BANKS.

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK, No. 65 Fourth Street.
Opened for business in 1854.
Open daily from 9 to 3 o'clock, also on Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 6 to 8 o'clock, and on Monday evenings from 7 to 8 o'clock.
Deposits received of all sums not less than One Dollar, and interest allowed at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, on the first days of January and July.
Interest, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor, and from that time draws interest. As the Bank was organized, with the rule of the payment of interest on deposits, at the end of each half year, and the amount of interest for the first half year being small, from the newness of the deposits, many depositors have not drawn their interest, preferring to let it remain, and thus increase the principal, on which interest is allowed at the end of the next half year. This has been found to be a very convenient arrangement for depositors, and has increased the deposits very much.
Any person depositing the sum of $100 in this Bank, and allowing it to remain for three years, will receive a Certificate of Deposit, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, on the first days of January and July.
Any person depositing the sum of $500 in this Bank, and allowing it to remain for five years, will receive a Certificate of Deposit, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, on the first days of January and July.
