River News.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with nine feet six inches by the marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, contrasting strangely with the day previous. The sun shone brightly all day, and the result is that the snow has almost entirely disappeared. There is still a little floating ice in the Allegheny, but not enough to interfere with navigation in the least.

There was a perceptible improvement in business at the wharf; the receipts being unusually large, while shipments were more liberal. The Minerva from Wheeling, Iowa from Paducah, and Prima Donna from St. Louis, arrived. The latter boat had an excellent cargo, having upwards of six hundred tons. The Iowa also had a good trip, including 5,000 bags of wheat.

The Dacotah from St. Louis, Undine from Gallipolis, and Lizzie Martin from Zanesville, are due this morning. The two latter boats return as usual on Saturday at 4 p. m. The Com. Perry for Louisville got off yesterday afternoon with a good trip. The Prima Donna was preparing to leave for St. Louis last evening, lying light.

The St. Louis News of Monday says:

There are several boats loading for Nashville with stores, &c., for government service at that point. It is also said that several shipments will be made to Clarksville and Nashville by private individuals, who will accompany the goods, and learn what can be done in the way of opening trade with the citizens of that section. The boats seem to be loading principally in bacon, lard and potatoes.

It is not improbable that business will be opened between Pittsburgh and Nashville before long. One of our merchants left for that city on Wednesday, to see what could be accomplished in the way of trade.

FOR ST. LOUIS—The Linden, Capt. Harton, leaves for St. Louis on Saturday without fail.

FOR THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI RIVER—The commodious steamer Fred. Lorenz, Capt. I. R. Mason, will leave for St. Louis and all points on the Upper Mississippi River on Saturday.
