The News

The news which for two days the telegraph has been bringing-iterating and reiterating the first almost distructed statemants of our successes at Beaufort, South Carolins-may now be accepted as the har in store for a loyal and patriotic people, begua to be rewarded in the dawn of ab era movable basis, by crushing not only the reason to know, had in reserve, a few days alas, only made the unavailing sacrifice the bydra-haaded monster, "SECRESION," but since, about $175,000,000 of the loan of July that relie of the selfish cruelty and barbarism of past ages, HUMAN SLAVERY.

And at length, we have the satisfaction yet been issued. to write that, after long waiting-for the hours of the day of preparation seemed to pass slowly-we see the great campaign against the Southern Rebellion opening supiciously for the national arms. The battle, which has been inevitable for years, change of Treasury notes. Thus, during on to the old effete government of Richmond. Whatever may be said of the propriety of the movement at this time-and there are grave doubte of its wisdom-there is no question that they will be better and more cheaply governed than they have been. They can lop off many excrescences, and late the country that we are not more in institute more_modern and simpler forms. Bsing a homogeneous people, they can legislate more satisfactorily. There will be less clashing of interests than there has been, and the slavery question, that bone grain and other provisions, with flourishof contention, will be moved out of the way, for it will, of course, be a free State. The of gold from California, to say nothing of people will hardly consent that the slight sprinkling of slavery among them, will be permitted to exist as an apple of discord. If they do, their peace is destroyed before it is begun. As a free, independent State.
