PITTSBURGH, MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 25, 1861.

Gen. Anderson recently aspressed to Gor. Andraw his strong desire that a regiment of Massachusetts soldiers might be sent to Ken-tucky. He was sure that no sectional feeling would hinder the men of Massachusetts from receiving a hearty welcome in Henry Clay's Nate

RECONNOISBANCE TO VIENNA.

A reconnoisering and foraging expedition was made to-day by the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th Vermont Regiment; and three squad-rons of cavalry, and three batteries from Gen. Smith's command. They proceeded to a command. They proceeded to ce-overlooking Vissna, but saw traces of the enemy.

The other night General McClellan aston-ished his staff and messengers by giving them a night ride through the different encomp-ments. Ho started at eight ofclock in the evening and did not return to his quarter till four in the morning.
