MERSES. W. H. MCGEE & Co., Clothiers, corner of Dismond and Federal streets, are receiving their spring goods. The stock just purchased consists of the most fashionable pattorns, and any one desiring to buy spring clothing of the newest style should call at their store and examine the goods, and we are sure they will not purchase elsewhere. They are ready to sell at prices to suit the times. Departments, otc., to the subject of roturns. The exceeding importance of the information derived from reports and returns, which can no other way be obtained, obliges the Secre-tary of War to reiterate the existing orders upon the subject, and notify all commanding officers that these orders must in future be punctually obeyed. Justice to enlisted men, who are separated from their companies, re-quires that they shruld have with them de-scriptive rolls, showing the pay, due them, their clothing accounts, and everything which would be required in settling with the Gov-ernment. Should they be discharged without such papers, the mon cannot reveive their pay. C. Buiter, of Ohlo, has procured an order from the War Department, to have our seat-tored dead who feir at the battle of Fort Dan-elson removed to and buried within the walke of the fort.

ONE GREAT SUBFRISE succeeds another in so rapid succession, in the developments of the business of Barker & Co., 59 Market street, that we shall soon cease to wonder at any-thing coming from them. See their adver-tisement, and then go and see their Goods. They are shown freely and cheerfully, and the same price to all alike. ONE GREAT SURPRISE succeeds another in a
