Mr. Wilkinson, of Minn,, moved that the memorial be returned.

Mr. Kennedy—I hope not.

Mr. Wilkinson said the protest was neither respectful nor trna. It was false in form, fact, and an outrageous riolation of rights.

Mr. Kennedy hoped the polition from Maryland would not be rejected. He hoped her rights would be no more trampled upon. She was a loyal State, but struggling under the weight of oppression.

Mr. Hale, of N. H., argued that the Senata should not refuse to hear the petition. He said it was a loyal stay step to ridess the right of pet tion in any two stays are to refuse the right of pet tion in any two stays are to the first time that petitions have come hare which were not considered respectful by many.

After some further discussion, the boundard of the Mary had Legislature may finally with a recommendation that it should not pass.
