regiment, which reply. Yet, away to the left of, the line amid the bursting of bombs, the din and roar of artillery, thoy called out--"For God's aske don't fire we are your friends," which was reported to the Colonel. He rode in the rear of the line begging the men not to fire into the "Buck Tails," though the shot was flying thick has had on our left. boys were failing on our right and on our left. Yet, regardless of all orders, thero was firing all slong the line, and fically the Colonel could no longer be heard and all loaded and fired as fast as we could for half an hour. Their firing being too low curiey, the balls striking the ground, and nearly all the wounded were boot in the legs. I saw bot two shot in the body, one named Stockdale, of the Meadville company, foll close by me, shot is the head in the groin, and Capt. Robt. Galway, compa-py D, is the krace, both fiesh wounds, and are getting well. <text><text><text><text><text>

Intridary, the 12th Inst., having been one of some three hundred prisoners who were con-fined in the City Jail, which was burned during the inte confagration--the" prisoners making their escape by jumping from a small window --the only one which was not barred. Mr. Hurd was shot through both legs at Bull Run, and also wounded in the side. He was taken to Manasas, where his wounds were dressed by a robel surgeon, named McWilliams, from Maryland. They were afterwards removed to Richmond, and confaed in Edwards' to-bacco warehouse, from which they were taken
