. Grant in the state of the sta Dittsburgh Gazette. LETTER PROM WASHINGTON. Troma Our Own Correspondent. [WASHINGTON, June 25, 1861. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CIEY. I am not surprised that the northern press ex hibits some symptoms of impatience at the apparent inaction of the army now lying before Washington It is natural that the heat of patriotic arder should beget favorish and restless anxiety among the people who have so nobly risen up and sent forth one of the great amies of the world for the de-fense of the national existence. But is this impa-tience wise and well judged? I, for one, have the most apbounded confidence in Gen. Scott. He naver yet lost a battle, or a campaign, nor does be intend to lose either, now. He has not yet men enough here to make the onward movement upon Richmond. There are, say 60 000. None less than Sough been to each the consent generation of which the control of the control products of which great on the benefit of the control of the co Richmond. There are, say 60,000. None less than about 75,000 will do. Moreover, the co-operation of McCiellan, Patterson and Butler is not yet fective-does not yet make itself feit bere. When
