"Copies of the London-Americas, brought over by the steamer, have been passing about the House and have been very eagerly read. They contain a letter written by Thomas Wil-liams, of Pittsburgh, to Captain Schenley, of the English army. It has been very generally i read and commanded high encomiums for the remarkable clearners of style and the force of its statements. It is a remuie of the history I of the leading events, both military and civil, it which have occurred since the hereking out of the which have occurred since the breaking out of the rebellion up to just before the meeting of Congress. He was most heartily congratula-ted upon all sides by his fellow members of the House."
