

TUESDAY MORNING, AUG. 27, 1861.

Two Virginia Arrested.

George Miles, of Petersburg, Virginia, and John Garrett, Gulliford of Richmond, collecting agents of tobacco bonds in Virginia, were arrested in this city this morning by the detective police, and sent to Fort Lafayette for confinement, by order of Secretary Seward.

Mr. Gulliford, in his captures, and in his shipments of the articles to this city, Philadelphia and Baltimore; The passage of the confederates had impelled him to come north to make collections before the arrival of the rebels, and to allay their apprehensions. He accordingly visited the cities with such success as to obtain about $100,000.

Having a fancy for speculation, he visited Wall street where his friends induced him to invest his money in a stock of tobacco, Virginia, Georgia, and North Carolina. About this time his operations came to the knowledge of the police.

Miles was arrested for James Tamm of Richmond, who had been successful in collecting $150,000. He had also made liberal investments in southern stocks.

Sergeant Young and Officer Wilson undertook the task of arresting these men. They paid a domiciliary visit to the reporters' hotel, where they found Mr. Gulliford, who, when asked, Mr. Miles was found at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

About $170,000 was recovered from the two prisoners, principally in bonds, amounting eight digits. Virginia bonds were sold at $100, and $120, and $140, and $160, and $180, and $200, and $220, and $240, and $260, and $280, and $300, and $320, and $340, and $360, and $380, and $400,
