OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 1.]

AN ACT to refund and remit the duties on arms imported by States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to refund and remit the duties and imposts on all arms imported into the United States since the first day of May last, or which may be imported before the first day of January next, by or for the account of any State: Provided, The Secretary of the Treasury shall be satisfied that the said arms are intended in good faith, for the use of the troops of any State which is or may be engaged in aiding to suppress the insurrection now existing against the United States.

Approved, July 10, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 2.]

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the militia and volunteers and called into the service of the United States from the time they were called into service to the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be and hereby is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five millions seven hundred and sixty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to enable the Government to pay the militia and volunteers called into service of the United States, being an additional amount required for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Approved, July 18, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 3.]

AN ACT further to provide for the collection of duties on imports and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever it shall, in the judgment of the President, by reason of unlawful combinations of persons in opposition to the laws of the United States, become impracticable to execute the revenue laws and collect the duties on imports by the ordinary means, in the ordinary way, at any port of entry in any collection district, he is authorized to cause such duties to be collected at any port of delivery in said district until such obstruction shall cease; and in such case the surveyors at said ports of delivery shall be clothed with all the powers and be subject to all the obligations of collectors at ports of entry; and the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approbation of the President, shall appoint such number of weighers, gaugers, measurers, inspectors, appraisers, and clerks as may be necessary, in his judgment, for the faithful execution of the revenue laws at said ports of delivery, and shall fix and establish the limits within which such ports of delivery are constituted ports of entry as aforesaid; and all the provisions of law regulating the issue of marine papers, the coasting trade, the warehousing of imports, and collection of duties shall apply to the ports of entry so constituted in the same manner as they do to ports of entry established by the laws now in force.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if, from the cause mentioned in the foregoing section, in the judgment of the President, the revenue from duties on imports cannot be effectually collected at any port of entry in any collection district in the ordinary way and by the ordinary means, or by the course provided in the foregoing section, then, and in that case, he may direct that the custom house for the district be established in any place within said district, either on land or on board any vessel in said district or at sea near the coast; and in such case the collector shall reside at such place, or on ship-board, as the case may be, and there detain all vessels and cargoes arriving within or approaching said district, until the duties imposed by law on said vessels and their cargoes are paid in cash: Provided, That if the owner or consignee of the cargo on board any vessel detained as aforesaid, or the master of said vessel, shall desire to enter a port of entry in any other district in the United States where no such obstructions to the execution of the laws exist the master of such vessel may be permitted so to change the destination of the vessel and cargo in his manifest, whereupon the collector shall deliver him a written permit to proceed to the port so designated: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall, with the approbation of the President, make proper regulations for the enforcement on shipboard of such provisions of the laws regulating the assessment and collection of duties as in his judgment may be necessary and practicable.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful to take any vessel or cargo detained as aforesaid from the custody of the proper officers of the customs, unless by process of some court of the United States; and in case of any attempt otherwise to take such vessel or cargo by any force, or combination, or assemblage of persons, too great to be overcome by the officers of the customs, it shall and may be lawful for the President, or such person or persons as he shall have empowered for that purpose, to employ such part of the army or navy or militia of the United States, or such force of citizen volunteers as may be deemed necessary for the purpose of preventing the removal of such vessel or cargo, and protecting the officers of the customs in retaining the custody thereof.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That if, in the judgment of the President, from the causes mentioned in the first section of this act the duties upon imports in any collection district cannot be effectually collected by the ordinary means and in the ordinary way, or in the mode and manner provided in the foregoing sections of this act, then and in that case the President is hereby empowered to close the port of entry in said district, and in such case to give notice thereof by proclamation; and thereupon all rights of importation, warehousing, and other privileges incident to ports of entry shall cease and be discontinued at such port so closed, until opened by the order of the President or the cessation of such obstructions; and if, while said ports are so closed, any ship or vessel from beyond the United States, or having on board any articles subject to duties, shall enter or attempt to enter any such port, the same, together with its tackle, apparel, furniture, and cargo, shall be forfeited to the United States.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That wherever the President, in pursuance of the provisions of the second section of the act entitled "An act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions, and to repeal the act now in force for that purpose," approved February 28, 1795, shall have called forth the militia to suppress combinations against the laws of the United States, and to cause the laws to be duly executed, and the insurgents shall have failed to disperse by the time directed by the President, and while said insurgents shall so not under the authority of any State or States, and such state is not disclaimed or repudiated by the persons exercising the functions of government in such State or States, or in the part or parts thereof in which said combination exists, nor such insurrection suppressed by said State or States, then and in such case any ship and shall be lawful for the President, by proclamation, to declare that the inhabitants of such State, or any section or part thereof, where such insurrection exists, are in a state of insurrection against the United States; and thereupon all commercial intercourse by and between the same and the citizens thereof and the citizens of the rest of the United States shall cease and be unlawful so long as such condition of hostility shall continue; and all goods and chattels, wares and merchandise, coming from said State or section into the other parts of the United States, and all proceeding to such State or section, by land or water, shall, together with the vessel or vehicle conveying the same, or conveying persons to or from such State or section, be forfeited to the United States: Provided, however, That the President may, in his discretion, license and permit commercial intercourse with any such part of said State or section, the inhabitants of which are so declared to a state of insurrection, in such articles, and for such time, and by such persons, as he, in his discretion, may think most conducive to the public interest; and such intercourse, so far as by him licensed, shall be conducted and carried on only in pursuance of rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. And the Secretary of the Treasury may appoint such officers at places where officers of the customs are not now authorized by law as may be needed to carry into effect such licenses, rules, and regulations; and officers of the customs and other officers shall receive for services under this section, and under said rules and regulations, such fees and compensation as are now allowed for similar services under other provisions of law.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That from and after fifteen days after the issuing of the said proclamation, as provided in the last foregoing section of this act, any ship or vessel belonging in whole or in part to any citizen or inhabitant of said State or part of a State whose inhabitants are so declared in a state of insurrection, found at sea, or in any port of the rest of the United States, shall be forfeited to the United States.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That in the execution of the provisions of this act, and of the other laws of the United States providing for the collection of duties on imports and tonnage, it may and shall be lawful for the President, in addition to the revenue cutters in service, to employ in all thereof such other public vessels as may be in his judgment, in an emergency,

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the forfeitures and penalties incurred by virtue of this act may be mitigated or remitted, in pursuance of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Treasury by the act entitled "An act providing for mitigating or remitting the forfeitures, penalties, and disabilities accruing in certain cases therein mentioned," approved March third, seventeen hundred and eighty-seven, or in cases where special circumstances may seem to require it, according to regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That proceedings as for forfeiture under this act may be pursued in the courts of the United States in any district into which the property so seized may be taken and proceedings instituted; and such courts shall have and entertain as full jurisdiction over the same as if the seizure was made in that district.

Approved, July 13, 1861.

Matrimony under Difficulties.

A queer case came to our notice yesterday. That it is true in every particular we learn upon indisputable authority. A fish old German widower living eight miles out of town drove into the city yesterday morning in his own conveyance, with a buxom female whom he proposed to convert into a wife. His wagon was a shockingly primitive article, with rope harness and rattling spokes, while his horse, though not in bad condition, appeared to have remained uncurried for at least six months at a time. The object in driving into the city was to find a clergyman to perform the ceremony, who understood the German tongue, and was willing to take in payment a half bushel of turnips.

It occurred to the old German to send to express dried apples. The widower drove first to the house of a well known preacher down town. A Mission female opened the door; and the widower told her his errand—he wanted to be married, and to pay for the operation with two packs of schnitts. The preacher was absent, but the girl laughed in his face, and slammed the door upon him. Nothing discomfited, except at the trouble he was taking, the widower rejoined his charioteer in the vehicle and drove to the house of the next preacher on his list; he had taken memorandums of five. He left the girl in the wagon while he went to the door and made the inquiry. The clergyman fortunately was at home. The widower caused him to be summoned into the parlor and there stated his business. Whether the clergyman's family were not partial to dried apples, or otherwise disposed of them, nothing is known, but the clergyman was just going out to pay a visit to a sick parishioner, and couldn't possibly be detained.

The widower now began to feel lugubrious, especially as the girl in the wagon commenced to parade him for his bungling manner of doing business. Mr. Widower climbed into his rickety buggy, hit his horse a heavy whack with a hickory goad, and drove eight squares further up the avenue before he halted. Number three's residence was discovered within a square, to the delight of the widower. Indeed, matters seemed unusually favorable for the success of his matrimonial project. The preacher was at home, and was willing to perform the ceremony, but he had a wife and children, and couldn't possibly be a bachelor, didn't need schnitts. Mr. Widower was now desperate, and the girl began to fear that the marriage might yet be indefinitely postponed. They drove, however, to the house of minister No. 4. Mr. Widower left the girl in the wagon, alighted, and gave a jerk to the bell pull that brought the worthy clergyman in person to the door, before the bell itself had ceased its clamor. The important question was now put to him, and to the great joy of the widower, a response in the affirmative was rendered.

"You shoost shumps out, Becky," shouted the German from the door step to the girl in the wagon; "he takes per schnitts!"

The girl obeyed orders, jumped out of the vehicle, and carried the bag containing the schnitts into the house. In ten minutes the job was done, the schnitts carried and deposited in the minister's storeroom, and the couple left, carrying the empty bag with them. We understand that the happy pair left which will be forfeited to the United States by cause of dedication on the part of the contractor in fulfilling the contract.

Forms of proposals and contract, will be furnished upon application to this office, and none will be considered that do not conform thereto.

Proposals will be endorsed, "Proposals for Furnishing Army Supplies and Materials," and be addressed, Miscellaneous.

A Card to the Public.

The amount of bodily and mental misery arising from a neglect of small complaints is incalculable, and it is therefore of the utmost importance, that a safe and certain remedy for bad and local blemishes should be had; for diseases of the body invariably affect the mind. DR. MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES, in every instance where they have been rightly used, have TRIUMPHED OVER DISEASE in almost all its diversified forms. The salutary effects of the Life Medicines have, in fact, been so universally experienced, that they have become fully established as the most easy, safe and perfect mode of treatment ever offered to the public.

THESE MEDICINES

Have now been before the public for a period of 30 YEARS, and during that time have maintained a HIGH CHARACTER in almost EVERY PART OF THE GLOBE for the extraordinary curative properties which they possess.

IN MANY THOUSANDS of certified instances, they have even RESCUED SUFFERERS from the very VERGE OF AN UNTIMELY GRAVE, after all the deceptive nostrums of the day have invariably failed. So great, indeed, has their efficacy invariably and infallibly proved, that it has appeared scarcely less than miraculous to those who were acquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act. It was to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor, that they were indebted for their name.

30 FIFTY CENTS LIFE PILLS!!!

Are composed of VEGETABLE INGREDIENTS EXCLUSIVELY, as can be ascertained by CHEMICAL TESTS. Their combined qualities are those of an active and searching, though perfectly mild and agreeable detergent aperient; of a gentle saponific, promoting the insensible perspiration of a pleasant diuretic, invigorating the kidneys and bladder; and of a delightful tonic cardiac, exciting appetite by the demands of active digestion, and cheering the mind with that grateful sense of recovered health which is one of the most delicious feelings of our nature.

THE PHŒNIX BITTERS!!!

So deservedly celebrated for their astonishing power of creating new life and strength, as it were from the very ashes of the most dilapidated constitutions—are more strongly tonic and more immediately invigorating than the Life Pills, containing the same choice vegetable extracts as the latter, in a different medication. Although really less cathartic than the LIFE PILLS, they nevertheless begin to cleanse the alimentary canal much sooner, generally slightly operating within three or four hours, and producing a decided sense of relief to the liver and kidneys, and exhilarating the Mind, even in less time than this.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS!!!!

In Affections of the Head, Sick Headache or Nervous Headache, these Pills will be found to possess the most sanitary efficacy.

MOFFAT'S PHŒNIX BITTERS!!!

Have been happily used for the cure of FEVER AND AGUE, with INVARIABLE SUCCESS!

BILIOUS COMPLAINTS, AND A HOST OF OTHERS!!!

BE A well-regulated and proportionate quantity of life pills and phœnix bitters, as required by the peculiar constitution, will restore perfect health—it stimulates digestion and keeps the intestinal canal free from all obstructions. When there is a deficiency of bile, the body is constantly costive. On the other hand, an overabundance of bile causes frequent nausea in the stomach, and often promotes very severe attacks of diarrhœa, requiring an restraint from pleasure or business during their operation.
