Projected Telegraph Enterprises.

MONTELL, Dec. 27.—Mo decision has yet been made by the authorities as to building a military tolegraph line to Queboc. The existing telegraph company of Canada seriously contemplate extending their lines some 200 milies to Cape St. Rosier, on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, via Campbelltown, at the head of the Bay of Chalons. If this enterprise is carried out, the news by the Canadian line of stamers will be received at least one day sooner than by way of Farther Point. Should the line be extended to Cape Rosier, it is expected that the steamers to and from Queboc will make that part of their route next season.

Honorables and the military filled the house, and reporters were shut out. Now came the tug of war. One reporters effort's alone I will give as a sample, selecting the victor in the case. Having failed in all other efforts to get in he brassed it up to Gen. McClellan and asked a pass. This was ridiculous of course, as it was neither McClellan's house nor funeral, and reporter was snubbed. Off he goes to Gen. Marry, Chief of McClallan's staff, and was as cavalierly treated as he deserved. Round the house he goes, and, finding the omnipresent contraband, gives him a dollar to shoot him down the scuttle hole, when round through larder and lobby he creeps to the chief of internals as in, and was car-alierly treated as he deserved.
