VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT
In Steam and Atmospheric Hammers.
LETTERS PATENT were granted on Sept. 4th, 1860, to Thomas Beach, for a very simple and efficient improvement in Steam and Atmospheric Hammers, whereby the full stroke of the hammer is obtained, no matter what is the thickness of the piece of iron to be hammered—thereby effecting a great increase of power where large pieces of metal are to be operated upon, and a corresponding saving of expense.
The subscribers are owners of said patent, and are desirous of selling rights to use said improvement, as well as territory under said patent. A model of said improvement is left at the office of Messrs. Bakewell & Cushing, Attorneys at Law, corner of Grant and Diamond streets, where parties interested may call and see it, and learn also the terms of license sale, &c.

DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE?
BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED
STIMULATING ONGUENT,
For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the Citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT is prepared by Dr. C. F. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE
in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.
It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or sandy hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "Onguent" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.
The subscribers are the only Agents for this article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.
Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent," (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1 18. Apply to or address

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY
S. BIDDLE & CO.,
AT FIFTH STREET, ANNEX BUILDINGS.

PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 15.

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1861.

The Regiments in Washington.

The following is a correct list of the regiments that have reached this city, and reported to the Commandant of the District since the President's proclamation:

From Massachusetts—The 6th, 5th, and 8th Regiments, and Salem Zouaves.

From New York—The 7th, 71st, 12th, 25th; 69th, 28th, and 5th Regiments, and Col. Ellsworth's Fire Brigade.

From Pennsylvania—The 5th, 4th, and 6th Regiments, and 1st Artillery.

From Rhode Island—One Regiment and a Marine Artillery company.

From New Jersey—The 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th Regiments.

Troops belonging to the United States service—Sherman's Battery, 2d Artillery, 3d Infantry, and 400 cavalry.

These, with what were stationed here before, and the District militia volunteers, etc., render the calculation of 31,000 troops not far from correct. The District militia are by no means undesirable aids, under command of Col. Stone. They have become proficient in drill, and are deservedly well spoken of.

The Newest Grievance of the South.

A gentleman recently from the South, says that the principal topic of conversation there is what they assume to be Mr. Lincoln's assumption of unconstitutional powers. They grumble at the use of the public buildings, and the desecration of them by the troops, without Congressional law and assent. The law provides that troops shall not be quartered in the public buildings without provision of law; but they forget that they have violated all provisions of the Constitution and law.

Military.

Religious services have been held by all regiments, some of them going to churches, and others having private devotions, led by their own chaplains. The evening parades were well attended, indeed every nook in town was engaged by pilgrims to the several camp grounds. Naturally our Zouaves attract the most notice. They are a crack corps of volunteers, and their grounds are crowded continually during visiting hours. Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, the President's Private Secretaries, were of the reviewing host this afternoon.

The health of the various troops is generally good, though sudden climatic changes operate rather summarily on many of the imprudent ones.

Governor Sprague's regiment is a noble one. Yesterday it made up a purse of $1,000 for the sisters of young Howald, who was murdered by the policemen on Wednesday night last, an example which is very likely to be followed by others. Thirteen members of the regiment were sent home on Friday night, on command of Major Slocum. This is done as punishment for intoxication and disorderly conduct, which is something the regiment does not intend to allow on the part of any of its members.

In justice to the New York Fire Brigade, I wish to state that, with the exception of the 7th Regiment, it has discharged and sent home fewer men than any other regiment here.

The Capital is now surrounded by a circle of regimental encampments, completely controlling all roads from Virginia and Maryland.

The Government contemplates the erection of earth works at regular intervals along the Railroads running from the North through Maryland. Preliminary surveys are now making.

The Connecticut Regiment arrived here to-day by water. They are fully supplied with camp equipage, provisions, etc., and are going into camp to-morrow.

The President and Secretaries Seward, Cameron and Welles received them at the wharf, and complimented them.

The Movements of the Rebels.

There is no news of startling import, save that which comes from St. Louis, of which you have full advices from other sources. The men sent out from General Scott's office to reconnoitre the South are daily returning, and all bring the same account of bodies of men at Richmond, Lynchburg, Montgomery, New Orleans, and Pensacola. They all agree, too, that the troops intend to march on Washington, and that it that plan is abandoned, the leaders will find it difficult to restrain the men.

Advices from Montgomery direct state that it is understood there to be the policy of Davis to attack Fort Pickens the week. Most of the South Carolina cannon have been shipped there.

Fifteen hundred Alabama troops were landed at Manassas Junction, Virginia, this afternoon, en route for Harper's Ferry.

The Rebels Privateering.

Information here leaves no doubt that Davis's privateering propositions are gleedily accepted by those able to avail themselves thereof. It is said that 3,000 applications have been made for letters of marque, some of which are from foreign States.

The Southern Census-Takers.

The Secretary of the Interior, Caleb B. Smith, has refused payment to all persons in the seceded States who claim compensation for taking the census. He has also determined to withhold from all persons in the seceded States the benefit of the Pensions and Patent laws. Those States have further deprived themselves of all advantages resulting from the Coast Survey and Postal system.

A Disappointment.

No little indignation is felt in certain regiments by members who were expecting to serve their country, and whose employers in New York had granted them leave of absence, with continued pay, that they should now be compelled to resign and return, or allow their families to suffer on account of the stoppage of salaries by the aforesaid employers. It would seem no more than justice if the names of such employers could be published. As it is, however, they may take a sober second thought and re-decide.

Carl Schurz's Regiment.

The regiment of cavalry which Carl Schurz is to raise will, if all expectations be realized, be one of the most effective in the service. The object is to enlist and organize a body of men who have seen service, and do not need drilling. It is well known there are hundreds of men in the West who have seen service in Europe, and who, if engaged, would be of great use, and to such men Government will undoubtedly furnish uniforms, equipments, and horses.

Communication Open to All Points.

We are now in direct communication with all parts of the civilized world. Our city is as quiet as an Eastern village, and were it not for the occupancy of every other house by troops, no one could suspect that concerning the safety of the place there had ever been the least apprehension. Runaways may now return and be at rest.

The Officers and Men Captured in Texas.

There has been a great deal of curiosity in Army circles to know what course Government intends to pursue with the officers and men who were captured in Texas, after the treason of Gen. Twiggs, and who are released on their word of honor that they would not bear arms against the Southern Confederacy. Concerning this, I am able to state that Government regards a parole given under such circumstances as they would a promise given to a house-breaker or footpad, and that those gentlemen will all be required to renew their full obligations to Government, and a refusal to take the oath will be met by instant dismissal from the service.
Aetion.

In view of the events in St. Louis, the Government has resolved upon comprehensive measures for the protection of Union men, and the suppression of secession movements in Missouri.

This week it is anticipated some vigorous movement will be made by the administration. Pensacola was blockaded last Monday. Charleston is also blockaded; New Orleans will be this week.

Fortress Monroe was further reinforced on Monday.

Dispatches to the Associated Press, sent to Pittsburgh by Mail.

The preparations having been completed for an effective blockade of the Virginia waters, Capt. Pendergast has given the precautionary notice of fifteen days for all vessels to leave the ports of that State, either with or without cargoes. Several of the foreign ministers, and some of our own countrymen, have asked for an extension of the time; but this, in every case, has been refused. The order will be adhered to impartially.

Certain persons, though representing themselves as Union men, had been denied the privilege of forwarding locomotives to Tennessee, for the reason, among others, that such necessary railroad machinery might be used in the transportation of hostile troops. The Government also takes care that coal, desirable for steam purposes, shall not be transported to the disloyal States.

Information having reached the Navy Department late last night that several small vessels had been fired at from the Virginia shore, and an effort made to detain them by the Alexandria authorities, in order that their cargoes of fish, instead of being brought to Washington, might be secured for the use of the Secession troops, the Secretary promptly ordered the steamer Pawnee to stop the lawless proceedings.

In addition to the National vessels, about twenty armed steamers from New York, Boston, and Philadelphia have been, or are being, put in readiness for blockading purposes.

Information has been received that enlistments for the increase of personnel of the Navy are so successful, that the necessary number will soon be supplied.

The Secretary of War is assiduous in hurrying forward the measures of blockade, and informs his friends that by this time Charleston and the Savannah River experience its effects. The Niagara and other vessels will similarly operate at New Orleans.

A number of naval officers, including Captains, who, during a panic, resigned their commissions, have applied to be reinstated; but these appeals have been, and will continue to be disregarded. Some of the officers, who long since retired honorably to private pursuits, have been placed on duty as Second Lieutenants, as no higher stations, under present circumstances, can now be assigned them.

The earnest effort of the Department is to make the blockade effective within the shortest possible time. The War Department is equally busy, a vast amount of work being performed day and night by Secretary Cameron and Chief Clerk Bandeross, with their experienced assistants, in addition to the labors of Lieut. General Scott, Adjutant General Thomas, and other military gentlemen.

Effect of the Blockade.

Information from the section of Virginia affected by the blockade, conveys the assurance that it operates like the stoppage of a man's breath. The Old Dominion soon will begin to grow cold at the extremities. She has not provisions for subsisting an army, and already prices begin to rule very high. Nothing that she has to sell can be conveyed to market. Nothing that she wants can she obtain from abroad. Thus hemmed in and cut off, Virginia is in a condition to test her self-subsisting capabilities.

Commodore Pendergrast, flag officer of the Cumberland, which lies at Old Point Comfort, is fully up to the work of keeping the blockade a rigid one. He is in favor of planning expeditions against the rebel batteries at different points, where the naval force, co-operating with a land force, can destroy these nicers of the rebellion, and keep the rivers emptying into the bay free. He is in favor of this only as a matter of instant action, by the assumption of some responsibility if need be, instead of waiting till the rebels have entrenched themselves so as to render their dislodgement difficult. The prosecution of the Commodore's views depends very much on whether he can obtain the co-operation of Col. Dimmick at Fortress Monroe. It is certainly to be hoped that he may.

It is hardly to be expected that the shores of the bay, embracing Fortress Monroe, Fort McHenry, and all the outlets to Virginia, will escape becoming the scenes of conflict. The bay and the coast for a long distance have been cleared of the persistent piratical crafts that began to swarm, and it only remains that the batteries should be broken up and destroyed wherever and whenever an attempt is made to plant them.

The coasting trade which formerly dotted their waters and the line of coast to New York, is almost wholly broken up. Scarcely a vessel of any kind not connected with the operations of the government is now to be seen in all their waters. The commerce of Virginia has thus been crushed out in a day. Her rich oyster beds yield no revenue. The rich soil of her rivers, tributary and ocean will be planted in vain, while the many industries of vegetables and fruits which supplied the early markets of the
