The election for Colonel of the "Bucktails," to serve in place of Charles J. Biddle, who resigned to assume his place in Congress, is ordered for Wednesday. There is some excitement in the regiment as to the result. The candidates, so far as I have been able to learn, are the present Lieutenant Colonel Thomas L. Kane and Captain McNeal, of the same regiment. But little doubt exists of Colonel Kane's spectfor.

General Sumner, commanding a division of the army in Virginia, who was recently injured by the stambling of his horse, has sufficiently recovered to resume his duties during the couning week.
