Republican City Nominations. In the harry incident to getting out the President's message, yesterday, we did not have time to editorially notice the result of the late City Convention. The Convention has placed in nomination good men for the several offices. B. C. Sawres Jr., the nominee for Mayor, is well known to all our citisens, and will make an excellent officer. Mr. McCargo the candidate for Controller, has been a men ber of the Sciect Council for several years and has been an active and variable memoer of the Figure Committee, and is fully conversant with the city affairs. The candidate for Treasurer, Mr. Etchbaun, is so well and fa-vorably known that it is useriess to say any thing about him, as his past official career is a sufficient guarrantee for the future.

The rat had been propped up some distance from the ground, and the supports gave way while Sayder was underneath it. His spine was broken, and his lower extremities completely paralyzed. The unfortunate man has large family dependent upon him for support, and his wife is an invalid. On motion of air. Vestainingnam, of One, a resolution was adopted requesting the President to communicate to the House, if not incompatible with the public interests, copies of any communications addressed to the Executive by the governments of England, Spain and France, in regard to the armed intervention proposed by them in the affairs of Mexico, and any other information he may have to communicate.

udiciary:
-Whereas, The exchange of prisoners in the WHEREAS, The exchange of prisoners in the present war has already been practiced indirectly, and as such an exchange would not only increase the highest interests of humanity, and as such an exchange does not involve the recognition of the rebels as a government; therefore, be it—

Mr. Holman, of Ind., introduced a presemble restorating the sentiments contained in the Crittenden resolutions; adopted at the last session, in effect that the war was forced upon us by the disministic, and that the only object of carrying it on by the United States is to re-establish deedlenes to the Constitution abilithe Union. These objects accomplished, the war should coase, etc. The proposition

Washington, Dec. 4.—The Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, and its officers, paid their respects to the President, at the Executive mansion, on Monday last.

Martin S. Harris, of N. Y., appointed Acting Master in the Navy, on temporary service, and Eli Brown, of Marblehead, Mass., and Robert Simms, of N. Y., who were appointed Acting Masters' Mates, have deserted, after drawing two months' advance pay.

Numerous applications for appointments as suttlers have been made to the War Department, which has no power to appoint them. The following is the law on the subject, as contained in the revised army regulations: "Trops in a campaign or detachment, or on distant service, will be allowed suttlers at the rate of one for every regiment, corps, or separate detachment, to be appointed by the commanding officer of each regiment, corps, or detachment, dipon the recommendation of the Connell of Administration, subject to the approval of the General or other officer in command."

Mr. Hutchins, of Ohio, introduced a joint resolution concerning the rebellion. Its consideration was postponed.

Adopted.

Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, introduced a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to ascertain what change, if sny, is necessary in the mode of payment of soldiers who are held as prisoners of war.

Mr. Cos; of Ohio, introduced the following, which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

think, a brother-in-law or near connection of the Hon. James H. Lien, of Kanisas, himself also an original and progressive leader in the present struggle, on the side of the Republic.

Those who know General Bueli well compare him to the departed Lyon, who perished under such melancholy circumstances at Springfield, Miscouri. His career in Mexico was brilliant beyond parallel; and this, as well as the fact that he had in him "the conscience of the fight," induced the President to promote him first to a brigadier, and then to a major generaliship; and, afterwards, at the request of General Sherman, to call him to the command of the Kentucky and Tennessee military district. He does not know fear; he is cool, contemplative, and full of resources. This is the man who, unless all the auguries deceive me, will soon strike a fearful blow at the treasonable nests in Kentucky and Tennessee. He has now, or shortly will have, one hundred thousand choice troops in his command—among them from five to eight thousand Pennsylvanisms. Heccart advices from Kentucky inspire me with the belief that if he can get at the traitor Buckner, near Bowling Green, he will completely annihilated him, and when this rebel force, which is the most effective in the North-western States, is deadestroyed, Buell will take up the line of march for Nashville. Thus as L have despatched you to-day, the cry will be changed from 'On constitute to constitute to constitute the can get at the very will be changed from 'On to Richmond' to "On to Nashville."
