River News.

The river was receding slowly yesterday, with little fear by the marks last evening. The weather was cloudy and mild, with a drizzling rain falling at times. There is still some floating ice in the Allegheny, but it is thin and scattered and will not impede navigation on the Ohio.....There was but little business transacted at the wharf, both the receipts and shipments being limited. The news of the capture of Fort Donelson created much rejoicing among our steamboatmen. All the steamers at the wharf run up their colors, which was followed by an almost instantaneous ringing of bells, attracting large crowds of citizens to the levee. The arrival of the mail last night was announced by the Fort from Portsmouth and Emma Graham from Zanesville. The Marengo was reported aground at "Glass House," yesterday afternoon, but it was expected that she would be able to get in during the night. The Diadem was sticking between here and Beaver, and the Ida May is laid up at Wellsville waiting for more water.....The Wheeling boat was the only departure for below.....A dispatch was forwarded to Secretary Stanton, yesterday, stating that if he desired, twenty-five or thirty steamboats could be placed at his disposal on twelve hours' notice. The number could be greatly augmented in a few days if necessary.....The Princess Pomeroy and Bostonia are loading at St. Louis for Pittsburgh.

And whatever has seemed likely to administer to the comfort of its guests they have endeavored, without regard to cost, to provide, and to combine all the elements of individual and social enjoyment which modern art has invented and modern taste approved; and the patronage which it has commanded during the past six years is a gratifying proof that their efforts have been appreciated.

To meet the exigencies of the times, when all are required to practice the most rigid economy, the undersigned have REDUCED THE PRICE OF BOARD TO TWO DOLLARS PER DAY, at the same time abating none of the luxuries with which their table has hitherto been supplied.
