Str. for printing, for 1861, read and payment ordered.

A large number of bills on account of Water Works, Streets, etc., were ordered to be paid. The Street Committee reported to Concilis that the case of the appeal of the city of Alleghany, in the Tassey Lettale, was successful in the Supreme Court, by reason of which the city has saved grading and paving claims amounting to hearity $300 against that estate, and an important principle established in regard to the lien of grading and paving improvement, very much to the advantage of the city. By virtue of that decision, paving liens and sall other city rates, levies, taxes and assessments, are to be paid prior to any other incumbrance, no matter how old; and the lien of paving claims remains after sale of property, for so much as the proceeds of rale wore insufficient to satisfy. This decision makes good city claims to a large amount. Report accepted and ordered (a be filed.

Mr. Grimes, of Iowa, moved to take up the resolution to investigate the case of Colonel Miles. He said that the Court of Inquiry found that Colenel-Miles was intoxicated to a certain extent, enough to justify Golonel Richardson to apply the epithet to him, but not enough to remove him from his command. He wanted all the facts of the case to go to the people. The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Trambull, of Ill., introduced his bill for confiscating the property and giving freedom to the slaves of the rebell. He said the bill provides for the absolute and complete forfeiture forever to the United States, or or over species-of property, real or porsonal whenever situated within the United States, belonging to persons beyond the privaidories of the United States, or beyond the resolution, who, during its resistance, shall take up arms against the United States, or in anywise aid or abset the rebellion. This forfeiture to be enforced against property in the rebellion, who, during its resistance, when the property of cachindrical asset the rough the rebellion of the United States, or in anywise aid or abset the rebellion. This for feiture be enforced against property in the rebellion, and to defray the power, and depressed to the property of cachindrical days for the property of cachindrical days for feiture be entired by the rebellion of the United States, or in anywise aid or abset the rebellion of the United States, or in anywise aid or abset the rebellion. This for future beginning to property and property and expenses incurred in its suppression. The bill also forfeits the claims of all rebols, and those who give aid and comfort to the persons they hold in slavory, declares the slaves thus forfeited free, and makes it the duty of the President to provide for the colonization of such as may be willing to go to some tropical country, where they may have the protection of the government, and be secured in all the rights and privileges of men. The property belonging to traitors, or those giving them aid or comfort, who may be convicted by judicial tribunals to be ferfeited on their conviction—the real estate for life, and the personal property forever. Mr. Trumbull argued at some length in support of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be printed, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.
Mr. Clark, of N. H., gave notice that he should offer an amendment to the Fagitive Slave Bill.

The Senate then went into executive session, and subsequently adjourned until Monday.
