

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1904

My Dear Mother: I received your letter yesterday and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present.

While the general commercial city of New York is not a city of the future, it is a city of the present. It is a city of the past, and it is a city of the future. It is a city of the present, and it is a city of the future.
