MEDICAL.

DR. McMUNN'S ELIXIR OF OPIUM.—The perfection of this inestimable preparation is astonishing to mankind. Without deteriorating the medicine virtues of opium, the Elixir is thoroughly purified from all the noxious qualities of the drug. In cases of fractures, burns, scalds, cancerous ulcers, and other painful affections, it will relieve pain and irritation, allay convulsions, spasmodic action, and morbid excitement of body and mind, without causing stricture, costiveness, or headache. These intolerable qualities must render it pre-eminent in the list of opiates.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 30, 1861.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27, 1861.

A REGIMENT OF BEAVERS.

The Washington Republican has news from Winchester, Virginia, stating that Jackson, one of the rebel Generals, is drilling a regiment composed wholly of slaves, in that city, and that the negroes are to be made to fight against the Federal troops.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE.

I visited all the principal divisions of the army "over the river" yesterday, and passed a number of hours in examining the condition of the Pennsylvania Reserve. The largest portion of this Reserve are in the immediate vicinity of Langley, and the whole division of the army, which includes the twelve regiments of the Reserve, is in and around the suburbs of that village.

A GOOD STATE OF FEELING.

There is evidently pervading all branches of the Government a far more hopeful feeling concerning a successful result of the present conflict, than heretofore, and this is exhibited in conversation and otherwise. While it is believed the British press will be as earnest as our own in discussing the circumstances attending the arrest of Slidell and Mason, no fears are apprehended that the question will be productive of serious embarrassment to the two countries.

BRECKINRIDGE AND HUNTER AS REBEL ENVOYS.

It is currently stated and believed among the Washington secessionists, that John C. Breckinridge and R. M. T. Hunter have already been selected by Jeff. Davis' Government to go abroad as Ambassadors in place of Slidell and Mason, and that they are intending to secretly cross our lines into Canada and sail from Quebec or Halifax. They may fail as signally as did their predecessors.

GEN. BANKS CONSULTING GEN. M'CLELLAN.

Major General Banks arrived in the city this afternoon, and this evening has been in consultation with Gen. McClellan.

ANOTHER CONSULTATION.

Gen. McClellan, Assistant Secretary Fox, and Commodore Goldsborough had a protracted interview to-day.

THE REBELS STRENGTHENING THEIR LEFT.

The rebels are strengthening their forces on the right of our lines, opposite Gens. McCall's and Smith's divisions. There are no indications of their falling back at any point in front of our forces.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

Mr. Joseph E. Devitt, of Philadelphia, came down from Poolesville this morning. He has been spending some days among the regiments encamped in the vicinity. The different Pennsylvania regiments are in a high state of discipline. It is seldom that they receive the Philadelphia papers. There is some talk of sending them into winter quarters at Frederick, some eighteen miles distant from their present encampments. The change would be very conducive to their health.

THE ARMAMENT OF THE NIAGARA.

The armament of the Niagara, which rebel accounts state was compelled to haul off at Pensacola on account of damage sustained, consists of twelve 11-inch shell guns, which are always proved themselves so destructive in an engagement, besides several rifled 32-pounders. The Colorado carries the same armament as the Wabash, twenty-eight 9-inch and fourteen 8-inch shell guns.

GEN. BANKS' DIVISION.

A gentleman who came down this morning from Maddy Branch, reports all quiet at Gen. Banks' division. The soldiers were making the necessary preparations to go into winter quarters. They are in expectation of orders to that effect.

LOYALTY OF THE INDIANS.

The Report of the Superintendent of Indian Affairs will show that the red men are, as a body, loyal to the Union, and that the rebels have influenced only a few of the more Southern tribes and the half-breeds. The question of employing Indians in the war may be incidentally discussed.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF PENSACOLA.

Major Cannon, who brought from Fort Monroe the news of the bombardment of Pensacola, in conversation with passengers by the flag of truce, elicited the important fact that there was nothing in the dispatches from the South which made Norfolk and Richmond jubilant.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVES.

Gen. Wool does not call the fugitive slaves, who are flocking to his lines, "contrabands," or "property," but "vagrants," whom he, as representative of the Government, is called upon to feed, clothe and employ.

THE SUTLERS IN THE ARMY.

Senator Wilson has determined to introduce a bill immediately on the opening of Congress, to abolish the office of Sutler in the Army. He has been impelled to this by reason of the extortions and abuses practised upon the soldiers. In spite of the legal restriction against selling to soldiers to an amount exceeding one-third of their pay, it often occurs that the Sutler presents an order on the Paymaster for three-quarters of the amount due the soldier, while one-half thus taken is too common to excite remark. The prices, too, are exorbitant, the profits often being from 2 to 300 per cent., and the quality of the articles furnished as bad as will be tolerated. Liquor, too, is often clandestinely furnished. The pastry and other articles of food furnished have been found to cause sickness. It is known that in very many cases the Colonels of regiments are partners of the sutlers, the profits being so large that men are often unable to get the appointment upon any other terms. The profits of a sutler for a full regiment are from $6,000 to $12,000 a year.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The approaching meeting of Congress is daily bringing hundreds of people into the city, who have put off their visits until that time. The consequence is that the most extravagant prices are charged for rooms and board by private families. Rooms which could be rented for $20 per month after the battle of Bull Run, you now have to pay $60 or $70, and board which you could then obtain at one dollar per day, you now have to pay two for. The hotel charges have raised accordingly.

Much anxiety is expressed by a number of families in regard to the pay of the volunteers who are captured by the rebels. Secretary Cameron will probably recommend some new regulation to Congress in his report.

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.

The Managers of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad obtained a hearing from a portion of the Cabinet this evening upon their claims on the Government. What these are is not publicly known. It is suspected that they foreshadow the rebuilding and restocking of the line. The public will not forget, if the Managers do, that on the 19th day of April last the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, under its Secession management, sent this notice by telegraph to the Pennsylvania Central Railroad:

"No more Northern troops will be carried over our road."

A HERALD STOCK JOB.

The monstrous stock-jobbing statement in the Herald's Washington dispatch of yesterday, that Congress would be called upon for appropriations amounting to one thousand and sixty millions of dollars for the next fiscal year, is, of course, utterly false. We are authorized from the highest quarter to contradict this most reprehensible fiction. Not one-half of the sum named will be needed by the Departments in waging the war at home, and maintaining our present relations abroad.

FORT PICKENS—GEN. BROWN'S INSTRUCTIONS.

The recent instructions given to Gen. Brown, in command of Fort Pickens, were to open upon the rebel works as soon as he felt he could do so with a certainty of success, or in case any exigency should arise which required that an attack be made. He was instructed also to repel any attack upon Fort Pickens.

MRS. LINCOLN AT THE REVIEWS.

To-morrow Mrs. Lincoln will attend the review of the Sickles Brigade. Yesterday, accompanied by the Chevalier Wykhoff, she witnessed the afternoon drill of the U. S. Chasseurs.

STATEMENTS OF A DESERTER.

Two days since a deserter from an Alabama regiment reached our lines. He has been stationed at Union Mills, where the Orange and Alexandria railroad crosses Bull Run. He states that nearly all the rebel forces are distributed between Union Mills and Centreville, between which points they have about sixty thousand men. The Fifth, Sixth and Twelfth Alabama, and Twelfth Mississippi, which form Gen. Ewell's Brigade, are stationed at Union Mills. Below Union Mills they have no force for about eight miles, where, at Bacon Ridge Church, they have a strong force with the Washington Artillery. Earthworks, some quite strong, have been thrown up from a point a mile east of Union Mills; also at the Mills, and thence north, in the direction of Centreville. The one at Union Mills had nine guns of small calibre mounted in it, but some had none. The approaches to Union Mills had been obstructed by felling trees across the road to Sangsters' Station. At Manassas there was only a regiment or two doing garrison duty. He states that there are no camps east of Centreville and Union Mills; that the pickets only go as far east as Sangster's and withdrawn at night; that in Orvell's Brigade the men have made their Winter quarters; that they expect to be attacked, if at all, in front of their lines, and if driven out they will fall back to their works at Manassas. The railroad bridge across Bull Run, above Union Mills, had been washed away by a freshet, and the carscould only run from Manassas to the right bank of the Run. The railroad track from Sangster's Station west had been torn up and removed.

MORE CONTRABANDS—PLANS OF THE REBELS.

Two intelligent contrabands, who were the house servants of Lawyer Murray and Dr. Baker, of Fairfax Court-house, came within the lines of Gen. Wadsworth, to-day. They report that the houses of these persons were a kind of Headquarters of rebel officers, and from the conversation they had heard, the rebels do not design to advance, but will act on the defensive, that a desperate resistance will be made both at Centreville and Manassas, and that the occupation of Fairfax Court-house is something by the National forces would be no inducement for the rebels to engage our troops.

REBEL DESERTERS.

Deserters from the rebels are growing more numerous at Fortress Monroe and on the Potomac. Marylanders, particularly, are flocking home.

Religious Movement in the Army.

The large number of church members in the army has induced the chaplains of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps to organize a religious association, upon a basis liberal enough to embrace Christians of all denominations.

The following is the official report of the association, which will be read with interest:

The following has been adopted by the chaplains of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, at a meeting on the 25th of November, as a basis for a church organization in their respective regiments. The chaplains represent different denominations of Christians:

CREED.—"I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried: He descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead: He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the commun
