Piperfor a Wife.

A forest since, says the Cleveland Herald, postable business firm on Water street seeived a letter from a customer near Youngslows, enclosing an order for—a Wife! The meeting held in their Hall, on Tuesday even-Sustomer was rich, middle aged, and a Dutch- ing, January 18th, 1862, passed the following reastomer was rich, middle aged, and a Dutchman, and a widower. He said he wanted a wife right off. and had no time to look up one for Aleaself, but should be in town in the course of a day or two to marry the woman which he depended on his city friends having ready for him.

Such an order rather took the merchants
aback, but the man was too good a customer te disoblige. As they had no supply of the article on hand, for sale, one of the firm went but to hunt it up, and at an Intelligence
office got track of a girl who could speak German and English, was tolerably good isoking, and very much wanted to find a husband. A bargain was struck. The Dutchman came in yesterday, found the article ready for him, approved of it, got married, and took his curious purchase home with him.

We did not learn whether the firm charged a special fee, or a per centage commission on the market value of the article.

with distinguished gallantry at Roanoke Island and at Nowbern. In the latter engagement they stormed the enemy's batteries at the point of the bayonet, and were the first to plant our flag on their intrenehments. The honor which they have thus won for the Commonwealth and themselves ought to be held in remembrance. It is therefore ordered that Roanoke Island, 5th February, 1862, and Newbern, 14th March, 1862, be inscribed on the flag of the regiment.

By order of Governer and Commander in Chief.

By order of A. G. Curtin, Governer and Commander-in-Chief.
A. L. Russill, Adjutant General.
Clement C. Barclay, of Philadelphia, has been commissioned by Gov. Curtin to visit our volunteers in the army of the Potomac, and to look more especially after those who are sick. Since the commencement of the war Mr. Barclay has been an ardent and devoted friend to the soldier; and many have been the recipients of his kindness and liberal benevolence. He goes upon this mission at his own individual expense, and is deserving of the highest honor and praise.

From Island No. 10. Sr. Louis, March 21.—The Republican's special dispatch, dated Island No. 10, yesterday, says: The cannonading by our gun and mortar boats continued all day Wednesday. All the guns but one in the upper battery on the Tennesses shore had been silenced, and one gun on the Island dismounted.

The shell from the mortars constantly fall in the rebal camp and batteries, and numbers of killed and wounded are being carried away on litters.

of killed and wounded are being carried away on litters.

A large number of leaded wagons are leaving the Tennessee shore, from which it is believed preparations are being made for the evacuation of the works.

The figating hattery of the rebels has been moved nearer the head of the island.

Gen. Pope allowed a rebel gunboat to approach within fifty yards a macked battery on Tuesday and then sunk her, killing fifteen of those on board.

He had praviously allowed five rebel steamers pass on towards New Madrid, and they are now between his batteries, unable to escape.

ere pass on cowards New Madrid, and they are now between his batteries, unable to eccape.

Over a dozen vessels, a floating battery and the battering ram, are now above Pope's batteries, and will be sunk or captured.

Mr. Beadle, one of the cldest, differe in Memphis, arrived here last night. He reports but three rabel regiments now between New Madrid and Memphis; and they are stationed at Fort Pillow.

The Confederate Government is manufacturing pixes, at Memphis, for the new levies, but less than one hundred men have responded to the last tall of the Government.

The railroads terminating at Memphis are being connected so that all the rolling stock can be sent down the New Orleans road when necessary.
