the rebei batteries about II o'clock in the morang, when fire was opened upon them. They satied slowly up the Swash Canael, by the mainland whore, and aithough forty-three rounds were fired at them, they all escaped untouched. Most of the shells fired were apparently from rife guns, and struck on the Maryland shore. Manyland shore.

Washington, Nov. 12.—A family letter, received here, dated on the 25th of October, on board the U.S. frigate Santee, off Galveston, confirms the report of the capture of the pirate Santer. The writer says she was caught in her own trap. It seems that the mistock one of the U.S. gun-boats for a merchant vessel and started in pursuit. When the gun-boat had drawn her out far enough, she turned and chased her ashore. Her officers and crew are prisoners on board the U.S. steam frigate Nigara.
