Lieut. W. R. Boggs, recently stationed here, and who was the other day appointed a Captain in the Georgia forces, has been still further promoted by receiving the appointment of Aid to Brigdier Beauregard, of the Confederated troops.

BONES FOUND.—A lot of human bones were, examined by Mr. Mathew Faith on the premises of Mr. Ed. Thompson, near Kittanning, while digging the foundation for a house. They are presumed to be the remains of an Indian, and are in a fine state of preservation.

SILVER PLATED WARE AT AUCTION.—One readers in general, and the ladies in particular, are invited to the sale of elegant silver plated ware, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Auction House of McClelland, Weaver & Co., Fifth street.

MR. JAMES PEARP, an aged and highly respectable citizen of Sharpsburg, died at his residence on Tuesday night last. He was one of the oldest residents of our county, and the village of Sharpsburg was named after him.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 13.

SENATE.—Mr. Douglas, of Ill., offered the following resolution, which was read for information:

Resolved, That the Secretary of War be requested to inform the Senate what forts, arsenals, navy yards, and other public works within the limits of the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas are now within the actual possession and occupation of the United States; by what number of men each is garrisoned and held; and whether reinforcements are necessary to retain the same; and if so, whether the government has the power and means under existing laws, to supply such reinforcements within such time as the exigencies and the necessities of the case may demand; and whether the defence and protection of the United States and their interests made it necessary and wise to retain the military possession of such forts, places and other property except at Key West and Fortress, and to recapture and reoccupy such others as the United States have been deprived of by seizure and surrender for any other purpose, and with a view to any other end than by the subjugation of those States, which have assumed the right to secede from the United States, and within whose limits such forts and other public property are situated. If such be the motives of recapturing and holding the forts and other public property, what military force, including regulars and volunteers, would be necessary to enable the United States to reduce the States aforesaid, and such others as are supposed to sympathize with them, to subjection and obedience to the laws of the Union, and to protect the Federal Capital.

Mr. Wilson, of Mass., hoped the resolution would not be considered to-day.

Mr. Douglas said he would call up the resolution to day.

Mr. Mason objected, for the present, to its consideration, not being satisfied that the Senate has the power to act upon it.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—Galveston dates to the 11th, state that Houston has refused to recognize the Convention. He considered that its functions terminated in submitting the secession ordinance to the people. He tells the Convention that he and the Legislature, which meets on the 18th, will attend to the public questions now arising, and he favors a new convention to make such changes in the State Constitution as are necessary. He proposes Texas joining the confederacy. The Convention in reply, passed an ordinance claiming full powers, promising to consummate as soon as possible, the connection of Texas with the confederate States, and ordering the purchase of the necessary arms. The Convention will at once require all officers to take the oath of allegiance to support the new government and carry out the Convention ordinance. Gen. Clark will be put in Houston's place if the latter refuses the oath. Houston is raising troops on his own account to join the Texan troops at and near Brownsville.

Special arrangements will be made for Federal troops to leave as soon as transportation can be provided.

The Convention passed an ordinance to continue the Custom House officers in duty until superseded by the State government or by the Provisional government.

Vera Cruz, 8th.—The British Minister has recognized the Constitutional Government.

BOSTON, March 12.—The House to-day ordered to a third reading the bill modifying the Personal Liberty Law, which passed the State Senate.

HARRISBURG, March 13.—The Republican Legislature caucus, to-night, nominated David Wilmot for U. S. Senator in place of Mr. Cameron.

WHEELING, March 13.—Young Haddon who was shot by M'Lane night before last, died this morning.
