Selection of the control of the cont was arrested, but he succeeded in getting on he roof, and from that he jumped on the root, and from that he jumped on the root and made his escape.

Jordan was taken before Ald. (Iwston who committed him to prison for a further hearing. He stated to the police that the goode did not belong to him, but to another party, who had purchased them at Columbus, Ohio, and placed them in his house for safe keeping.

Jordan is quite an old may, and is said to have been a Methodist minister at one time. for national gratitude that our present armise. have passed through the most trying leason of the year wonderfully escaping this danger. That there are grander causes for this than the labors of the Commission cannot be doubted, but that, among human agencies, a large share of In this assurance, what contributes that ha hitherto been made to the treasury or the stor-of the Commission is not received back again an fald in value? hitherto been made to the treasury or the store of the Commission is not received back again ten fold in value?

After full and confidential conference with the Secretary of Wer, the Commander of the Army of the Potomec, and the Quartermister General, there is resson to ask with prency for a large increase of the resources of the Commission, especially of that class of its resources upon which it must chiefly draw for the relief of the sick and wounded.

The experience of the Commission has so well acquainted it with the earnest desire of their loyal countrywomen to be allowed to work in the national cause, that it is deemed unnecessary to do more than announce that there is a real and immediate occasion for their best exertions, and to indicate convenient arrangements for the end in view.

It is, therefore, suggested that societies be at once formed in every neighborhood where they are not diready established, and that existing societies, Sewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Societies, Rewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Societies, Societies, Rewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Societies, Rewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Societies, Rewing Societies, Rewing Societies, Reading Clubs, and Societies, Rewing Societies, R The Relief Tax.
