PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 26, 1861.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

The Republican electors of Allegheny county, and all others in favor of the perpetuity of the NATIONAL UNION, and maintaining the NATIONAL GOVERNMENT in its efforts to put down Armed Rebellion, are invited to assemble in their various Wards, Boroughs and Townships at their usual places of holding elections in each precinct, on SATURDAY, the 31st of August, to elect FOUR DELEGATES—two to each County Convention—both conventions to meet on TUESDAY, September 3d, at 10 o'clock a. m., as follows: 1. The Judicial Convention to assemble at the City Hall to nominate a President Judge of Common Pleas, an Associate Law Judge of District Court, and an Associate Judge of Common Pleas, one Senator, and five members of the House of Representatives and Director of the Poor. 2. The Political Convention to meet at the Court House, to nominate Sheriff, Coroner, Prothonotary, Treasurer and Commissioner.

The primary meetings in the townships will be held between the hours of 3 and 6 p. m., and in the cities and boroughs between 5 and 7 p. m., of said day. The appointment of the delegates in the townships will be by ballot, and in the cities and boroughs by ballot. The chairmen of the two conventions will jointly appoint the executive committee for the ensuing year.

THOS. M. MARSHALL,
THOS. P. WILSON, Sec'ys. Chairman.

COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—Although we have entered our protest against any abandonment of our party organization and against any attempt to merge it with another, yet, while deprecating all efforts to get up a "Union" organization, we have expressed a cordial desire to co-operate with all loyal and patriotic Democrats who are willing to unite with us in support of the government.

Of course, a willingness to co-operate with democrats in such support, implies a willingness to vote for and sustain the nomination of any loyal and patriotic Democrat who may be satisfactory to the nominating conventions which meet next week. Should the delegates to those conventions think it wise to assign three or four places to democrats on the ticket then to be formed, we shall enter heartily into their support.

We could, with great cheerfulness, vote for such a democrat as WM. J. MORRISON, or even for our amiable friend, the editor of the Post, and we trust that gentleman will believe us sincere in saying so. We do not see how any good Republican could object to voting for such men, nor for such excellent citizens as WM. G. HAWKINS, of Wilkins, Dr. MCCLINTOCK, Dr. MCCOOK, JOHN N. MCCLOWRY, T. B. HAMILTON, and many others we could name. It is for the Conventions, of course, to say if they will nominate such men, and for which offices they will name them; we merely mention their names to indicate the class of men we can cheerfully join in supporting.

In expressing our inclinations in this direction we are doing no violence to the convictions which prompted what has before been said on this subject. Our opposition is not to the support of unobjectionable democrats for office, at such a time as this, but to engaging in alliances (through a merger of organizations) which may prove embarrassing hereafter, and to abandoning to-day an organization built up but yesterday for the sake of building a new party to-morrow to be shortly after abandoned in its turn. We leave the whole matter, where it properly belongs, in the hands of the Conventions soon to assemble; and have thrown out these few suggestions merely to show that our scruples do not apply to the support of democrats for office, but merely to the method of bringing them before the public.

In a Parenthesis.

It appears we are, all in a parenthesis. The army at Washington is not moving on to Richmond—it is not even said to be going to move at any given time, or at any time which, though not given, is near enough to be guessed at and talked about. This puts us not only into a parenthesis of action, but into a sort of parenthesis of our accustomed sensations.

Since the once familiar report of "an important movement" being "at hand," or "on foot," which a few weeks ago used to be sent forth daily from Washington, has ceased to make its sensational appearance in the telegraphic columns of newspapers, many readers have felt and confessed a want.

No doubt our friends, the reporters in Washington, are at their wits' ends day after day to find something to take the place of that "important movement at hand," which just kept up a most pleasurable excitement at the right pitch, without going too far—so nicely adjusted to three-fourths of the public that three-fourths of the public were delighted, expecting what the morrow would bring forth.

Meantime, as the Washington gold mines cannot pile the excitement high enough, the truth-loving portion of the public are enabled to search for that "fruit divine" among the thorns of Southern telegraphic dispatches—"from Richmond via Nashville and Louisville." Of the batches of news thus received, unless the reader be a sceptic, and always ready to doubt, or a lawyer, and favorsensibly bent on a cross-examination, we advise him to take no notice whatever. If he neglect this advice, and be a simple-minded person of ordinary credulity, he is certain to come to believe that we shall be at war with England, and at war with France, and at war among ourselves as well as with Beauregard and the army of the rebel slave-holders that follow him—all because we persist in refusing to acknowledge that these slave-drivers and woman-whippers are our masters, our "well-approved good masters," and that Jeff. Davis is and ought to be President of the United States.

PROMOTIONS.—Lieut. Col. Ripley, of the Ordnance Corps, has been promoted to be a brigadier general of that bureau; Major Symington to be one of its two colonels, and the four majors of the corps to be its lieutenant colonels, excepting Major John F. Lee, who prefers to remain in the discharge of the duties of his position as major and judge-advocate-general.—N. Y. World.

What has Major Symington done to deserve this promotion? Is it because of any special evidence of loyalty? or because he has a son-in-law, (Lieut. Boggs,) who deserted the U. S. service to join that of the rebels? or because of his keeping the management of the Arsenal, here, in the hands of men whose sympathies are believed to be all against us?

Western Virginia.

The following, from the New York World, meets our own views:

"We very much fear that unless Gen. Rosecrans is heavily reinforced, he will be overpowered by the forces of Gen. Lee, who is known to be hurrying across the mountains with a large army, comprising many of the troops who were engaged at Bull Run. If so, it will be the old story over again of a heavy massing of troops against a gallant but small army, and the inevitable retreat of the latter."

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, however, professes to be better informed. He says:

"Trustworthy intelligence from Northwestern Virginia states that Gen. Rosecrans is securely intrenched, and with a sufficient force to remove any cause of apprehension for his safety. The rebels are reported intrenching themselves at a distance of from fifteen to twenty miles, and with a force variously estimated at from nine to twenty thousand men."

This may be true. We hope it is. But we much fear the government will wake up some morning, soon, to the conviction that it has been lulled into a false security. Our conviction is clear that Gen. Rosecrans should be reinforced at once.

JUDGE GARRISON SUSTAINED.—Judge Garrison has finally dismissed the proceedings in the case of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, counsel for the prisoners having applied for an attachment against the Sheriff, for not executing the writ against the Commander of Fort Lafayette. His Honor simply stated that he must consider the return already made as sufficient. He had no doubt the Sheriff did his best to have the writ executed; and if he failed, the failure was to be attributed to circumstances beyond his control.

LOSS AT WILSON'S CREEK.—The official loss of the National force under Gen. Lyon, at the battle of Wilson's Creek, foots up as follows: Killed, 223; wounded, 721; missing, 291; total, 1231. A large number of the "missing" were taken prisoners, some of whom have escaped, and others were released on parole. The loss of 944 men in killed and wounded, out of an effective force of 5,800 men, shows the desperate character of the contest.

FORTY-SIX ILLINOIS REGIMENTS ACCEPTED.—The War Department has accepted over forty regiments from the State of Illinois since the President made his call. More than half of these are now in the field, and the others, excepting two or three regiments, are ready to move forward. Two hundred and fifty lake sailors were also enlisted in Chicago for the navy, and have been sent on to New York.

MORE SECESSION PAPERS IN DANGER.—Allentown, Pa., Aug. 22d.—The Sheriff has called out a posse to protect the offices of the Democrat and Republikaner, their proprietors anticipating an attack. There is much excitement. All classes entertain a strong feeling of resentment against the papers.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Aug. 23.

The Government has reliable information that a quarrel has broken out among the leading traitors of the rebel States, that promises to be as disastrous to them as was the Bull Run affair to us. The belligerents are Toombs and the Virginians and North Carolinians on the one side, and Davis, Wigfall and the extremists of South Carolina on the other. The complaint among the disaffected is, that Davis is making rather fast to the legitimate results of treason, the abnegation of State and individual rights.

The Governor of Georgia, you recollect protested, against some acts of President Davis, and it is here understood that in doing so he acted in concert with the malcontents at Richmond. The quarrel between these parties has already reached the extent that the disaffected do not hesitate to openly denounce Davis in the streets and public places in Richmond.

The near approach of the time for choosing a permanent President is probably the cause of this outburst, and it is supposed the coming canvass for the successorship will be as embittered as any Presidential contest under the old Government. Strangely enough, South Carolina, that has always been so clamorous for State Rights, is now the firmest for a consolidated Government; but the Virginia politicians are true to the principles of '98.

THE REBEL STAMPEDE.

It has been ascertained that the late withdrawal of rebel troops back to Centreville was in reality a stampede of eleven regiments, run for the rear as fast as they could go, and until daylight revealed to them the fact that there were no Union troops following. They had been impressed for two or three days that they were to be attacked, and hearing some firing of pickets in the front on Monday night, the main bodies at Vienna and at Fairfax Court House scampered away in hot haste to Germantown, at which point the roads from the two places come together, and coming together, both corps conjectured themselves being flanked, and sent out flags of truce to arrange terms of surrender.

DISMISSED.

The Secretary of War has dismissed Patrick Jourdon, the principal messenger to the Department. He was a pet of Floyd's and has been suspected of treason, as he was known to entertain strong sympathies for his former chief.

Gen. Scott's Coachman.

The day after the battle of Bull Run, Peter Eganoff, Gen. Scott's coachman, crossed into Virginia to exercise the horse of a member of Gen. Mansfield's staff. He was not heard of afterwards, and it was supposed that he had voluntarily gone to the enemy. A gentleman who arrived yesterday from Richmond, via Aquia Creek, informed Gen. Scott that Eganoff had incautiously but unwittingly gone beyond our lines, and was surprised by the rebel pickets. He at first refused to tell who he was, but at last disclosed his position, and the captors so much elated the rebels that they sent him on to Richmond, where he is now employed cooking for the United States prisoners.

THE REBELS AT HARPER'S FERRY.—Sandy Hook, Md., Monday, Aug. 19th, 1861.—So quietly was the withdrawal of General Banks' main column affected that we in Harper's Ferry knew nothing of it until Sunday morning, when we were astonished by the appearance of one hundred of Henderson's secession cavalry.

Union citizens were again obliged to leave their homes hastily. I had to cross the Potomac about two miles above Harper's Ferry. We found on this side of the river only three companies of the Second Massachusetts Regiment, with their lines extended as far as when the main force was here, which accounts for the delusion we labored under on the other side. The secession cavalry, however, knew the real state of the case.—Cor. Wash. Star.

VALLANDIGHAM REPUDIATED IN HIS OWN DISTRICT.—Sixty-four of the leading democrats in Vallandigham's district, Montgomery county, Ohio, have issued a circular against the "despotic traitorous course of the Vallandigham clique." They say, "it is the mission of the democratic party to give strength and vigor and efficiency to the constitution and government when they are attacked by traitors. In the language of the lamented Douglas 'no man can be a true democrat without being at the same time a loyal patriot, and there are but two positions to assume; we must either be for or against our government—either patriots or traitors.'" They pledge themselves "to unite with all loyal citizens in the defense of the nation, and in rebuking the unpatriotic action of said convention and the Dayton Empire, and in supporting for office in the county of Montgomery men, irrespective of party, who are loyal to the government, by a vigorous prosecution of this war, and who in no contingency are in favor of Secession."

It affords us much satisfaction to state that the country is already responding nobly to the National Loan, guaranteed last week by the Banks of the great Cities of New York, Philadelphia and Boston. No less than eighty applications were filed with the Sub-Treasurer in this city, yesterday and to-day, and in all descriptions of sense, and from nearly every imaginable class of people, from fifty dollars to fifty thousand.—N. Y. Times, Saturday.

Important from Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, August 23, 1861.—Col. Wyman, commanding the forces at Rolla, arrived on tonight's train, and reports the following important facts:

Yesterday, his runners returned and reported that they found 7,000 rebels at Bolivar. At Sedalia there were 600. These were advance guards of McCulloch's army, which is marching as rapidly as possible upon Jefferson City. It is ascertained to a certainty that the State troops (secessionists) are now some 4,000 in number, and are constantly becoming more numerous. They are marching as rapidly as possible upon the Capital, and would have been there and already made an attack, had they had any means to transport their provisions. As it is, they are obliged to approach in divisions and gather a subsistence by each taking different routes and uniting near their point of operation. There is no doubt that a speedy assault upon Jefferson City will take place—within a week at the farthest. A terrible battle will have to be fought in defense of the Capital. The Government is fully aware of the peril, and is using every exertion to provide against the plans of the rebels being successful.

If military men directly from the vicinity may be believed, you may expect to hear stirring news within a few days.

Col. Wyman released all the prisoners taken at Springfield, and gave them five days' rations. When they left, all the Federal soldiers had also been released by the State men, and had arrived at camp. They, however, were turned loose without a crust of food, their captors having none to give them, and being almost starved themselves.

FUGITIVE EAST TENNESSEANS.—We learn from a distinguished citizen of Evansville that, on Monday last, 240 fugitives from East Tennessee, men driven from their homes, were fed in the Seminary yard in that town. Some of them were elderly men and some young, and all had been compelled to abandon their families, and were ill clad, almost barefoot, weary, and hungry. Their situation was indeed deplorable. Several hundred more were expected to arrive yesterday.

The whole of the 240 fugitives enlisted in the United States service at Camp Dick Robinson.—Louisville Journal.

Military Notices.

☞ TO THE HOME GUARDS.—The Committee of Home Defence return thanks to those Home Guards who manifested their readiness to go to Western Virginia to aid two gallant Rosecrans. The Committee have just received information from Governor Pierpoint, who states that for the present it is not necessary to avail himself of the aid of the Home Guards, and expresses his thanks for their patriotism. The Committee would recommend the companies to keep up regular drill in their armories, so as to be ready to act with promptness and efficiency if the vicissitudes of the war should require them to leave their homes.

☞ ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!—W. Smith is now organizing a company for three years or the war, to be named the PENNA INFANTRY. He has made arrangements through private means, to provide uniforms for the members, in the city, as soon as mustered in. This will prevent any possible delay in getting the uniforms. The company will not be moved out of the city until the required number of men is obtained, but when mustered in will receive pay and rations from that time. The men here will be entitled to all the privileges of other volunteer companies as to appropriations, and $12.00 per month, and $100 at the expiration of enlistment.

Office, Smith's old brick house near Fifth. au22tf

Wants.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY, 850 able-bodied men, between the ages of 18 and 35, not less than five feet four and a half inches in height, to enter the Third Regiment U. S. Cavalry. Each man will be furnished with a good horse and full equipments, ample clothing and subsistence of the best quality. The pay ranges from $14 to $22 per month, according to the rank of the soldier. No minor will be enlisted without the written consent of parent, guardian or master. By an act lately passed, the term of enlistment is altered to THREE YEARS, and every soldier who serves that time is entitled to 160 acres of land and $100 bounty from the United States. Attention is called to the fact that the government has wisely commenced to promote soldiers and non-commissioned officers from the ranks. Advancement is therefore open to all who enlist. $2 Bounty will be paid to any citizen, non-commissioned officer or soldier who presents an accepted recruit. All men to the number of 85, will be enlisted for the Company of

HEWELL H. BROWN,
First Lieutenant Third Cavalry,
Recruiting Officer.

DITHRIDGE'S XX FLINT GLASS
OVAL CARBON OIL
LAMP CHIMNEYS,

THE BEST THAT HAVE EVER yet been offered to the public. They are the best for the following reasons:

1. Because, being of an oval shape, the glass is everywhere equally distant from the flame, so that the draft is stronger and more regular.

2. The oval shape is better adapted to resist the effect of sudden expansion, so that it is impossible to crack them.

3. The glass is made largely of Lead and Pearlash, giving a great degree of strength and elasticity. The chimneys which honest report have bound to be so brittle as to crack even when not in use, are invariably made of Lime Glass instead of the Flint Glass, of which ours are manufactured.

4. But the greatest advantage of these Chimneys is that when you have one it will last forever, and if any housekeeper breaks one by the heat of the lamp, let her call at the Manufactory and we will replace her cracked chimney by a dozen whole ones. This profiter does not include accidents or cases of breakage where the chimney has, through inexperience, been screwed so closely to the lamp as to prevent its expansion when heated.

Manufacturers and consumers of Carbon Oil, who have felt the magnitude of the obstacle, which has existed in the great expense of chimneys, in the way of the universal use of the oil, have found a remedy in the Oval XX Flint Glass Chimneys, which has materially lessened the cost of Carbon Oil light to those who use them, and increased the consumption of oil consequent upon the lessened expense for chimneys.

For sale by J. G. Hitchcock, G. Thomas & Co., Rogers & Nesbit, F. Hayden, Lenoxo Oil Co., Welden & Kennedy, W. Ogden & Co., W. P. Wooldridge, W. M. Murray, or at the Manufactory, Washington street near Pennsylvania avenue.
