

Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 20.

CITY AFFAIRS.

MEMORIAL OPERATIONS FOR THE COMET, BY B. R. DAVIS, OF 15 FIFTH STREET, COMMENCED DAILY.

On Tuesday night, between half-past eleven and twelve o'clock, the brewery of Messrs. Beal & Coffey, located on the bank of the canal, in Duquesne borough, caught fire from the malt kiln, and was totally destroyed, together with a large amount of stock, including 30,000 worth of barley, malt, etc., and one hundred barrels of lager beer. The building was one hundred feet in front, on the canal, and everything was left in ruins, excepting an arched vault, containing a number of kegs of beer, which were saved if not for the discovery of the fire by the watchman.

The fire was caused by the burning of the kiln, and the cause of the fire is not yet ascertained. The loss of the firm is estimated at $200,000 and $250,000, which is not covered by insurance in the "Lycoming Mutual." The vessel in the rear of the damaged building was, by the intense heat, damaged by the intense heat, and was destroyed.

Award of the State Printing. On Tuesday last, the Senate, after the adjournment of the House of Representatives, awarded the contract for the public printing of the laws for the year 1858, to the following firm: J. J. Hill & Co., at 25 cents per page for printing, and 10 cents for paper.

How Capt. Heron Was Made Prisoner. In the telegraphic report of the battle of Pea Ridge, the capture of Lieutenant Colonel Heron, of this city, was announced. A detailed account of the capture has since been received, from which we learn that our brave fellow-townsmen killed one of his own men, wounded three others before he was secured.

Another Fatal Railroad Accident. On Thursday last, John Bennett, son of Mr. Bennett, of New Salem, was killed at the Pea Ridge station. He was a member of the 10th Ohio Infantry, and was engaged in the transportation of soldiers from the Pea Ridge station to the front.

Sudden Death. Thomas Hedgland, aged twenty-three years, died suddenly at his residence, on Friday night last. He had suffered from a disease of the lungs for some time, and his death was the result of the disease.

RESEARCHING CONDUCTOR. The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company has been investigating the conduct of its conductor, Mr. J. H. Smith, in connection with the loss of a train of freight cars on the Pea Ridge branch.

THE OLD FOLKS. We were recently reminded of the old folks, and of the need for a place where they could be cared for in their old age. It is a sad condition of things, when a man of advanced years is unable to care for himself.

A BIRD SORRE LEO CURED. A bad sore leg cured by the use of a certain ointment. The patient, Mr. J. H. Smith, of Pea Ridge, had suffered from a sore leg for many years, and had been unable to walk for some time. The ointment was used for several weeks, and the sore was cured.

FROM WESTERN TRAINING GAZETTE.

Fire in Duquesne Borough--Serious Charge against Firemen.

On Tuesday night, between half-past eleven and twelve o'clock, the brewery of Messrs. Beal & Coffey, located on the bank of the canal, in Duquesne borough, caught fire from the malt kiln, and was totally destroyed, together with a large amount of stock, including 30,000 worth of barley, malt, etc., and one hundred barrels of lager beer.

The fire was caused by the burning of the kiln, and the cause of the fire is not yet ascertained. The loss of the firm is estimated at $200,000 and $250,000, which is not covered by insurance in the "Lycoming Mutual." The vessel in the rear of the damaged building was, by the intense heat, damaged by the intense heat, and was destroyed.

Award of the State Printing. On Tuesday last, the Senate, after the adjournment of the House of Representatives, awarded the contract for the public printing of the laws for the year 1858, to the following firm: J. J. Hill & Co., at 25 cents per page for printing, and 10 cents for paper.

How Capt. Heron Was Made Prisoner. In the telegraphic report of the battle of Pea Ridge, the capture of Lieutenant Colonel Heron, of this city, was announced. A detailed account of the capture has since been received, from which we learn that our brave fellow-townsmen killed one of his own men, wounded three others before he was secured.

Another Fatal Railroad Accident. On Thursday last, John Bennett, son of Mr. Bennett, of New Salem, was killed at the Pea Ridge station. He was a member of the 10th Ohio Infantry, and was engaged in the transportation of soldiers from the Pea Ridge station to the front.

Sudden Death. Thomas Hedgland, aged twenty-three years, died suddenly at his residence, on Friday night last. He had suffered from a disease of the lungs for some time, and his death was the result of the disease.

RESEARCHING CONDUCTOR. The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company has been investigating the conduct of its conductor, Mr. J. H. Smith, in connection with the loss of a train of freight cars on the Pea Ridge branch.

THE OLD FOLKS. We were recently reminded of the old folks, and of the need for a place where they could be cared for in their old age. It is a sad condition of things, when a man of advanced years is unable to care for himself.

INTERESTING VISITOR.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

The Norwalk. A writer in a public journal some years ago expressed the great want of the people on the question of public language. "There is a nation," said the writer, "which is fast becoming a nation, and that is the nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future. It is a nation of the future, and it is a nation of the future.

THE LATEST NEWS.

THE BATTLE AT NEWBERN.

Report of General Burnside.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Steamer Anglo Saxo.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

March 19--Four months at 8 1/2.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

The market for foreign exchange is quiet. The rate for four months is 8 1/2, and for six months is 8 3/4. The market for gold is also quiet, and the price is at par.

THE BATTLE AT NEWBERN.

Report of General Burnside.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

The battle at Newbern, North Carolina, was a decisive victory for the Union forces. The Confederate forces, under the command of General Johnston, were completely defeated. The Union forces, under the command of General Burnside, captured the city and a large amount of military supplies.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Steamer Anglo Saxo.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.

The steamer Anglo Saxo, under the command of Captain [Name], arrived in New York on Tuesday last. She was carrying a large number of passengers and a quantity of cargo. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew were well received.