Massr. Editors:—As the period for selecting the municipal officers for the borough of Manchester is approaching. I desire to call the attention of voters and har payers to a matter of grave importance. It is generally conceded, I believe, that the number of mile assessed on the property in this place for different purposes, exceeds that of any other district in Allegheny county. Without water, (seve what some of her citizens get by special arrangement, gradgingly from 'Allegheny,' with but one or two payed streets in the borough which were paid for by the property holders, and then given away to the atree railroad company; entirely destinate of any efficient police force; in abort, without any cirrosponding advantages, the property of Manchester is sursed with a burthen of taxation, which is dwarfing its growth, and acting as an incubes more har energies.
