Dentistry.

New Dental Partnership.

DRS. STEBBINS & MUNSON, having formed a partnership and opened an office at No. 108 Fifth street, (a few doors above the Post-office,) would call the attention of the public to their superior facilities for the manufacture and insertion of all kinds of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, and for the performance of all other branches of Dentistry.

Without making a specialty of any one style, they still recommend the VULCANITE PLATE TEETH as the most Healthy, Durable and Comfortable substitute for the natural teeth. They are guaranteed to fit superior in every respect to the best metallic plate base, whether mounted on gold or any of the baser metals, and can be inserted at a much more reasonably rate.

Those having imperfectly fitting Gold sets can have them replaced with the Vulcanite, at a small additional expense above the value of the old plate. ja24:1y

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.

BY THE USE OF AN APPARATUS WHEREBY NO DRUGS OR GALVANIC BATTERY ARE USED.

Cold weather is the time when the apparatus can be used to its best advantage.

Medical gentlemen and their families have had their teeth extracted by my process, and are ready to testify as to the safety and painlessness of the operation—whatever has been said by persons interested in asserting the contrary, having no knowledge of my process.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH inserted in every style.

DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE! BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED STIMULATING ONGUENT, For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the Citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT is prepared by Dr. C. F. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is a universal rage.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a healthful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or rusty hair dark, and restore grey hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "Onguent" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent," (warranted to have the desired effect,) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage of 12 cts. Apply to or address

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1861.

Exciting Rumor from Virginia.

No little excitement has been created in governmental circles to-day by reports to the War Department from its scouts to the effect that several thousand rebel troops were encamped in the rear of Arlington Heights, and that feeble efforts had been made to throw up fortifications on the Heights under the superintendence of General Lee, who is at his residence there. Additional scouts have been sent out to ascertain the facts of the case. In the meanwhile signal guns have been arranged and the military are ordered to sleep on their arms. If the Virginians are encamped in the rear of the Heights they are but two miles from Washington. It is not believed, however, that they will be so foolhardy as to attempt a movement upon this city.

The Artillery with shotted cannon are occupying all the prominent points on this side of the river to-night.

The Forces at Harper's Ferry.

I have ascertained definitely the forces congregated at and in the vicinity of Harper's Ferry. At Harper's Ferry there are two thousand men; at Hallstown twenty-five hundred; at Point of Rocks eight hundred. The latter are entirely composed of Marylanders—the rabble that left Baltimore and its vicinity. The force at Harper's Ferry is poorly equipped and not fully armed; but it has nine howitzers and eight thirty-two pounders. You may rely upon these figures as representing all the force now congregated at that point.

The Fortifications at Harper's Ferry.

It is generally expected that the first collision will take place at Harper's Ferry. Such is the opinion of persons high in the administration. The government keep their movements most profoundly secret.

The extensive fortifications and batteries which are being erected by rebel troops have somewhat alarmed the government. The point which has been selected can be made almost impregnable, provided it is allowed to go on. If taken in season they may be dislodged and driven out with comparatively small loss of life. It is said by high military authority to be one of the strongest positions for an army to entrench themselves in the world.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railway has at length changed front. Mr. Prescott Smith, Master of Transportation of that Road, has, on its behalf, requested Government to take military possession of it, and to run it as it has that between Annapolis and the Junction. No reply has yet been made, but, of course, Gen. Scott, who has all along intended to occupy the road when he needed it, will not modify the original programme to suit anybody.

The Southern Mails.

All letters from the South which arrive here show that they have been opened before they were dispatched by the postmaster. Nothing is permitted to leave the South but business and love letters. Perhaps much valuable information is communicated in those of the latter class.

All telegraphic communication with the South is permanently suspended by the removal of the wires between Washington and Alexandria. A new company has been organized, embracing all the lines at the South.

Another correspondent says: Complaints are becoming frequent that the Virginians are intercepting and retaining letters addressed to citizens of Washington and the North. The instances are so numerous as to indicate unmistakably that the authorities of the rebel States are acting in concert. As soon as the fact is definitely ascertained, all mail facilities will be cut off.

The European News.

The European news has been the subject of much conversation, to day, at the Cabinet Chamber and Department of State. The general tone of the news is considered as very favorable to the Administration, but there is some discussion about the construction and purpose of Lord John Russell's proposition that the "Persons acting under letters of marque from the Jeff Davis Confederacy must be regarded as belligerents," as to whether by this he means "pirates" or a recognized hostile force; if the latter, whether it is not a partial and inadvertent recognition of the so-called Southern Confederacy. That it will be so regarded by the Southern rebels, the Administration has no doubt, but that the English Government and people will so regard it, is not believed for a moment by our Government nor the British Legation.

An Offer from Scotland.

The most significant offer yet made to our Government is that just received from Scotland. Certain prominent Scotch merchants, doing business in this country, are responsible for a tender of ten regiments of unequipped, but well-built, hardy, active men, who are not earning $11 per month above their living, and who are ready and willing to enter the service of the United States for the war, be it long or short, on condition that, at the expiration of the war, Government will grant them each a bounty of land.

Dispatches from Abroad.

Very satisfactory dispatches have been received at the State Department from our representatives abroad. It is well known now that at no Court wherever, with which this nation is on friendly terms, will the representatives of Jeff Davis meet with any reception which would not be as freely accorded to any gentleman from this country who may desire presentation at such Court. It is not deemed desirable at present to inform the public more at length concerning these affairs, but it may rest assured that the so-called Commissioners found themselves met everywhere by the most peremptory declinations of recognition.

Remodeling the Army.

Gen. Scott is about to remodel the United States army upon the French system, so as to give it more efficiency and perfection. The old hero works with astonishing zeal, and his mind operates as actively as many a man at fifty-five. It is undoubted that he contemplates a long campaign, that Washington is to be the base of operations, that a large force will be kept permanently stationed here, and that all demonstrations in support of the loyal men of the South, and in furtherance of the determination to retake stolen public property, will move from this point. Some complaints are made because an expedition has not already been sent into Virginia for the purpose of capturing Richmond; but I am disposed to repose my trust entirely upon the experience and patriotism of Gen. Scott. He is heartily sustained by the President and Messrs. Chase, Cameron, Seward, and the rest of the Cabinet, although it is not doubted that Postmaster-General Judge Blair favors a more extreme and aggressive policy.

Gen. Scott's Health.

It was remarked last evening, at Mr. Seward's, where the General was an honored guest, that, for a sick man, he seemed in remarkably fine trim.

The Case of Rose Winans.

It is believed that the Government will order the discharge of Rose Winans, on his furnishing his alleged proof that he sold no guns to Virginia since the secession of that State. It is charged that he has attempted, to furnish his steam-gun and has been supplying rifles to rebels for some months past; but his friends, on the other hand, assert that he has been a strong Union man all the time. He is an old man, having a large circle of friends, and one for whom a great deal of popular sympathy will be raised. It seems to be the general impression that, if he can be implicated, heavily fined, and disgraced, it will have a better effect than if he should be hanged, or his property confiscated.

Troops Arriving Through Baltimore.

The Doylestown Guards, Captain Davis commanding, arrived this afternoon, having in their charge the battery of the Ringgold Artillerists, from Reading. This is the first company that has passed through Baltimore direct since the burning of the bridges. The company, while passing up Pratt street, were subjected to many insulting remarks, but no violent demonstrations were manifested except the throwing of a stone at the last division. The soldierly appearance of the men, and their determined bearing, joined with the fact of each man having his Minie musket ready loaded, no doubt had a very salutary effect upon the excited people of that city. This company is considered to be one of the best disciplined companies in the service from Pennsylvania.

Senator Douglas.

Having seen it stated that Senator Douglas had received an appointment as Brigadier General, I asked the President if it was so. He said it was not; that neither Mr. Douglas nor his friends had applied for it, and he had not thought of tendering it to him. He also said that if Generals were to be appointed from civil life, he imagined there were many who would be inferior to Mr. Douglas in that position; that the Senator was the first one to tell him of an anticipated trouble in Maryland; to point out the proper route via Perryville and Annapolis, and to suggest that Fort Monroe and Old Point Comfort were the points that commanded the whole of that section of country. Mr. Lincoln referred with pleasure to the fact that Mr. Douglas, earlier than many others, called upon him, announcing his determination to stand by him, and approving of his course.

The Indian Territory Forts.

It seems that, for its own reasons, Government saw fit, on the 17th of April, to order the immediate evacuation of Forts Smith, Cobb, Arbuckle, and Washita, which stand as guard posts of the Indian Territory. The men were needed elsewhere, and were directed to report to the commandant of Fort Leavenworth, it being left to the discretion of the commanding officer to replace them with Arkansas volunteers. These points, if taken by the Secessionists, or occupied by hostile Indians, can easily be retaken, but at present they would be of little use to the country. Hostile Indians, however, are not plenty. Mr. Dole, who so ably manages that department, and who effectually impressed their head men with an idea of the power of the North, says that as yet there is no indication of trouble from them, but, on the contrary, they will be very apt, if found fighting at all, to be underneath the flag which has so long protected them. In fact, two Chiefs of the Chickasaw tribe are here now with a tender of 150 men from their section, but it is not deemed well to accept them for the general service at the present time.

BY LAST EVENING'S MAIL

Important from Fortress Monroe.

The propeller Bowman, of Troy, Capt. Clark, arrived this morning. She left Fortress Monroe Tuesday afternoon, and brings the remainder of the woman and children from the fortress. From Captain Clarke we gather the following particulars:

On Monday morning last a band of Secessionists who have been for some time assembling at Hampton their headquarters, and who have had a sentinel stationed on the Hampton end of the bridge that connects that place with the duke leading from the old fortress to the grounds, sent a flag of truce to Col. Dimmick, demanding sole possession of the road leading across the dyke, and which for some time past has been under the guard of the garrison. Col. Dimmick's reply was that he would give the rebels just ten minutes to disperse and leave him in exclusive occupation of the dyke and bridge.

Col. Dimmick immediately took steps to make good his word, and ordered forward two companies of Massachusetts troops, and planted heavy guns so as to sweep the entire distance. The Colonel, with watch in hand, awaited the movements of the Rebels, who seeing his determined attitude fled, and when "time" was called not one was to be seen.

Two hundred of the Massachusetts men then took possession of the dyke and bridge, and also a house at the extreme end of the latter.

Col. Dimmick was determined to treat all demonstrations of the rebels in the same manner.

Thirty-nine women and sixty-one children came in the Bowman, under escort of Lieut. McLaughlin, and ten others from Governor's Island, who recently accompanied a transport to the Fortress. The Band-master of the Fortress was also a passenger, who has seven days leave of absence.

The women and children will go to Fort Hamilton.—N. Y. Evening Tribune, Thursday.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—"Extra Billy" Smith, of Virginia, has just arrived here. He visited the War Department this morning on private business. He is in low spirits, and deplores the condition of the country. Some persons say that he comes as a spy, but this story is not generally believed. Washington is becoming too hot a place for spies. Mr. Smith declares that Virginia is aroused and means to fight, but the sight of the great array of federal troops here evidently oppresses him.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The government will receive troops just as fast as they can be used advantageously. The preparations for opening the campaign are going on with rapidity, but it is heavy work to provide the commissariat and arms and quarters for such large bodies of men.

The President has given assurances to several distinguished gentlemen who have waited upon him, that the military operations shall be conducted with energy.

Several spies were arrested here last night. One of them made a secession speech in Virginia a week ago.—Evening Post, Thursday.

ALARM AT THE SOUTH.—A leading secessionist, who has recently arrived in this city from Alabama, has stated in substance that unless France and England immediately recognize the Southern Confederacy their cause is hopelessly lost.
