There was, in the minds of some credulous Republicans, an impression that this was enverents solely for the good of the country, free from party bias, and untainted with the management of old political hacks; but the result has shown that they were utterly mistaken. The whole thing has been managed by Benton Korr, Dunn, Barnett; and the other democratic leaders who consort with them, there being sothing, in this respect, to distinguish it from an ordinary Democratic Convention, except the assistance they received from a few fishy camp followers from our side. Wherever it was necessary to carry particular delegates by a resort to the usual democratic trickery, the trickery was not sending.

A glance at the list of delegates will show, to any one familiar with political movements in this county, how successfully these democratic wire-polities have managed to pack the Convention. The ticket sgreed upon by Dunn, Kerr, Barnett & Co. will be nominated, the Convention being a meromachine to register the edicts of the democratic of its party organization. But it did not even do the next best thing, as point in the results of such were really of prine importance.

The "Union" ticket farce is about played out. Many of the Republicans who were invelged into signing the call for the convention are already sick of it. We meet scores of such every.day. They signed the call before the holding of the Republican County Convention, and would new gladly recal their eignatures, if they could. We feel no doubt, now, whatever, of the success of the Republican county ticket. The masses of the Republican county ticket. The masses of the Republican county ticket. The masses of the Republican party are sharp enough to see the cloven foot which the managers of this movement have been laboring seedulously to conceal.

We notice here and there in the list of delegates the name of a Republican whom we are sorry to see in such company. If they are able to see an inch beyond their noses they will have nothing forther to do with it. There is a moderate sprinking of Scoresionists among the delegates. The casual reader will have nothing forther to do with the Convention. Their participation in it will make an ugly record for future use. Our advice to all our Republican friends is to have nothing further to do with it. There is a moderate sprinking of Scoresionists among the delegates. The casual reader will have noticed the name of Mr. Kolkenbock, the editor of the German party who has warned by the U. S. suitoriates on account of his Secessionism, and there are others, whose sympathy with Secessionism is one and unconcealed.
