

Pittsburgh Gazette

SAURDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1862.

The New Plan of the Rebels.

The Richmond Register, in its multiple copies of the Confederate Government... On the day the new Government was inaugurated, this paper put forth the following special article...

The Military Order - The Cause of it, and What it was.

The New York Evening Post, whose character gives weight to its statements, makes the following remarks on Mr. Stanton's late order...

At Greenville, Miss., four negroes and one white man were captured...

At Greenville, Miss., four negroes and one white man were captured... The boys gave three cheers for the Union as it was, and the Union as it will be...

Secretary Stanton's order, placing the telegraph under a certain degree of censorship...

Secretary Stanton's order, placing the telegraph under a certain degree of censorship... We repeat, though these reverses are depressing, they have had a good effect on the vitality of the southern confederacy...
