The Frand and Complicacy Case.
To-day, the case of the Messrs. Frowenfelds and Morgangherus, indicated with Charles M. Neal, for conspiracy and frand, will be called up for trial in the Sepreme Court, before Chief Justice Lowrier The absconding witness, Sylvester Murphy, has not yet returned, and it is not probable that the will be in attendance was grasted justifies the belief that the case will not longer be postponed. The Commonwealth feely admit that it will be a very difficult matter for them to make out a case, without the testimony of Murphy, and what course they will take under the circumstances we are not propaged to say. They will no dount ask for a further continuance, but as we have already intimated, ine Court will doubtless insist upon processing to trial.

Man Killed.—A carter named Michael Heenan, residing in Temperancevitic, was skilled on Saturday, by being thrown over the hill-tide from the Washington in Justice from the Washington pile, on the Institute from

To make it convenient for you to testify your egard for our gallant volunteers, and your ap- choice of delegates to the County Convention thich they have pledged their lives to defend, inating a "Union" ticket. The following named hose whose names are hereto subscribed will gentlemen were chosen in the districts desigake charge of any articles which may be left nated : take charge of any articles which may be left with them, such as mits, socks, fiannel drawers and shirts, and have them forwarded to our different camps, first supplying the regiments composed in whole or in part of men from Allegheny county. We see that the Governor of Alabama called upon every woman in that State to knit a pair of socks for their soldiers. Women of Allegheny county, can you not, will you not, do at least this much? Are not our dearest rights involved in this struggle? Is not our cause that of rightcourness? Will you not, therefore, cheerfully furnish this small token of succuragement to the brave men who have gone forth to fight your battles? We pledge ourselves that faithful distribution will be made of anything you may see proper to entrust to our
