LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, March 6, 1862. The House to-day has performed a feat of heroism in the annals of legislation. In the morning the Appropriation bill was taken up, and passed in three readings all in one day. The Committee of Ways and Means have caused the bill to be printed in a single sheet, and the amendment was passed without the approval of the Committee. A number of attempts were made to amend the bill, or to defeat some of its provisions, but every one was ignominiously rebuffed. Scarcely a dozen of votes could be rallied in support of any one of these amendments. The bill has been so thoroughly amended, that the Committee's report was almost unanimously approved. The amount appropriated to your home institutions, is about as follows:
