The Bogus Democracy In his thrilling speech at Ithaca, N. Y. on Saturday last, the Hon, D. S. Dickinson with just indignation referred to one of the resolutions passed by the olique of politiclans who assembled at Syracuse lately, under the ad captandam name of Democrata We know not that this resolution was their best, or worst, but rather than hunt further to search for what were, perhaps, but little worth finding, we quote this one, which so justly incurred the rebuke of Mr. Dickinson, whose loyalty spurns all alliance with the authors of such treason abetting false hood. The Syracuse clique resolved-"That we hold next in guilt to the faction In arms against the country, the politicians of the North, who, for years, have organized ad sustained a system of agitation tending and intending to alienate the different seclions of the country, and to etir up between 11.7 1 hem an irrepressible conflict; based upon 1. 16
