Theodore McClure ate breakfast heartily, and at eleven o'clock had a severe headache, but did not quit work. After eating dinner, however, he became very sick, vomiting violently. Agese Crock told the landlord, next door, after the poisoning, that Connor had threatened to destroy the house.

Mr. Graham was re-called and testified that on one occasion Connor had read to him a paper, stating that, at such a time, his wife had left his house, and had remained at a certain place all night with another man. On another locossion he heard Mrs. Connor wrangling with him, and say—"You are a

The Corruption Committee A Harrisburg correspondent, writing under date of the 25th inst., says:

date of the 25th inst., says:

The Tonnage Tax Investigating Committee was in session this morning. The Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company appeared before it in obedience to the summons, with the exception of the President. MrcThomson, who sent a satisfactory axques for his absence. The proceedings of the Committee were of course secret; but I learn that a those Directors who are on certain committees were retained for examination, and the balance discharged. The examination, and these Directors will show whether the Company was cognizant of the use of corrupt or many was cognizant of the use of corrupt or improper means to procure the repeat of the tonnage tax; and if it should be satisfactorily established that it was not, then the Company in its organized capacity, must be relieved of projudice.

NEEDS ATTENTION.—Pedestrians along South Avenue, in the First Ward, Allegheny, complain that ropes and chains; from rafts in the river, have been stretched over the sidewalk, and fastened to the fonces and frees on wais, and issued to the inners are pivate property. In some cases the ropes are six inches of the pavement, endangering the lives and limbs of those who pass there at might. Will the Street Commissioner have the obstruction removed? DIED:
