by their prayors and contributions in this cause. Lotters were also read from the Chaptains of Col. Black's and Col. Hays' regiments. Dr. Reed, of the former regiment, speaks very encouragingly of the spiritual condition of the men under his charge. - He says that twelve prayor meetings are hold weekly bo-sides regimental preaching on the Sabbath. He says that the men are well provided for by the Government with everything in the way of clothing and eatables, and that the only thing they lack is reading matter. The Chaplain of Col. Hays' regiment also speaks very favorably of the morality of this regiment, and states that prayer-meetings are well attended, and of frequent centre.
