SOLDIER KILLED.—On Saturday last, J. W. Congdon, a private in Company A, Porter Guards, was instantly killed whilst standing upon the platform of the cars, on the Frank-lin Railroad, as the noon train was pessing over the Rook Creek Bridge, near Chambersburg. He, with several others, had been left behind on account of illness, and had so far recovered as to be able to rejoin his regiment. Coming in sight of the camp, and sasing a number of his comrades in the distance, he stepped upon the platform, and was in the act of expressing his joy by waving his hat, when his head struck the timbers of the bridge.
