For the Whiskers and Hair.
The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the Citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now prepared to offer to the American public, this above highly celebrated and world renowned article.
THE STIMULATING ONGUENT is prepared by Dr. C. F. BELLINGHAM, eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating ointment, acting as if by magic upon the roots of the hair, causing a rapid growth. Its natural tendency is to cure all humors of the scalp, it will cure RINGWORM, and cause to spring up in place of the same a fine growth of hair. Applied according to directions, it keeps the hair soft and glossy, keeps it from turning dark, and restores gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, pliable and flexible. The Ointment is put up in handsome metallic boxes, with full directions how to use, and after one week's use they will be sent by express to any part of the country, on receipt of price, $1 per box. VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT
In Steam and Atmospheric Hammers.
LETTERS PATENT were granted on Sept. 4th, 1860, to Thomas Bourn, for a very simple and efficient improvement in Steam and Atmospheric Hammers, whereby the full force of the steam is brought to bear upon the face of the hammer in whatever position it may be required to strike, thus saving a great increase of power which is lost in the old method of striking obliquely. The improvement consists in a novel arrangement of valves, and a peculiar mode of operating them.
The entire management of said improvement is now in the hands of the undersigned, who are ready to grant licenses to manufacture and use the same, on reasonable terms. Address or call on the undersigned, at their office, No. 23 Dearborn street, where parties desiring may see the same in operation, and learn all particulars relative to sale, &c.

Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY
S. RIDDLE & CO.,
PIPE STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.
PITTSBURGH:
SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7, 1861.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6, 1861.

Important from General Rosecrans.

This morning the Government received a telegram from General Rosecrans, announcing information that he was then, with a considerable portion of his command, at a point between Kellowa and Flatwoods, on his way to attack Wise and Floyd, or either of them who might be in the vicinity of Sewerville or Gauley's bridge. His station is from Clarksburg (the terminus) upon the line of the Baltimore, leaving an ample force to protect the Ohest Mountain pass, in Lee's rear.

Gov. Gamble, of Missouri, and General Fremont's Proclamation.

The proclamation of Gen. Fremont is still the subject of much comment. The Governor's declaration, it is not known here that such was to be made. But, nevertheless, there is not one member of the Cabinet who does not approve and sustain the principles declared by General Fremont.

Governor Gamble, of Missouri, is here to remonstrate against the extension of Martial Law over the entire State, and to speak for the restoration of the Provisional Government, of which he is the Chief Executive, but he will be unable to induce any change. The President is determined to induce energy and firmness in commanders by sustaining them in such measures as they may deem necessary to insure success, and he will take no step backward.

Who Hoisted the Flag on Fort Clark.

Commodore Stringham has made a supplementary report, in which he says: "I venture to relate two incidents. The raising of the U. S. flag upon Fort Clark I have mentioned, and that it was a deed of noble daring was apparent to friends and enemies. It was done by a sailor from the Pawnee, one of the few from that vessel out of their ship, their boat having been swamped in landing troops. The 'Minnesotian' put talk of J. De Kraigbaum and his gun-sponge. He accidentally dropped overboard his sponge and instantly jumped after it, grasped it, and, up to the ports, and up and helped it by his comrades. When asked by his officer why he did so rash an act, he replies that he 'did not want his gun to be disgraced.'"

A Significant Contrast.

From the lips of gentlemen who have been in a number of important points in Virginia, I have obtained the following facts, noting them as they were related at the War Department: At Richmond are MARSHALL of troops in four thousand, and they are in a wretched condition, both as regards clothing and rations. Of fresh meat they see very little; rice and bread are the principal articles of sustenance. Many of the men are literally barefooted, and the Government is unable to supply them with shoes. Coffee was selling at thirty cents per pound, and sugar at twenty-five cents, while groceries and provisions generally were enormously high.

Contrasted with the condition of our troops, the result is strikingly significant. Our boys are fed literally on the best in great abundance, and all are well clothed and well paid. In the Confederate army there is great dissatisfaction, while the Federal troops are contented and joyful.

The Treasury Notes—The Patriotic Shoemakers.

The first Treasury Note issued will be to the patriotic Massachusetts shoemaker whose letter, accompanying a remittance of $100, which he tendered to the Government for ten years without interest, was published a few days ago. The amount of the note, which the patriotism on stumps is K. P. Wallace, and he is a resident of Amesbury Mills, Massachusetts. The Secretary of the Treasury has no power to accept tenders of money without interest; or for such a long period; and for this reason a Treasury Note bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent.; payable semi-annually, will be issued to him. Doubtless there are thousands of "patriotic shoemakers" and other mechanics, men of every occupation, who will invest in a similar manner. No savings institution pays so high an interest. Besides, a Treasury Note will always command, at once, the full amount of its face, with whatever interest may have accrued, and within a few months will, without doubt, bear a premium. They can be held as a permanent investment until maturity—three years—and the interest for the whole period may be drawn at that time, or at the option of the holder the notes may be converted, if amounting to $500 in the aggregate, into bonds of 20 years, bearing interest at six per cent.

Payment of Soldiers.

The pay-rolls of the following regiments, in addition to those published yesterday, were put into the hands of several paymasters yesterday and to-day, who will immediately pay the men up to August 31:

New York 2d, 4th, 7th 11th, 24th, 26th, 27th, 29th, 34th; Mozart and Garibaldi Guards, and Anderson's Zouaves; the Maine 2d; New Hampshire 2d; the Massachusetts 2d, 3d, 4th, 7th, 10th and 12th; the Rhode Island 2d and the Battery; the Connecticut 4th; the New Jersey 1st, and the Artillery Company of the 3d; the Pennsylvania 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 23d, 28th, 31st, the Wisconsin 3d, 5th and 6th; the Michigan 2d, 3d and 4th; the Minnesota 1st.

Hon. Joe. Holt and the Administration.

The able and patriotic address delivered by the Hon. Joe. Holt in New York on Tuesday evening, gives great satisfaction here. It sustains, it exchanges tone and hearty indorsement of the administration, will do much to allay discontent which had been fomented by interested parties who had been disappointed in their schemes on the treasury. Mr. Holt will undoubtedly soon be placed in a position where he can more effectively assist the people and the administration, and where his services will be of service to his country. There is some talk of a Major General's commission and a command in Kentucky.

Kentucky and the Union.

The news from Louisville to-night is cheering. The Legislature is found to be more uncompromisingly Union than the most hopeful expected, and it is now almost certain that the State will supply not only her quota of money for the war, but her proportion of men for the field. The Governor, it is said, believing our advices, proposes to stand by the old flag if the Legislature so instructs him, and a row between him and his old secession friends is the consequence. The fact is, Magoffin may be a traitor at heart, but he is not actually a fool, and he has no notion of repeating the rule played so disastrously by Jackson, of Missouri.

From Kentucky and Missouri.

The Hon. Emerson Etheridge brings news from Kentucky and Missouri. Tennesseans make frequent forays into Kentucky, and threaten to overrun the State. The Western part, especially Paducah, is thoroughly Rebel, and Union men are not safe there. Lloyd Tillman, Commandant of Camp Boone, in Southern Tennessee, is Rebel Tennessee, spent a week in Paducah, the lion of the place. The Legislature must cause the speedy arrest of the leading Rebels, or they will force the State into civil war. Cairo and Bird's Point are safe. McCulloch will retreat to Arkansas, and in thirty days Gen. Fremont will be in complete possession of Missouri.

The North Carolina Congressman—Are Union People.

Charles H. Mason, of North Carolina, who arrived in this city to-day, reports that he and five others were elected Representatives to the United States Congress on August 1st, the day appointed by law for holding the election. He says there is a strong Union feeling in that State, and that the Governor is inclined to Unionism.

Rebel Mails Across the Potomac.

Conveying rebels' mails across the Potomac is forever blockaded. Most of the female route agents, whose trips we used to chronicle, are now in jail, and their sisters, operations even. The descriptions of other contraband is also stopped.

The Issue of the New Treasury Notes.

The issue of the demand notes ($50,000,000) is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. About $250,000 per day is drawn out of the Treasury.

From Cairo.

A dispatch from Cairo, dated Sept. 4th, to the Chicago Tribune says: An expedition consisting of three gun boats and the steamer Gen. Graham, with Col. McArthur's regiment seven hundred strong, all under command of Capt. Wagner, was sent down the Mississippi on Monday morning. Col. McArthur's regiment was left opposite Columbus, and the gun boats went down the river as far as Hickman, Ky. The entire expedition returned this afternoon. It exchanged shots with a rebel battery, and a gun boat at Hickman; were fired at from Columbus with small arms, answered with big guns; were also fired at from Chalk Bluffs, Ky. None of our forces injured. So much for Western Kentucky neutrality. Nearly all of the State west of the Tennessee river is enemy.
