

Pittsburgh Gazette.

S. RIDDLE & CO.,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS, PUBLISHERS OF THE "PITTSBURGH GAZETTE," Morning and Evening Editions daily, containing the Latest News of the War, and Morning Edition—25 per centum in advance, or 125 per centum from carriers.
Evening Edition—25 per centum in advance, or 50 per
centum from carriers.
Weekly Edition—25 per centum in advance, or 50 per
centum from carriers.

ADVERTISEMENTS AT REASONABLE RATES.

PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1861.

America loves a French Standard.

The Uprising of a Great People—The United States in 1861! It is the title of a new book published in Paris, by Comte de George.

It was written before the election of Mr. Lincoln and the end of the first month of his administration. In fact, so far as the author's knowledge of events went, he printed almost with the inauguration.

We would gladly copy largely from its eloquent paragraphs; but we are obliged to confine ourselves to a few extracts. Here is a passage of great value to us Americans, which we trust will be of interest to our friends in Europe:

"The general opinion in Europe is that the United States continued to pursue an upward course until the election of Mr. Lincoln; and that, since then, the decline has been rapid; and, at the bold advocacy and defense thereof, not only in those States in which ordinances of secession have been passed, but in all others."

While the General Assembly in the language of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, on the occasion of the revolutionary war—"being men at a time which was itself epochal"—was "bold and resolute" in its opposition to the South, so far as the author's knowledge goes, he prints almost with the inauguration.

We would gladly copy largely from its eloquent paragraphs; but we are obliged to confine ourselves to a few extracts. Here is a passage of great value to us Americans, which we trust will be of interest to our friends in Europe:

"The general opinion in Europe is that the United States continued to pursue an upward course until the election of Mr. Lincoln; and that, since then, the decline has been rapid; and, at the bold advocacy and defense thereof, not only in those States in which ordinances of secession have been passed, but in all others."

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

It is to say that it did not appear

so much on the surface?" Is that to say

that it was to be expected?

The New School Presbyterian Church—

The Resolutions on the State of the Country—

The resolutions below, which were unanimously adopted by the General Assembly of the Church at Syracuse, N. Y., were written and reported by Rev. H. H. Smith, D. D., of the Third Presbyterian church of this city, he being Chairman of the Special Committee:

WE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA HAVE Risen up against the right authority of the Government;

we have instituted "WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE CONTRARY TO THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST" in the name of "CONVENTIONAL SOCIETIES;" in the name of "CONFEDERATE SOCIETIES;" in the