TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 18.

The War Only Begun!"

The New York Herdid, good secession authority, gives the following, in a letter is as follows:

The sather, the second of the second in the second i them before they can gain any permanent success in the Southern States. They ridicularly feeling at the South, and say that, the Southern States are united as one man in their determination to achieve their independence, and that their recent reverses will only nerve them to renewed efforts. They may be mistaken, but this view is corroborated by all the intelligent prisoners now at Camp Douglas, who are fresh from the South; and it is certainly not the part of wisdom to ignore it.

The London Times says that 's 'company to the South; and it is certainly not the part of wisdom to ignore it.

The London Times says that if we capture Resolved 1. That in our opinion each of The London Times says that if we capture every city in the South, the war will be no beauty an end. The Times, also, sympathires with secession. The wish is the father to the thought, in the case of both these papers. With the fall of Richmond, Memphis, Charloston, Savannah, Mobile and Now Orleans, the war will be virtually over, the same asit is now over in Missouri, Kentucky and the greater part of Tennessee. The rebels will make a sullen submission, because they cannot help it, and will have to be held mainly as a conquered people, thus imposing a large expense upon the nation, which will soon become tired of footing the bill, when slavery, the cause of footing the bill, when slavery, the cause of formed with regard to this matter, we shall be very glad to make prompt and full correction. If not—and it does not seem strange, when a Scoretary of the Navy gravely argues that a commission of 2½ costs of the papers of defeating such logislation.

Resolved That in viow of the Montgomery, in the State of Alabama.

Resolved That in viow of the hostile long of the weak in formed with regard to this matter, we shall be very glad to make prompt and full correction. If not—and it does not seem strange, when a Secretary of the Navy gravely argues that a commission of 5 per cent. on further cent. Of course, no further can be needed.

If we have be footing the bill, when slavery, the cause of the whole trouble will be abolished, placting the whole trouble will be abolished, placting the whole of that population on the long the whole of that population on the side of the Union, law and order. That will break the neck of rebellion at once.

Resolved, That a Committee be and are hereby appointed, consisting of Messrs. gress to pass prompt and unequivocal judgment on the like transactions already fully before them. Gentlemen, of either House!

How accurately was the plot of these do you justify these commissions? If you do or do not, will you be good enough training the before them.

The Debt We are Piling Up. The New York Christian Advocate co ments on the national debt which this re bellion is creating as follows: They tell us of an expense of nearl seven hundred millions in a year. Can we appreciate such a sum? How little do we know of the distance to the sun? Ninety-five millions of miles! Start a railroad train for such a journey. Let it stop at no planet for wood, water or passengers. Place on it a little infant. The infant be-

Can such Horrible Stories be True! A correspondent of the New York World, who has been visiting the scene of the battle of Bull Run writes as follows:

rope and parts of Asia are paying portions of this supendous cost of victory.

These are only pecuniary items. When we speak of victor tiems. When we speak of victor tiems, becaved households, blighted hopes, life-long mourning, and the-moral blight of camp life, we need God's omniscience to measure the cost of victory. A decided sensation has been created in business circles by the receipt of a telegraphic dispatch from Washington stopping the chartering of vessels for the use of the Government. Many, as is well known, have recently been chartered for the various maritime and coast expeditions still in progress: and the ardies arrest of the various maritime and coast expeditions still in progress; and the sudden arrest of chartering was interpreted by some as indicating a speedy peace. We understand, however, that the real cause of the order was the fact, just ascertained at the War Department, that an agent of the Government—Mr. Russell Sturgis has been named to us as such agent—has been charging persons of whom he chartered vessels five percent commission on the amount of the charter—said per cent to go into his own pocket.
