UNITED PRAYER FOR THE COUNTRY.

Christians of all denominations meet every morning at nine o'clock, at the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, to pray for the country and our brave friends who are leaving us every day to defend it in this day of darkness and peril. All are cordially invited to come; for "except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

Army News.

We are pleased to announce to to our readers that we have effected arrangements such as will enable us to keep them thoroughly posted in regard to all the movements of our troops, as also in relation to their personal welfare. We have a special correspondent attached to the staff of Brigadier General Negley, and also a private in the ranks of the Duquesne Greys,—both gentlemen of high social position and fine literary attainments, who will correspond with us daily by telegraph and by mail.

Military Matters.

The departure of our troops on Wednesday left the city in a state of comparative quiet, although it still exhibits an unusual degree of excitement. The streets are thronged during the day, and the business of recruiting is still carried on with great energy. From dark till midnight, martial bands, followed by the tramp—tramp—tramp—of scores of companies, indicate that the military ardor has not abated a particle. If a second requisition were made, thousands of patriotic hearts would respond with alacrity.

Brig. Gen. J. S. Negley having left the city with the First Brigade Penna. Volunteers, Col. Hiram Hultz has been left here in the recruiting service. His head quarters are at the Girard House.

The Fenceal Guards, of Allegheny, have now eighty men enrolled. The following are the officers: Captain, J. C. Hall; 1st Lieut., H. V. Hoag; 2d R. A. Scott; 3d A. N. Kennedy. This company stands first upon the books of Gen. Negley for the next requisition, and they expect to stand No. 1 in the next regiment. As many of the friends of the company have been desirous in knowing when they intend to uniform themselves, we are requested to state publicly that Mr. Gen. Hubley, Federal street, Allegheny, and Mr. J. B. Hubley, Fourth street, this city, have been appointed to receive funds for the purpose of uniforming and equipping the company. Let the donations be worthy of the men and of the cause.

The Pennsylvania Life Guards, Capt. J. Lloyd Williams, have their muster roll nearly full. Considerable dissatisfaction exists among the members, owing to the fact that proper provisions are not made for the wants of strangers, and for the families of those who have volunteered. Capt. Williams is an experienced soldier, having done good service in the British army, and he has the ability to form a splendid company. The Relief Committee should attend at once to those who may be in need.

The First Ward, Allegheny, Home Guard has organized by the election of the following officers: Colwell, St. Bryan, President; C. C. Harbaugh, Secretary; S. Biddle, Treasurer. Military—Captain, F. Hambright; 1st Lieutenant, Alexander Hamilton. The company already reach some 70 men, and have rented Washington Hall, Robecca street, as an armory. They have 117 excellent Halls's breach loading rifles, with bayonets, and with such an efficient corps of officers, will doubtless render a good account of themselves. They meet for drill at their armory on Friday evening.

The Allegheny Rangers, Capt. H. S. Fleming, have a full muster roll, and completed their organization by the election of the following officers: Capt., H. S. Fleming; 1st. Lieut., S. A. Long, 2d. Lieut., John Wilie; 3d. Lieut., Wm. Bowden. The first lieutenant is at present high constable of Allegheny, and a member of the Washington Infantry; the second lieutenant is ex-high constable, and the third is a member of the present police force of Mayor Drum. This company is well officered. They will open an Armory on Federal street and drill every night.

A Union Guard has been organized in Peebles township, with the following officers: John S. Cosgrave, Captain; J. G. Martin, First Lieutenant; R. H. Palmer, Jr., Second, and R. L. Allen, Brevet Second. The company numbers over 150 members.

Col. R. H. Kerr, lately returned from Harrisburg, informs us that the Governor has accepted the services of the Benton Guards, a company which he is organizing, who are to hold themselves in readiness until called on.

Captain John B. Kreppe, of Brownsville, reports his company fully organized and ready for orders.

The Penn Light Guards has now a full complement of members. The officers of the corps consists of George W. Leonard, Captain; Wm. H. Silvers, First Lieutenant; Robt. S. Officer, Second Lieutenant, and Frank C. O'Brien, Brevet Second Lieutenant. They are very anxious to get off to the seat of war, but they are opposed to leaving until they are fully equipped.

The Fifth Ward Home Guard have elected the following officers: Civil—President, Jas M. Taylor; Secretary, Wm Fleming; Treasurer, Jno W Taylor. Military—Capt J C Negley; 1st Lieut, John P Glass; 2d Lieut, Anthoney Moyer; 3d Lieut, R B Parkinson; 4th Lieut, Robert Wilson; Orderly Sergeant, J G Rook.

The company will likely number over 200 members, and those who signed the constitution took the oath of fidelity to the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania.

The "Friend Rifle Guards" is the name adopted by the Penn Rifles, the change being made in compliment to Rorier R. Friend, Esq., that gentleman having made the munificent bequest of five hundred dollars towards equipping the company for immediate service, also giving them the use of his large and spacious warehouse for their armory. Egbert S. Ward was unanimously chosen Captain. An election was held and Joseph F. Dethiston was elected First Lieutenant, W. Black, Second Lieut. W. R. Yeager, Orderly.

The Union Guards, McKeesport, have 160 men enrolled. They have elected the following officers: Captain, J. McK. Snodgrass; First Lieutenant, Wm. Lynch; Second Lieutenant, J. C. Walkinshaw. This company will be ready for the next requisition. McKeesport and vicinity have done well, furnishing 200 men out of a population of 2,200.

The Fitt Township Home Guard have 125 names enrolled. They were divided into two companies to drill at different points in the township, and Wm. H. Smith and Wm. M. Brown were chosen captains.

The Lawrenceville Union Guards, Captain John D. Herron, report 113 men as ready to march.

The Iron City Guards, Captain Wm. M. Gormley, has forty-seven men enlisted. The recruiting office is at No. 310 Liberty street, mouth of Hand.

Captain Leopold Sahl has received a commission as Sergeant Major in the second regiment, and A. P. Calley, Esq., occupies the same position in Major Rowley's battalion. Jas. M. Kinkead has been appointed Adjutant to Gen. Negley.

Miss Amanda S. Rote and Miss Margaret Feeley yesterday purchased 62 Bibles with Psalms, which they placed at the disposal of the Mayor, who distributed them among the volunteers.

The volunteers from Uniontown paraded our streets on Wednesday evening. We are informed by one of the officers that previous to leaving Brownsville, on the steamboat Gallatin, Hon. John L. Dawson delivered a most touching and feeling address to the troops. A large subscription was raised in that place for the relief of the families of volunteers.

On Wednesday the employees in Haven's printing establishment presented Joseph M. Kincaid, (Gen. Negley's Adjutant,) late foreman for Mr. H., with a handsome sword, and two others of their number, who left on Wednesday, Charles Sweeney and George W. Reddick, with a Sharpe's revolver each.

Captain Nickle and Lieutenant Allen, of the Connellsville Guards, were in town last night and reported their company ready for marching orders. The company numbers about seventy members. Mr. Allen is the present editor of the Patriot at that place.

Another company is now being enrolled at Butler, Pa. We learn also that companies are being enrolled at Prospect, Portersville, Evansburg, Harmony, Centreville, Sunberry and Saxonburg. Butler county will do her whole duty.

A company has been organized at Meadville, and is now ready to receive marching orders. Henry Johnston, esq., has been chosen Captain.

A volunteer company is being formed at Mercer, and others are being organized throughout the county.

The Pennsylvania Home Guards, organized in the Fourth Ward Allegheny, on Tuesday evening, and elected the following officers: Capt., W. W. Ball; 1st. Lieut., W. Singleton; 2d. Lieut., M. B. Smith.

ALLEGED TRAITOR ARRESTED.—From a gentleman who passed through Alliance, Ohio, on Wednesday, we learn that a suspicious looking individual, who had been lurking about that place for some time back, had been arrested, charged with being a spy. He could not give any satisfactory account of himself, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the crowd was kept from lynching him. He stated at first that he belonged to Cleveland, but subsequently that he was a member of a volunteer company from Wooster, Ohio, both of which statements were ascertained to be false.

ATTEMPTED TO DROWN HIMSELF.—About ten o'clock Wednesday morning a young man, named Josiah Fouche, of McKeesport, suffering from mania potu, jumped from the Monongahela bridge into the river. He swam down some distance and was finally rescued by a skiff sent out for the purpose. Strange to say the young was not injured in the least by the fall. He was committed to jail (with special instructions to the keeper) until his friends arrive to take him in charge.

BROKE HIS THIGH.—A son of David Hutchinson, five or six years old, fell over the embankment at the mouth of Pride street, near Everson, Preston & Co.'s forge, on Tuesday night, breaking his thigh and receiving other serious but not necessarily fatal injuries.

A TALE OF SECESSION.—The story entitled "Florence Thornton, or the Disappointed Politician," by Boyd, Jr., together with other interesting stories, will be found in Our Paper, the Pittsburgh weekly, No. 8, for May 4th; now ready. For sale by all news dealers.

Attacked by a Bear—Mother and Child Injured.

On Tuesday afternoon, as some butchers were driving a lot of cattle through the Sixth ward, one of the number became enraged, and running off from the rest, spread terror in the neighborhood by making an indiscriminate attack upon everybody. The wife of Jacob Shidle, jr., residing on Colwell street, was hauling her babe along the pavement in a child's carriage, when she saw the infuriated beast approaching her. She ran immediately to a narrow passage way between two houses, dragging the little wagon after her, and hoping to escape the fury of the animal. The steer followed her, pressing its way into the passage, and with its fore feet the wagon was soon demolished, and before the mother could secure the child it was severely injured. After a severe possession of her babe, she kept the steer at bay by seizing one of its horns and keeping its head to one side until the butchers came to her relief. The terrible fright and exertion has thrown her into such a nervous condition that she is confined to bed, and her child (which is quite young) is hardly expected to recover.

Additional Camps for Pennsylvania.

A Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, says:

"In view of the attacks that are threatened at any moment upon Pennsylvania, the Government has decided to so apportion the troops throughout the State, that it may be defended at a moment's notice. For this purpose three additional camps, beside Camp Curtin, are to be established, and in fact, the nucleus has already been formed. The first and principal at these camps will be at Harrisburg, the second at York, a third at Chambersburg, and the last at Lancaster. In the next day or two, the Governor issued an order that no more troops would be received until accommodations can be provided for them, but now the order will be rescinded, and a large number of men will then be disposed of without imposing too heavy a burden upon any one section of the country."

Should the order to receive no more troops be rescinded, it will be joyous news to hundreds—we might say thousands—of patriotic men who are ready for marching, and eager to serve their country. Let the work of recruiting and drilling be vigorously prosecuted, and a chance for active service will doubtless yet present itself.

Pay of the Troops.

The following, says the Harrisburg Patriot, gives the rate of pay allowed in the army of the United States to which the militia is entitled when called into service:

	Per month.
Colonel	$218 00
Lieutenant Colonel	184 00
Major	175 00
Captain	118 50
First Lieutenant	103 50
Second Lieutenant	103 50
Brevet Second Lieutenant	103 50
First, or orderly Sergeant	29 00
Other Sergeants	27 00
Corporals	22 00
Privates	20 00
Musicians	21 00

Officers are required to provide their own uniforms and equipments, but the men are clothed and armed by the Government.

Dead Body Found.

Coroner Bostwick, yesterday, held an inquest on the remains of a man found floating in the Monongahela river, at Brown's coal works, six miles above this city. The jury found upon the deceased a note, written in February last, at Hollidaysburg, and signed W. H. Bagley. The writer requests the bearer, Thomas Lewis, as a good workman, and one who understands how to sink an oil shaft. Hence it is inferred that the name of the man was Thomas Lewis. He had on a dark coat, blue wove roundabout, black cotton velvet vest, and black silk necktie. He was apparently about thirty-five years of age. There were no marks of violence upon the body, and the jury found a verdict of "death by drowning."

From Head-quarters.

Things are quiet at the Head-quarters of Col. Hults, owing to the fact that no additional troops can be accepted here until further orders. Two new companies reported themselves yesterday:

The Darlington and New Galilee Rifles, having a full roll, tender their services. The officers are: Captain, W. B. Welsh; Lieutenants, S. Miller, 1st; M. Harshorn, 2d; T. J. McCarter, 3d.

The Slippery rock Guards, Princeton, report themselves organized and ready to march when to be uniformed and armed. The officers are: Captain, Cline; Lieutenants, W. J. Randolph, 1st; Jacob Shaffer, 2d; Sargeants, T. J. Alford, O. C. Steck.

SOMETHING FOR OUR COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.—We commend the following, which we clip from a Baltimore paper, to the consideration of our Committee of Public Safety, some of whom are rather averse to seizing provisions destined for the South, without being satisfied of the legality of the proceeding:

"Several hundred barrels of salt pork, with other provisions, were seized on the steamer at Locust Point yesterday by Sargeant Auld and a posse of Eastern District Policemen. A guard has been placed over them by order of Marshal Kane. They were supposed to have been intended as supplies to the Federal army in Washington."

A Suggestion to Odd Fellows.

MESSRS. EDS.—I beg to suggest, through your columns, the propriety of the different Lodges of Odd Fellows in our county remitting the dues of such of their members as volunteer in defense of the Government. A fine patriotic man who are ready for marching, and eager to serve their country. Let the work of recruiting and drilling be vigorously prosecuted, and a chance for active service will doubtless yet present itself.

YOURS, JONATHAN.

REDUCED PRICES.—The war feeling has reduced the price of almost every article not included in the list of army supplies. Messrs. J. W. Barker & Co., the extensive and enterprising dry goods dealers, Market street, near Fourth, announce to the public that their large and varied stock of spring and summer goods have been marked to 25 per cent. less than former prices. They also receive all uncurrent money, such as Missouri, Virginia and Kenta by paper, at its par value, in exchange for goods. We recommend an inspection of the stock of Messrs. Barker & Co., believing that they are offering bargains.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of a man was found drowned in the Allegheny river, near Logan Port, seven miles below Kittanning, on Monday last. He had on a dark tweed coat, blue cassimett vest with fancy brass buttons, ribbed cotton pants of a dark color, check shirt, gingham neck tie, brogan shoes, and woolen socks. Coroner Quigley held an inquest upon the body, and returned a verdict accordingly.

BODY FOUND.—The body of Mr. Richard Breedon, late of Prospect, Butler county, who was drowned some time ago in the Allegheny river, near Franklin, was recovered on Friday last. The body was found near the margin of the river, by some lumbermen, about eleven miles below where he was drowned, and it was fully identified. The remains were coffined and taken home, and were interred on Saturday.

MESSRS. EDITORS—An article in the Dispatch, of yesterday morning, alluding to the Lawrenceville Union Guards, does gross injustice to both the officers and members of the Company. The Company have elected as officers, John D. Herron, Captain; John W. Kerns, 1st Lieut.; James A. Dunlap, 2d Lieut; John W. McConachy, O. S.—The company drills regularly. D.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, for April, 1861, contains—Spontaneous Combustion—Italy: by Mark Mognire—American—Life in Central Africa—The World of Weimar—Norman Sinclair: An Autobiography, part XV—General Patrick Gordon, the Roman Scot—The Punjab in 1857. For sale by Hunt & Miner, agents for Pittsburgh.

THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE.—Messrs. Eaton, Macrum, & Co., of Fifth street, who are always up with the times, have on hand a lot of beautiful rosettes, neck ties, etc., combining the national colors—red, white and blue. These will doubtless be a large demand for these articles.

RUN OFF.—A milk wagon, belonging to Mr. Dana, was smashed to pieces on Federal st., yesterday. The horse attached to it ran off from the depot, leaving the bed of the wagon near the pipe and the running apparatus on the sidewalk near the post office. No one was hurt.

The Progress of the Pennsylvania Troops.

The thirteen companies which left this city on Wednesday forenoon, arrived at Harrisburg on Thursday morning, in excellent spirits. We learn from a gentleman who arrived from the East, last evening, that it was the determination of the troops to proceed at once to York, and then push their way overland through Maryland to Washington city. It was anticipated that our gallant boys would meet with some opposition, but as they are fully armed, and well provided with ball cartridges, they will doubtless be able to keep all rebel bands in check. The brass field piece, a six pounder, belonging to the Duquesne Greys, is in the hands of the Monongahela Artillery, will prove an effective weapon in case of need.

The Ohio Volunteers.

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, under date of the 23d inst., says:

"It is now certain that the Ohio volunteers are encamped at Lancaster, as I surmised in my letter of yesterday. The State of Ohio will be required to uniform and arm these men, unless it supplied that there is an excess. That State has made arrangements for boarding these troops while at Lancaster, Pennsylvania not assuming any debts on their account until the volunteers are regularly mustered into her service."

MILITARY MEETING.—In pursuance of previous notice, the members of the Iron City Guards met at their armory, No. 310 Liberty street, Thursday evening, April 25.h, for the purpose of organizing.

On motion, Mr. S. B. Richards was called to the chair, and Mr. J. F. Kirkpatrick elected Secretary. The following officers were chosen by acclamation: Captain, Wm. M. Gormly; 1st Lieutenant, James T. Shannon; 2d Lieutenant, George Pitcrey; Orderly Sergeant, Wm. S. Petit, and by ballot, 2d Brevet Lieutenant, J. F. Kirkpatrick.

The company resolved to adopt the grey uniform. The services of this company will be tendered Gov. Curtin without delay, and, if accepted, will hold themselves in readiness to enter active service whenever called upon.

SWORN IN.—Alex. Murdock, Esq., of Washington, Pa., has been appointed Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania. He was inducted into office on Wednesday, the oath having been administered by Judge McCandless, in open Court. Marshal Campbell retires with the best wishes of all with whom his duties brought him in contact.

EDWIN LONG, one of the editors of the Butler American, has gone to the seat of war, as a private in the ranks of the Butler Blues.

Messrs. Editors: The recent outrage upon the Massachusetts volunteers at Baltimore, and the attempt to prevent citizens of the government from marching through that city to the Capital of the nation to defend it against rebels and traitors, are truly strange incidents in our history. But these incidents will seem still more strange when we take a brief retrospective view of the legislation which made the seat of Government was placed at that point.

The Constitution of the United States provides that "Congress shall exercise exclusive legislation over such district, not exceeding ten miles square, "as may by the cession of particular States and "acceptance by Congress, become the seat of "Government."

The first session of Congress under our present Constitution commenced at New York, in March, 1789, and at that very session a committee began about the permanent location of the seat of Government. New York was anxious to have it permanently established there. Philadelphia was eager to have it placed in that city, where independence was declared. Maryland and Virginia desired to have it fixed on the Potomac. The northern members and the Pennsylvanians having combined, a resolution was passed fixing on the Susquehanna, with the hope that the South would be content; but they were not. Even Mr. Madison, moderate as he always was, declared that if that day's proceeding had been foreseen, "Virginia would never have ratified the Constitution."

So early did the South commence the game of hectoring and bullying the free States.

Finally, a bill passed the House authorizing the President to appoint Commissioners to fix the site on the Susquehanna and to erect the buildings, and appropriating one hundred thousand Dollars for the purpose. The bill came back, however, from the Senate, altered so as to substitute ten miles square provided for them, but now the order will be rescinded, and a large number of men will then be disposed of without imposing too heavy a burden upon any one section of the country."

Should the order to receive no more troops be rescinded, it will be joyous news to hundreds—we might say thousands—of patriotic men who are ready for marching, and eager to serve their country. Let the work of recruiting and drilling be vigorously prosecuted, and a chance for active service will doubtless yet present itself.

PENNSYVILLE, Md., April 25.—As there is no communication between Washington and Annapolis, the Baltimore papers contain much unreliable news. The following are the latest:

The Baltimore papers of Tuesday evening state that the Federal troops had reached the Annapolis junction, and the roads being prepared they were en route for the capital. Later news from Annapolis brought by the passengers who left last evening, dissipates that report. The New York Seventh Regiment and the Eighth Massachusetts were encamped eight miles above Annapolis. The rest of the troops had arrived at Annapolis were still there. The reported arrival of troops at Washington must be incorrect.

Gov. Hicks has issued a proclamation for the State Legislature to meet to-morrow at Frederick City. This is considered advisable in consequence of the federal troops being at Annapolis.

The Sun has the following dispatches:

Relay House, Washington Junction, April 24.—Captain Gardner has just arrived from the vicinity of Annapolis Junction and reports that no troops are now in that quarter. It is thought that they have marched by the shorter and more direct route to Washington, by Bladensburg, for Washington. there is a probability of the passage of the troops to and from Washington, by order of Gen. Scott. It was understood that the Railroad company would run a train at 11 o'clock this morning, to return from Washington at 2:45 P. M.

The Sun says that everywhere in Virginia the war spirit is aroused, and volunteering and arming is going on rapidly.

Capt. Sands, of the steamer Louisiana, reports that over 7,000 troops from the South arrived at Norfolk on Tuesday. Their destination is secret.

Important from Annapolis.—U. S. Troops Moving to Washington.

The officers of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, says the Baltimore American, are receiving dispatches per their lines and telegraph at the Annapolis Junction, which announce that a large body of U S troops, including the newly enlisted volunteers, were on their way to Washington, and were passing along at ordinary time step, unmolested by the volunteer troops of the neighboring counties. The first division, according to the eye of the operator and the computation of others, was about 2,500 strong, and partially composed of the New York Seventh Regiment.

It additionally reported that another detachment was about to move, consisting of three thousand men, who had recently reached Annapolis. The first division made a fine appearance, moved along in good order, and were prepared with every possible means of defense. It was supposed that they would reach the Capital at an early hour in evening.

Weekly Review of the Pittsburgh Market.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY, April 23, 1861.

Business is nearly every department during the past week has been dull, excited and unsettled, while quotations with few exceptions remain unchanged. The demand for the leading articles continues light, and the transactions are principally restricted to the immediate wants of the local trade.

Flour is in rather better request and an advance has been established on the best brands. Grain remains quiet and dull, while, with the exception of Oats, prices have undergone no change. Provisions are firmer, and an advance over last week's quotations is now asked and obtained. Groceries continue to meet with a fair local request, while rates remain unchanged.

Money matters continue in a state of great confusion, and the closest discrimination is made of currency. Virginia, Missouri and Kentucky paper is refused almost entirely, and indeed the same remark will apply to all Southern money since the Secession movement. How long the present deplorable state of affairs will continue, is impossible to conjecture, but that a change for the better will soon take place, is earnestly desired by all.

[NOTE—The quotations given in the following Review, it must be understood, are the wholesale prices, except where otherwise noticed; and that in all cases in the filling of small orders to the city and country trade, an advance of three to five cents will be charged over these quotations.]

APPLES—continue in good demand, while prices have advanced. We note small sales at prices ranging from $2 to $3.50, as to quality.

ASHES—quiet and dull. Sales Pearls 6¼; Soda Ash 3@3¼; Pots range from 4@4¼.

ALE—Pittsburgh manufactured continues in fair demand, with steady shipments to all parts of the country. The established rates at present are:

	bbls.	half bbls.
Kennett	$8	$4.00
Cross	6	3.50
X	5	2.50
Porter	4	2.00

BAGS—the price current of Messrs. Bertet & Barker, for bags in use, is as follows: flour sacks, 15¼ lbs, $26@37.50 per M; 50 lbs $2@3.50 per C; 100 lbs $4@5.75; 96 lbs $10@13; oil cloth bags—2 lbs $12@16 per M; 10 do $2.50@25; 14 do $25@30; 20 do $30@35; 24 do $35@40; 28 do $40@45; 33 do $45@50; 50 do $50@60; 75 do $70@80; 100 do $90@100; 150 do $130@140; 200 do $170@180; 300 do $250@260.

BEANS—in better demand and an advance has been established. We note several large sales to the Government for the army at $1 @ bush.

BACON—is in moderate request at an advance over last week's quotations. We note a fair number of sales at 8c for Shoulders, 10c for Sides, 10¼@10½c for Plain Hams, and 11¼@12c for Sugar Cured do.
