Arrests for Passing Counterfeit On Saturday evening, officers Long and Bowdan arrested a man named Emus Murray, charged with passing a new counterfeit five dollar bill on the Blue Hill Bank, Massachu-setta. He entered the millinery store of Mrs. 8. Grubbs, and offered the bill in payment for

S. Grubbe, and offered the bill in payment for a head dress. The note was regarded as ana-picious, and was sent to the store of J. M. Carr for inspection. It was pronounced a counterfeit, and Mr. Carr displication of the store of "Armand." lenger for an officer. When Murray was taken

nto custody he stated that he had received senger totat of back. We had hadragy was taken into eustody he state that he had received the note from Josoph Knively, who asked him r to purchase a head dress for his (Knively's) wild. Knively was standing i outside the door at the time, and made of when the officers appeared. Murray is employed at a saw mill in Daquesne borough; and occupies a portion of the house 1 a which Knively renides. These facts were subsequently ascertained, and on Sunday moraing officer Boyened. Murray (a state Murray for dollars, and hand him the bill on Saturday, thinking it was good. He de-nied having asked Murray to buy a head dress, and than the stories of the accused were not consistent. It seems that Knively had remained all night in the house, without asy." ing a word to Mrs. Murray about, her hus-band's arrest; and his conduct was very sin-gates if they were innocent of an sitempt to pass a sparious bill. Murray gave ball for a hearing at the same time.
