Wm. Crots, an aged and well-known citizen of Vennago county, died in his buggy a lew-days since, while on his way from berabgrassersek to his residence in Clintonville. He had been subject to sudden attacks of fainting or apoplery, having had one but a few days pre-vious to his death. Mr. Cross was about 78 years of age. He was born in Eastern Penn-sylvania, but had been for over thirty years a citizan of Venango county. He was a man of remarkable energy, and in his day the heaviest operator in the farance business in that part of the State—baving himself erected no less than seven blast furnaces. To the last hour of his life he could not be idle. For many years he was a prominent member of the U.S. Freebyterian Church.
