A flag of truce was sent out this morning, for the accommodation of an officer of the will coon by 1863, it cays:

Our British North American colonies stand face to face with a power which, in the appliance of modern science, and in the courage and endurance of its people, is a match for the most military of fur-pean nations. An American army when it first takes the field may be a little better than a rabble; but give it the experience of a year or two, and it becomes able to hold its own against the best troops in the world. So our people found half a contary ago, and so, if the storm which we are now contemplating, do not burst until 1863, eur people may find again. excluded therefrom.

RAILROAD TAX IN PINE TP.—A meeting of tax payers was held in Pine township, on the 15th instant, at which James Logan presided, and James Btoup acted as Secretary. Hesolutions were adopted, in resistance to the payment of a railroad tax; that the people are not morally or legally bound to pay and that taxation should be equalised on all productive property, including stocks, manufacturing associations, etc., according to the amount invested, and that the people petition theif Legislature to pass an act for that purpose. A flag of truce was sent out this morning, for the accommodation of an officer of the French Kary desiring to go south. The rebol officers and crew were very uncommunicative and we heard of no news from the south. No newspapers were received.

Among the passengers this morning, from Baltimore, were Frince de Joinville and Miss Dix.

Hopes are entertained that the telegraph cable will be repaired to-day and to-morrow, and communication with Washington resumed.
