World gives the tollowing sketch of his life: There is reason for believing that the Rebel forces on the Lower Potomac hays been with drawn within a few days, leaving but pickets and small detachments to man their batteries, and, perhaps, one regiment about a mile back of Mathias Point. Many of the camp fire which were visible last week have disappeared. One of the first acts that will andoubtedly pass acri Congress will be a static authorizing the President to confiscate the property held North by Southern rebels. When this goes into operation will not the coatest about the celebrated Chew estate in Philipselphia be effected that we will probably be called no to change the territorial boundaries of Deisware so as to give the little State of Virginia. The furniture in the house lately occupied by Senator Gwin and his (fatility will be expused for sule in a few-days. There will not be as much of a rush to obtain mementon of that distinguished California prisoner as was yesterday manifested by patrictic people to possess something to recall the dead Donglas. At the sale of Judge Donglas' furniture extravagant prices were pand for the most trifling articles. The extensive and expensive stock of wines belonging to Gwin has been questly sent off to New York. What will become of the money resulting from this sale? Capt. Wilkes, the hold and responsibility-assuming Commander of the San Jacinto, who caused a gun to be fired across the howe of the British steamer Trent, brough her to and releved her of Messrs. Mason and Slidell and their Sacretaries, is now about 56 years of age: Consequently, as Jack Runsby would say, he was once younger than he is now. Though every inch a sailor, and not often given to the meiting mood, the blind go ongs succeeded in sending one of his shatts clear through his rough sou wester, which found a lodgment in in houset heat. The bow from which the shaft was sped hung in the eyes of a fair girl, on and straight way the jolly tar fell head over ears in love. He prosecuted his suit with vigor. The girl was a "isss who loved a sailor"—and so smilyd upon him; and consented to become his wife. But the young sailor had a tival in the zon of a respectable tallow-chandler, well-to-do, called Slidell, and young Slidell feeling considerably cut up by being cut out, released to accept the "mitten," hot not having spunk enough to throw down the glove to his rival, contended his content with the glove to his rival, contended his meant to his daughter's marriage with the bold Charlie Wilkes, and insisted upon her giving her hand to young Slidell, which, after many protestations and the outcomary amount of tears and bysteries, she did, and became Mrs. John Slidell.
