DE. CH. J. C. KLINE.

PENNOCK-On Thursday morn 19th, Mr. SAMUEL L. PENNOCK,

They were all recruited in the eastern part of the State, are fully equipped, and taken all in all, present decidedly the best physique of any regiment which has yet passed through here. The remaining company will reach any regiment white his jos person ill reach hare. The remaining company will reach hare perhaps to day. The officers are—Colonel, George C. Wyn-Koop; Lieut. Colonel, Wm. B. Sipes; Majors, John E. Wynkoop, James Seibert and Giren; Adjutant, — Mason; Surgeon, A. M. Speer; Assistant Surgeon, J. L. Shark; Quartermaster, — Ricketts; Chaplain, Rev. Drake. Trake. The Surgeon is a young Pittaburgh-for and we believe the only representive of our city in the regiment.

The regiment was received in a most hospi-table manner by the Subsistence Committee to who had prepared for them a substantial re-past at the City Hall. Ton tables were spread, the minimum of the hall, and at these divers hundred hungry men were fod at one time? Some four hundred loaves of frast table divers the first state of the loaves of the bread were consumed, with hot coffee by the hundred gallons, and butter, creckers, sams-ges, &c., in proportion.
A large number of ladies was present, and through their care and attention the supper the soldiers and behaved the genter man at ality soldiers and behaved. The man at like soldiers and behaved the laddes!

ide of Green river; ours occupy his bank, and have been fring ton each other, but no one, up to that date, had been hurt. There is "big talk" about taking Christmas dinner in Nashville, but the writer seems to think that Nashville, is to far and Christmas ton near to Ladies ! . Supper being over, the companies marched to the leves, where they were quartered on the steamers chartered to convey them to " the dark and bloody ground." They are under orders to leave on Saturday, for Louisville... Nashville is too far and Christmas too near meet both at once.
