Who is General Stone I I see that some discussion has arisen as to the orders given by General Stone to Colonel Raker. As General Stone's qualifications are thus brought into question, his standing as a caletat the West Point Academy may interest your readers. I have in my possessionall the cade registers for the years 1843-4-5-6-7-8-9-50. I was a pergament resident at the Point in the years 1844-5, when Gen. Stone was a cadet. He entered in 1842, from Masscales. He entered in 1842, from massachusetts, at the age of sixteen years and miss months, and graduated in 1845. He stood seventh in his class at graduating. This is high rank. He was also thirteenth among all the cadets (then 204) on the conduct roll. This also is very good. He is evidently one of the heat men from the
